SGA Will Elect Two Top Officers

Salyer Transfers, Secretary Term Up

A new president and a new secretary will be elected by the Student Government Association at a meeting of the body to be held Jan. 21, Marjorie Wentrup, secretary announced today.

President Transfers The transfer of Clay Salyer, arts and sciences sophomore, as president to the student body presidency in March, 1946, to Columbia University necessitated the election of a new officer to fill out Salyer's unexpired term.

A Letter To Legislators

"A Time for Greatness," the title of a book by a Kentuckian named Herbert Agar, seems to summarize for us the era ahead for Kentucky. We'd like to talk to you about it.

Here at the University there is a spirit that would make you proud of the future of our state. Men and women who have lived through a sobering war are studying now with real intensity, preparing for the greater jobs of peace.

More than anything else the postwar world demands an enlightened citizenry. We know it has been said a hundred times before, but it is truer now than ever that education is the soundest investment in the future.

You've heard the facts before: that in all the eighty years of the University's existence the state legislature has appropriated only $1,234,000 for buildings not including appropriation for the fieldhouse which has not been spent.

Today, with 3,500 students climbing their steps, these aged buildings are under a far heavier load than they were back in the 80's when they were constructed.

You've heard the figures before: in 1944-45 appropriations total $1,475,700 while six of our seven neighbor state universities received amounts ranging from over nine million for Illinois to two million for West Virginia.

That's all we wanted to say. We only wanted to add our voices to those of our faculty and administration and alumni. We know you have been impressed by our needs.

New Magazine Planned For Publication In March

Chi Delta Phi Literary Journal Tagged 'Vague'

"Vague" is its title, but plans for the new magazine at the University of Kentucky are far from vague. Chi Delta Phi, women's honorary literary society, over a year ago began plans for a publication with a two-fold purpose: to help in unifying diverse campus groups through a common magazine, and to provide creative writing on the campus.

Faculty reception to the idea was enthusiastic and last month the administration gave the magazine publication the honor of a go-ahead. The University English and Journalism departments and men in other departments have offered suggestions, feeling the need to encourage more creative writing on a post-war campus of 5,000 students.

Editor-in-chief of Vague is Leona Henry from Lexington and another Lexington student, Martha Yates, is business manager. Miss Yates announces that the first 30-page edition of the magazine will appear in March. Articles by veterans will be featured in the publication along with short stories, campus features, photographs, line-drawings, poetry and other literature of current interest.

UK Vet Housing Farther Along Than Most Jobs

"The University of Kentucky is farther along in its housing problem than any other institution I know," President H. L. Donovan told The Kernal Wednesday, referring to progress in erecting 300 prefabricated houses for veteran-students on the Experiment Station farm.

By February 1, 50 houses should be ready for occupancy. Dr. Donovan continued, "unless the weather is against us again." By the opening of the spring quarter, 200 will be ready. The University has contracted with the federal government for approval and installation of plumbing for 300 houses, which is according to Dr. Donovan, "to my knowledge more than any other institution has procured."

Students members have worked "with superhuman effort" toward readying the prefabricated houses, and University representatives have traveled to Cleveland, Chicago, Willow Run, Charleston and Washington to expedite their reaction.

Interfaith Group Plans Religious Week

"Religion, Its Meaning for You" is the theme of Religious Emphasis week, to be observed on the campus beginning January 20. Sponsored by the Interfaith council, Religious Emphasis week brings to students in the interest groups, dormitories, and living units outstanding speakers who will attempt to arouse a "renewed and strengthened interest in religion."

Advanced ROTC Classes Are Being Offered This Quarter

Advanced ROTC is being offered at the University this quarter for the first time since June, 1942. Col. G. T. Mackenzie announced that the class will be limited to 62 and that more than 50 students, most of them veterans, already have enrolled.

A New Year's Peace and Joy be Yours

The Free Lance

By Scotty McCutcheon

POLITICAL NEW YEAR BEGINS INVAUSPICIOUSLY
The new year, which was heralded with promises of great things to come, including national and international peace, has gotten off to an unpropitious beginning.

Democracy is a small word with a great connotation. Too little democracy is practiced in the United States and this is an air age. If the plane is so important, why not scrap the obsolete train?

