The Men's Student Council submitted the following new constitution, which was approved:

CONSTITUTION OF THE MEN'S STUDENT COUNCIL

PREAMBLE

We, the men students of the University of Kentucky, in order to secure and maintain an effective organization of student government in accordance with the authority granted by the University Senate to the Student Council, do establish this Constitution.

ARTICLE I

Name

The name of this organization shall be the Men's Student Council of the University of Kentucky.

ARTICLE II

Membership

Section 1. The membership of the Student Council shall consist of men students elected by the qualified electors of the student body of the University of Kentucky. (A qualified elector, within the meaning of this Constitution, shall be any man student regularly enrolled or registered in any College of the University of Kentucky, except such as may be enrolled in short courses not leading to a college degree, or in the summer session, and except such as may be disqualified or disfranchised by the action of the Student Council).

Section 2. All candidates for membership on the Council shall have a scholastic standing of one or better at the time of the election and shall not be on probation for any cause. If, after election, a member is placed on probation, he is automatically disqualified to serve on the Council and the Council shall elect a successor in accordance with Section 2, Article VI, of the Constitution.

ARTICLE III

Election of Council Members

Section 1. The members of the Student Council shall be:

Six members of the Senior class; four members of the Junior class; two members of the Sophomore class; and one member of the Freshman class. To insure the permanency and promote the efficiency of the organization, one member shall be elected each year by the Council from its membership to serve during the succeeding year.

Section 2. The six representatives of the Senior class shall be elected, one from each College, by the qualified electors of the Senior class of that College, at a meeting called for that purpose, which shall be held the second Friday in May, such meeting to be under the direction of the Senior member of the Council from that College.

Section 3. The Junior class shall have four representatives on the Student Council. For the purpose of representation, the Colleges of the University shall be listed in the following order: Agriculture, Arts and Sciences, Commerce, Education, Engineering and Law. To effect a system of rotation of representation, a representative from each of the colleges of Agriculture, Arts and Sciences, Commerce and Education shall be elected in the year 1929 to serve during the following year. In 1930-31 the colleges of Agriculture and Arts and Sciences shall be unrepresented. In 1931-32 the Colleges of Commerce and Education shall be unrepresented; this system of rotation to continue from year to year. The Junior representatives shall be elected by the qualified electors of the Junior class of the respective colleges at a meeting called for that purpose on the first Thursday in May; such meeting to be called and presided over by a member of the Council delegated for that purpose by the President of the Council.

Section 4. The two representatives of the Sophomore class shall be elected by the members of the Student Council from six nominees, one from each college, selected by the qualified electors of the Sophomore class of the respective colleges at a meeting called for that purpose on the first Thursday in May; such meeting to be called and presided over by a member of the Council delegated for that purpose by the President of the Council. Both Sophomore representatives may not be from the same college. In event the qualified electors of the Sophomore class of any College fail to select a candidate, the members of the Council shall have the power to nominate a candidate from that College. The names of the Sophomore candidates shall be filed with the Secretary of the Council by the members of the Council in charge of the meetings, within five days after the nominations. The election of the representatives of the Sophomore class by the Council shall be within ten days after the candidates are nominated.

Section 5. The Freshman class shall be represented by the male officer of the highest rank; his election shall immediately qualify him for membership on the Council; he shall not have the right to vote.

Section 6. The election by the Council of one of its members to serve during the following year shall be held on or before the third Friday in May; the member elected shall be President of the Council during the following year. It shall be the duty of this member to call a meeting of the councilmen-elect on or before the fourth Friday in May for the purpose of electing other officers for the following year.

Section 7. Election of officers shall be by secret ballot. A majority of the votes cast shall be necessary to elect an officer. In the first vote does not yield a majority, the second vote shall be taken on the two candidates who received the highest number of votes.

Section 8. In the event of a duly elected officer not returning to the University or in the event of his declining to take up his duties upon his return to the University, his office shall be declared vacant and such vacancy shall be filled by the Council at its first meeting.

Section 9. In the event there is not a regular member of the Council who is on the staff of the Kentucky Kernel, then the men members of the staff of the Kentucky Kernel shall have the right to elect from their membership a representative on the Student Council.

ARTICLE IV

Officers of the Council

Section 1. The officers of the Council shall be a President, Vice-President and Secretary-Treasurer. The election of officers shall be as provided in Article III, Sections 6 and 7. The President and Vice-President of the Council shall be bona fide students of the Senior class whose standing is such as to assure their graduation at the end of the year.

ARTICLE V

Section 1. The President shall preside at all meetings, appoint all committees, and perform such duties as are usually incumbent upon such officer.

Section 2. The Vice President shall perform the duties of the President if he is absent or incapacitated.

Section 3. It shall be the duty of the Secretary-Treasurer to take and preserve correct minutes of the proceedings of the Council; to notify committees and officers of their appointment or election; to notify all members of the Council of any special meeting that may be called by the President; to read all papers handed to him for that purpose by the President; to conduct all correspondence and report the communications received; to keep a complete record of the funds received by him; make a complete account of same at the end of the term to the Council and to the Faculty Auditing Committee, and turn over the balance to his successor; to pay out money only upon the order of the Council, and perform such other duties as usually devolve upon a Secretary-Treasurer.

