Sat. 3.00

Dear Edna.

my how long it seems since I last saw you. But think, it has only been 2 weeks.
Boy I wish you were here with me we sure would have some times.
But, I sure am. Excuse me for not writing any sooner but you can understand I couldn't write to everyone at the same time. I've had 2 letters from Freda and say kid, they're sure interesting only not half long enough. Julia has written to me also Ada and Pauline. They told me almost all the news. Some exciting to.

Say now you must excuse all this junk. I wish you could see how I'm sitting. Propped up here by the window with the junk in my lap. Then to boot - there is 5 other kids piled all over everything in here.
They're playing their "ukes" and singing so if I get anything out of the way in here, you will know what is the matter. Ha! Ha! But listen here, if I put any of the conversation in here you would simply fall over. Guess why?
Why because it wouldn't be to tell. See? I suppose you read Fred's letter so I needn't

3.

Tell you what has happened all last week. Well, last nite we had no study hour so we got to dance all evening. We went up stairs about 10.30 and then Ada and I went to bed and the bell rang for lights out. We had sws out. In about 10 minutes the 2 kids in the next room came over and 3 from down stairs came up. We all had eats so we swce had some time. We put a dress over the transom so our light wouldn't show. We played cards and ate untill about 12.30 then 3 slept in my bed and the other 4 in Ada's bed. The 24 got heaps of sleep. On Sat mornings you can sleep as long as you want to. Also on Sun. morn. We all layed in bed untill about half past ten. Then we ate some more.

Talk about fun. I can dance now. We dand every nite aftes dinner. More fun and more darned people killed.
I went to kin. last Sat. Say thats sure some town. Had some time to. And say, Ie got a pair offknickers) imagine how I look. And Wed morn Ada and I, and 2 other kids got up at 5 oclock and played tennis.
Then at 7.30 We had breakfast.

3.

You may think we have no fun here but fun dont spell it. To much fun is the trouble.
The kids here are about to devel me to death but Im not quite ready to die yet. Ive learned to play 500 and bridge to.
Now aint that nice. When you come over — Oh boy.

And that aint all.
Didnt do a thing here. Didnt even have to go to Sunday S. for good little girls.

Maybe the next thing you tell me will be "Mr Rudolph Kirby and Miss Pearl Marie Batchiff were married last week." I wouldnt faint, now you tell me all the news and write soon.

~~Maybe next time~~
will be worrying me to death.
Are they having "Widespreads" Write soon.

I've got to get this in the mail.

Please give to Edna.

Say old kid you said some thing in your letter about a note. Well goodness send it to me. I'll be crazy if you dont. I'll write to you maybe. sure. But tell Virginia Gilmore that I've a letter started to her. I've got her picture and gee its cute. But above all send me that fate ful note from him?

Well so long

Dear Edna.

I am so lonesome
since you are gone, that I hardly know what to do with myself. But I look forward to the day when you will be back in Indianapolis again. (Hoping that to be soon.) Offtimes I sit and think of how fortunate I was, to have met you, and of the good times I saw with you. so I hope, that they are not the last.

I have been out at Ravenswood since you left and what I had to do was a plenty, but I found time for a little fishing on the side. Although I caught a few fish, generally the sucker was on the other end of the pole. Ha, Ha. Mother and Dad were out here Saturday and Sunday so you know I had to be good.

On Saturday Aug. 19. I entered my canoe in the Canoe Carnival, which is a yearly affair here, and Oh, how I wished you were with me, it would have been much more pleasant for me.

How are your Father, Mother and Sister, I hope they are all well. Say "Hello" to them for me.

I have not seen Bertha but once since you left, tried to phone her but failed for she was gone all the time. Must close now, as it is almost 9:30 A.M. and I must get the 11 am car for

Dear Edna,

I told some boys what a nice girl you are and they said for me to prove it. There is only one way to prove it. Please send me your picture it is the only way I know of right away.