Senator Bilbo, senior senator from Mississippi, announced his stand on many vital questions last week. He asserted that he would fight the Fair Employment Practice Commission bill, that he would veto the anti-pink law bill, the anti-strike legislation, and that he would prevent by any way he could, the proposed loan to Britain.

Democracy is a small word with a great connotation. Too little democracy is practiced in the United States and this is an air age. If the plane is so important, why not scrap the obsolete train?

There is no excuse to delay the return of these high point men. If there are not enough ships, there are enough planes. Every week the army throws more new and unused war planes into the scrap heap. The time has come to utilize the materials created for them by the men in authority and win the war.

Resolved For 1946

Resolved: that 1946 will be the biggest and best year yet in the history of the University. Better not make New Year's resolutions at all than make them and break them, but the students, with the help of Kentuckians, can make and expect to keep the following:

Resolved: that next quarter will find the University better prepared to meet the scholastic facilities are adequate at present. For example, the students in one popular political class must move their chairs, which are lined clear to the blackboard, to let the professor enter the room.

Resolved: that the plans of the athletics department will be supported either by actual money contributions, as the people in the state are doing, or by wholehearted cooperation in every way.

Resolved: that the University students will eliminate cheating, and begin to build a tradition for honor in quizzes, assignments and observation of rules.

Resolved: that all problems will be met optimistically.

Resolved: that the plans to provide dormitory and dining room facilities for men and women will be immediately gotten underway. With the registration now only 400 below the all-time peak, and present housing and feeding very inadequate what will another year bring?

Life, Liberty, and Pursuit

By Adele Denman

LIBERTY: There has been quite a bit of discussion concerning whether or not there should be more gossip in The Kernel. In answer to this question I have included excerpts from an editorial from the Hi-Times, Henry Clay high school paper.

WE WANT NO GOSSIP COLUMN
There's no room for Paul Fry on the Hi-Times staff. In the first place, we all enjoy reading a gossip column—until our names appear there, then we naturally would be mad. At whom? The Hi-Times.

You see, it takes a person who does nothing but go about looking into other people's business to write one of these columns, and the Hi-Times knows of no one who is capable of filling this position.

Then, too, it would be the same few people who would be mentioned in every issue. This would not be unfair to them, but also the ones who were never mentioned.

We have a purpose in explaining this. We believe that if you will sit down and think it out, you too will agree with us that there will be less trouble all around if the gossip column is omitted from the paper.

If high school students realize the dangers of a gossip column, and consider it futile and useless, then why do college students clamor for it? It might be best all around if some of us grew up and I suggest that we consider the idea and clean up, and cut down the gossip.

The essential difference between New Years and any other time in the year is that on that day every one gets a fresh start to remedy all the previous year.

The first mistake of 1945 was that there were not enough men on the campus. Well, now the ratio is nearer one man for every woman. This is giving the girls a new confidence. Well, now the ratio is nearer one man for every woman.

The second mistake was that people stayed at home too much last quarter. But now? Ever hang-out on the campus has become a mad house. One vet in the book store had been standing at the counter for about three hours. Finally a clerk took pity on him and asked what he wanted. "Oh, I don't want anything," he remarked cheerfully. "I'm just looking," and a slight wolf howl drowned out this last word.

The third mistake was that too many people got pinned. New pins have become a forgotten past time and are carried in the depths of female purses, or they have returned to the original owner with so much speed.

Yes, things are really looking up. And speaking of looking up, several staunch citizens were greatly astonished to see five Air Corps discharged playing dive bomber by jumping out of a third story window Friday afternoon.

We suggest to the writer that he pay more attention to the afternoon excursions of these insignificant. As to the other news in The Kernel, upperclassmen hold the majority of leadership positions on the campus, consequently more often make the front page. We support the news as it happens—without "catering" to anyone. Make news and it will be printed.

Every so often the old idea of the University as a glorified country club pops up.

Collegiate Radio Network Organized in East Colleges: Network radio broadcasting is no longer a thing of the future. Four eastern Pennsylvania colleges joined their student-run campus stations recently in a permanent wire hookup.

Make Up Your Mind: Scattered in a phone call to East Cary Hall at Purdue University these days may be a little startling to those not yet initiated, for the first answer one is likely to get is "This is Heaven. Which little angel do you want?" or the more dignified, "This is summer—summer-in and summer-out."