Section 4. A quorum consisting of at least eight members of the Council shall be necessary for the conducting of any business.

Section 5. Meetings shall be held throughout the school year at the discretion of the President of the Council, but there shall be a meeting held at least once a month.

Section 6. A special meeting will be held upon the request of the President or five members of the Council.

Section 7. A favorable vote of a majority of the members present shall be necessary to pass any measure or to decide any question unless otherwise provided in this Constitution.

Section 8. Roberts' Rules of Order shall govern the procedure of all meetings of the Council, except cases wherein such rules conflict with the provisions of this Constitution or the By-Laws.

ARTICLE VI

Powers of the Council

Section 1. Any member of the Council may be removed for any cause deemed sufficient by two-thirds of the members of the Council.

Section 2. A vacancy occurring in the Council shall be filled by the Council, but the system of representation of classes and colleges shall be preserved.

Section 3. (1) The Council shall have power to regulate the conduct of undergraduate men students at all University or student functions:

(2) To prescribe rules for the conduct of Freshmen;

(3) To act in cooperation with the women's self-governing body in arranging the social calendar and establishing rules for the holding of cotillions, dances, hopes, entertainments and exhibitions, subject to the approval of the University Senate Committee; and

(4) To make all by-laws which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into execution the foregoing powers, and all other powers vested in the Student Council by this Constitution.

ARTICLE VII

Section 1. This Constitution and By-Laws shall become effective upon ratification by the University Senate.

Section 2. Any part of this Constitution or any by-law may be repealed by a three-fourths vote of the members of the Council or by a majority voted of the undergraduate men students of the University.

Section 3. This Constitution may be amended by a favorable vote of two-thirds of the members of the Council, provided a written copy of the proposed amendment has been submitted to the Council at a previous meeting.

Section 4. The By-laws of the Council may be amended or new ones adopted by a majority vote of the members of the Council, provided a written copy of the proposed amendment or by-laws has been submitted to the Council at a previous meeting.

BY-LAWS

ARTICLE I

Section 1. No undergraduate male student shall, while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, be present at a University or student function.

Section 2. Freshmen shall wear the regulation cap from the time of enrolment until the first Friday in May following.

Section 3. Freshmen shall not attend the Junior Prom or Senior Ball.

Section 4. Freshmen shall not break Seniors at student dances.

Section 5. Freshmen shall be courteous to upperclassmen at all times.

Section 6. The Council shall have power to summarily inflict appropriate punishment upon any student for contempt of the Council in accordance with Section 10, Article I, of the By-Laws.

Section 7. Any student guilty of perjury before the Council shall be punished in accordance with Section 10, Article I, of the By-Laws.

Section 8. Any wilful act or conduct by a student such as causes or threatens a substantial injury to the property or reputation of the University, or to the students thereof, shall be punishable in accordance with Section 10, Article I, of the By-Laws.

Section 9. All summonses for appearance before the Council will be issued by the Registrar of the University.

Section 10. A violation of any of the foregoing by-laws shall be punishable by expulsion or suspension from the University, or by reprimand, or by depriving the student of his social privileges. Expulsion as herein used means permanent exclusion of the student from the University. Suspension as herein used means exclusion of the student from the University for a definite time. Reprimand as herein used means an admonition to the student given by the proper officer of the Council according to the circumstances in the particular case.

Section 11. When the Council finds a student guilty of a charge preferred against him, and agrees upon the sentence, the student shall appear before the Council and the sentence be pronounced to him by the President of the Council; such sentence to take effect immediately.

Section 12. Written notice of each case to be considered by the Council shall be filed with the Senate Committee through the Dean of Men.

Section 13. The President of the Council shall give written notice to the Dean of Men and the Registrar of the University of each sentence when it is imposed.

ARTICLE II

Section 1. Any student expelled, suspended or deprived of his social privileges by the Council shall have the right to appeal to the University Senate. This right shall terminate upon the expiration of ten days from the time notice of the sentence is served upon the student.

Section 2. The Council shall have power to arrange an appropriate contest annually between the Freshman and Sophomore men students of the University.

Section 3. The Council shall select at its first regular meeting of each school year, one of its members to represent it at the meetings of the University Senate, and one to represent it at the meetings of the Discipline Committee. The President of the Council shall have the power to appoint a member of the Council as a special representative to the University Senate at any time he deems it proper.

The Senate approved the following recommendation from the College of Law:

"Instead of the courses which were required for graduation from the College of Law during the past year, it is proposed to submit the following requirements:

First, that all first year courses be required absolutely, and those only. In lieu of courses which have been required in most cases but not always insisted upon, the following provision has been made: that in the second year students be recommended to take Constitutional Law, Trial Practice, Equity, Evidence and Property III; in the third year Trusts, Property IV, Private Corporations and Conflict of Laws. The remaining number of hours required for graduation will be entirely elective as to subjects.

A petition was presented from the University Department of Music, Phi Mu Alpha, Mens Glee Club, Womens Glee Club and the cast of the Operetta Rosamunde, that certain students cast for leading parts in the Operetta who were ineligible on account of their scholastic standing be allowed to take part in the production. After some discussion this petition was denied.

President McVey made an announcement of the dates for the various exercises of Commencement week. He stated that the Commencement speaker would be Dr. Carl Van Doren, Editor-in-chief of the Literary
