

Yet Love will dream and Faith will trust,
(Since he who knows our need is just.)
That somehow, somewhere meet we must.

Alas for him who never sees
The stars shine through his cypress trees!

Who hopeless lays his dead away,
Nor looks to see the breaking day
Across the mournful marbles play;
Who hath not learned in hours of faith
This truth to flesh and sense unknown,
That Life is ever lord of death,
And Love can never lose its own!

--John Greenleaf Whittier.