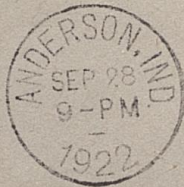

Please don't think me as newey I only want to prove to the boys that I know fine girl when I see her. I think your the finest girl I've ever seen.

I am sending a note from another <sup>boy</sup> for you to give to Hilda He would like to know her.

If you will both send your pictures we will appreciate it very much.

Dearest Edna:

Well if you simply won't write at all I'll just write a tiny bit and if you answer real good & soon why I'll do better next time. What have you been doing lately. Tell me about some of your good times. When are you coming to Cincinnati again. Say, I'm off with you if you don't let me come to see you - I want to so bad. Gee if you were here I'm sure you would do. Haven't heard from Freda for ages either. I guess you forgot me; honey Aida Ballenger has written twice. Awful cute letters to. But Julia never writes real soon. Say we have our plan here this time. nite & I'm simply scared to death. I'm Helen Reese in it. A real rich society girl. Ha! Ha! Say tell Virginia Johnson to write. One of the girls wants to know where your aunts & grandmothers live. When is your birthday? Perhaps I will go to a camp up in Vermont this summer with some of the girls here

I hope so. I doubt if I go to the tourney this year.

Joaquin Miller thus describes a storm in the Canyon which he witnessed: "The battles of the elements roared far below us and all the time, as far as the eye could reach, the white clouds curled, drifted, drooped, died, then rose again. The thunder at intervals was fearfully impressive. We felt at one time that the temples, towers and battlements of red which burst here and there among the thunder clouds, must be crumbled into dust. The lightning continually wrote the autograph of God on and through the clouds at our feet, but when the clouds would part, all would be as before."

Dear Edna May:

I knew you will be surprised to get such a prompt answer, I really am ashamed of myself. I received your letter dated Sept. 17, and glad to hear you was having such a good time. I suppose you are very busy now with your school work. Will make the best of it (yes) take advice from an old man.

Well what have you been doing lately? I went to an all night dance last Saturday at Madison we danced till the sun come up.

Will go to dance in Sacramento to night at the Hotel Sacramento.

I missed a twenty day trip up to the Ylamath River, a party was going up last week for a fishing and hunting trip, The steel head are running now in great swarms. A steel head is a fish on the type of a trout or looks to be a cross between a salmon and trout, they stay in the sea or salt water till fall and then take a run up the rivers. Their meat is good and is very fine jerked or dried.

I will wait now till the snow falls in the mountains, after the first snow fall while the snow is light on the ground you are able to track your game, from deer <sup>and</sup> bear.
This is a real spot and I have a great place to go.

Last year a friend and myself went up to the same place in the heights of the Sierra, we went as far as we could with a car, got a guide and two pack horses and ~~went~~ with the two hounds. went for a four day hike back in the mts even beyond <sup>Call</sup> the trails, the deer would come within 50 yards of where the camp and feed and drank at our spring

I say you are quite nice to get into a fuss with Brownie just when Knappy is going away. Now I suppose you know who it is taking valuable (?) time writing. Well you see it is this way Aron Lindley has a date with E.W. next Sunday mite and P.K. is going away and he wants me to go along "So" if you do not have a date then I certainly would not be in the adverse mind "so to speak" of coming up if you would put yourself so low as to go with me just "once." kindly let me know as soon as possible and then I'll tell you more about it. Please don't think for a minute that P.K. will get sore because that is all fixed up and please don't say any thing to her or any one else, any. Please excuse

"Dear little Edna May,"

I sure do have a lot of names about. I forgot about signing Crisson's name to that card and when your letter came - I had to study for a while to make it country town. But I think I can stand it till school starts. That's about a month yet. I'll just work like

Would like to be back in or two. I'd like to dance with you again only I'd want you to act nice so we wouldn't get called for "naughty

Do you ever see Bill Halstead? He's

had better. I am going to join the Russelites first time they have Church
then I will be good too.
I am not living right for some cause or another because I went out Sunday and tried to find me a girl but got stung about a dozen times. That made me mad so I quit it as a bad job. I wonder if I could get stung that many times in Hager.

I hope not.