College Victory: Students in colleges all over the country have really gotten behind the present Victory Loan drive. The bond drive at Carnegie Institute of Technology has been put on a contest basis and already is in full swing. Girls, each representing a sorority on the campus, are attempting to sell the most bonds, in order that they may have the honor of being crowned Bond Queen. This publicity stunt has already netted the school $25,000 in Victory bonds.

Mean for Observance: It certainly looked as if the meat shortage had hit the University of Akron quite hard, when one of the faculty members ordered a half pound of steak. But that thought was quickly dispersed when it became known that veritable armies of students were dissecting these sharks for observation purposes.

Could Be: An English prof at Purdue was explaining to a class that though some words have the same definitions, the implications involved change their use. For an illustration he used something that had come up in his freshman class when he had asked them to say something they were drinking water in their hometowns.

One coed thought the situation over and decided that everyone else would say that the drinking water in his hometown was pure. Turning to her trustworthy dictionary she hunted rapidly through it and came out with the statement that the water in her hometown was chaste.

Connections with other telephones will be made through the nearest of several receiving and transmitting stations operated by the telephone company. It is generally similar to the existing ship-shore radio telephone service for vessels in coastal and inland waters.

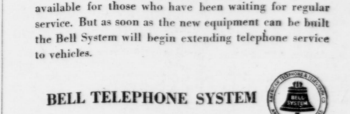

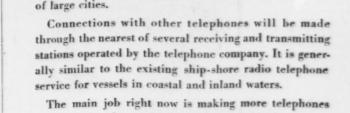

The main job right now is making more telephones available for those who have been waiting for regular service. But as soon as the new equipment can be built the Bell System will begin extending telephone service to Bell System.

Cuss and Discus

One of the most annoying and breakable instrument upon which anyone is the fact that the piano is in the SUB card room and the piano lounge are out of tune. To make matters worse, the notes get "stuck" and some of the most important ones cannot be used. Can anything be done to remedy this situation?

Miss Mackie Raddall, director of the Union, said that the piano in the card room was gone over in a typical Rupp screen play and we've yelling for him to shoot. But no, he's not shooting, he's getting rid of the hall as fast as he can. May it be three, let's all pounce on him at once, all two thousand of us. Who does Rupp think he is?

The Kernel is catering to upperclassmen in gossip columns, etc., and there isn't enough news about freshmen. We had no idea that the freshmen would be hurt because they weren't in the gossip column, but

FROM THE GREEKS

By Janet Sulzer NE O P H E T F X V G This week the sororities and fraternities offer a few news items that are not covered with the fast and furious excitement which always accompanies rush week. Unlike the preceding quarter, however, both divisions of the UK Greek week have been parting their respective rubbers in the same week, ending in six of constant festivity to the campus. Here are the parties:

The ADP's entertained with a "cocktail" party from 4:30 to 6 p.m. Thursday afternoon in honor of a group of rubbers. Misses Lois Jean Shipley and Ella Doggett, were in charge of arrangements.

Wednesday night the Alpha Gamma had a rush party at the Alpha Gamma house. Mary Frank Ward was in charge of the arrangements. Tonight, from 7:30 to 10 p.m., they will entertain with another party. Nancy Skeen making the preparations.

The Delta Zetas had a tea Sunday afternoon for a group of rubbers. Neils Nagler made arrangements for the event.

Sunday afternoon, an open house for rubbers was held in the Sigma Chi house. The affair lasted from 4 to 6 p.m. and was sponsored by the Sigma Chi mother's club.

Tuesday night, the Sigma Chi's feasted rubbers at the Little Inn. Seated followed the dinner.

Miss Prentz is in charge of a stag party to be given tonight at the Theta house at that fraternity.

The Kappa Deltas entertained rubbers with a buffet dinner Tuesday evening. Mary McDonald made the arrangements.

Monday and Wednesday night, the Zeta Tau Alphas entertained with an after-the-game and theater party respectively. Arrangements were made by Betty Robinson.

Thursday night, the Thetas entertained with a rush party. Mary Frances Helmeck arranged the event. She is also in charge of the Kappa Alpha Theta party to be given tonight at the Theta house from 7:30 to 9 p.m.

The Padlock restaurant was the scene of a Phi Delta Theta party Monday night in honor of rubbers and dates. Wednesday night, the Phi Deltas entertained with a stag party at the Little Inn. Cal Roell is social chairman.

My supply of rush parties is exhausted. Social events of a non-rush character include a Sigma Phi Epsilon tea to be given Sunday in honor of faculty members and their wives. Buddy O'Neill and Cornell Clarke are in charge of the arrangements.

Miss Jean Spicer, Kappa Alpha Theta, was chosen "dream girl of Sigma Phi Epsilon" at the fraternity's dance December 15. She was presented with a Sig Ep sweetheart pin.

Recent guests at the KD house were Misses Joyce Miller and Norma Nieswonger, both former members of the UK chapter.

Kappa Doris McCauley is back at UK this quarter after working and studying modeling in New York. Hugh Collett, Sigma Chi, left Lexington Wednesday to be inducted into the Army. He's back: flat feet!

Tomorrow afternoon from 3 to 6 p.m. the Kappa Deltas will hold open house for all civilian men on the campus.

According to rumor that reached me from a very reliable source, the

Dance To Be Held In Union Ballroom Tomorrow Night

The Student Union dance, sponsored by the Student Dance group, will be held tomorrow night in the Ballroom of the Union building from 9 to 12 o'clock. The dance is informal.

A "wishing well" will be the central attraction at the dance, and the money tossed into it will be contributed to the Athletic Association.

Musical entertainment will be furnished by Bobby Bledis's Blue and Gold orchestra. Committee chairmen are Sylvia Mayer and Dean Myers, decorations: Dick Hundley, chaperons, and Ellen Wood, publicity. Jack Bannahan is in charge of arrangements.

ADPi Pledges Eleet Shirley Hood

Shirley Hood, agriculture and home economics freshman of Eta chapter, was elected president of the pledge class of Beta Psi chapter of Alpha Delta Pi sorority.

Other officers include Mary Lou Olson, arts and sciences sophomore of Winnetka, Ill., secretary, and Suzanne Patch, agriculture and home economics freshman of St. Petersburg, Fla., treasurer.

Sigma Nu Reactivates

Gamma Iota chapter of Sigma Nu fraternity held a re-activation meeting last Friday night in the Union building. Eight actives and two alumni were present.

Plans were made to re-open the fraternity house at 173 Euclid avenue, which is now leased by the University as a women's residence house.

Officers elected were Lance Trigg, president; James Morse, chaplain; William B. Fowler, marshal, and a William O. Leslie, treasurer.

A dinner in honor of rubbers was held Thursday night in the Lafayette hotel.

New Magazine

Wallace 'Wah-Wah' Jones, the most talked about player in high school basketball, has been playing since someone handed him a ball and told him he was a member of the Harlan third-grade team.

'Wah-Wah' earned a starting position on the Harlan varsity squad when only in the eighth grade. Since then he has established a national scoring record - 2,389 points.

He made history by being named on the all-Kentucky team three years and had it not been for an upset that knocked his team out of the state tournament one year he would probably have been the first youth in Kentucky basketball history to be named to the all-Kentucky team for four consecutive years.

His high mark in scoring was last season, when he bagged 831 points - only three more than the 828 that he counted in his junior year.

Alex Gross and Bob Brannum both outstanding centers at Kentucky - Brannum made all-American in 1944 - are playing ball together at Camp Hood, Texas.

Tennessee's 42-38 win over Temple followed by Temple's 53-45 win over Kentucky certainly has given the prognosticators who make their predictions by comparative scores something to think about.

Ohio U. was ahead in the game last Saturday night approximately 22 minutes of the playing time.

Ohio U. was ahead in the game last Saturday night approximately 22 minutes of the playing time. During the game it was doubtful at times whether the 'Cats were playing before a home crowd...

Jack Parkinson, present high scorer for the Southeastern Conference, was elected captain of the 1945-46 Wildcat basketball team at a meeting held just before the UK cagers left for their trip to New York and Philadelphia.

Parkinson has won two basketball titles at Kentucky, and has been on the all-Southeastern conference team for the past two years.

The newly elected captain of the team is 21 years old, six feet tall and weighs 174 pounds. He graduated from Yorktown, Ind., high school, where he played basketball for three years.

Well, we haven't seen them play and we don't claim to have a great football team yet, but after New Year's Day may be Southern California should schedule a game with them next year.