Today is my birthday.
I am sixteen today and never been kissed and never expect to be. I begin to feel old already.

Dearest Edna,

I know that you will be very much surprised to get a letter from me, but no more than I am at writing one. I didn't have any thing to do, so I just decided I would write you a few lines and see if you would answer. C ?

What have you been doing all summer, it seems that I haven't seen you to talk to you since school was out. What are you going to do this winter, are you going to work or go to school ? How soon are you going to move to Cincinnati ? Do you hate to leave Hagerstown ?

I'll bet that you think I am very inquisitive (is that spelled right ? ), but I couldn't hardly blame you, as I get those kind of spells every once in a while.

I don't know yet what I will do, if I can get a real good job I may work, but if not I expect I will go to school someplace. I don't know where exactly, I.U., I expect as I have a girl friend down there who wants me to come, or I may go to Terr Haute, really I don't know what I am going to do.

What are all the rest of the kids going to do ? Is Brownie going to DePau, I wouldn't mind going there if I knew some other girls who would be there, but I hate to be any place and not know anyone, don't you ?

I know that you are positively bored silly with all this mess so I will close and give you a few minutes peace.

Dearest Edna;

Recieved your letter this A.M. but have been unable to answer it until this after, for I have been terribly busy and this is Saturday.

I had most forgotten which had written last, and in fact I forgot that I was writing to you, Arent I awful?, I'll shay sho.

Good for you Edna, and may you Graduate with the hightest of grades for it does me good to hear of anything like that, and to think that it is you only makes me that much the happier. Gee whiz Edna you sure are going fine in this old world, while I am merely just plugging along, but probably some day I may get to test my ability.

You came home from the show and answered my letter? Why Edna why didnt you get right ready and get to bed and let my letter go for I can wait and your sleep means a lot to you in the following day. Even thou I love to read your letters and all of that I wouldnt want you to waste the chances of going. They say that "wait" (weight) is what broke the bridge down, but my bridge is made of solid steel and will never fall from such things.

I guess the shows there are like the ones here, the good ones all come the same week, and you happen to be a little bit short on money, and then the next week when you are setting fine all the shows are rotten. , but why let us worry over a little subject like a show.

So your Mother has gone for a while and you and Marie are keeping hous? I think that you are telling tales for I most know that you can do all of that splendid and that you love to cook. You speaking about that bunch of kids and you just about teazing the house down, makes me think of the nite that, you, Mildred Kirsch, Carl Adams, and myself were making a great deal of noise out in front of Mrs. Krups house, and she came out and chased us off. I would like to live those days over again and see if I couldnt change my opinion of things, wouldnt you?

Virginia Gilmore, Why Edna I saw that name in the marriage lincense column the other nite but she gave the address as Indianapolis, surely it couldnt be the same girl, could it? I thought that she was mighty sweet at that, but she seemed to be most as bashful as Marie. Oh I just love to tease Marie and see her blush so much, for she gets the rosiest complexion.

Well it might of had benn tought about my girl, but thats not half of it, I didnt care so very much anyway. Every time she wrote she either had a sore throat or hurt her finger, or had the tummy ache, and I got so that every time I got a letter I could tell what was the matter with her., and besides that I gottto feeling like I was playing with death itself.

Let me tell you what to do Edna, as your steady is sore at you., just let on like you are trying to highbrow him, and he wont stand for that and will come creeping bach with a word of forgiveness on his lips. I wouldnt tell you this but beings as I am a boy I seem to know how it is myself.

Listen Edna if you can type that good what are you keeping yourself from a good position for? You could easily make thirty dollars or even more a week by it.

Let me help you and insert an add in the paper for you.,but probably you wouldnt want to loose your schooling so I wont go any farther with it.

But I will add this much- if at any time I can do you any good or even as much as help you at all,just write me and yours will be fulfilled right away. I suppose that you have also taken short hand work,and I think that you could secure a dandy position and get an income that would sing a song every week.

Gee it kinda looks as thou I am going my limit to-day but I got wound up this morning and I havent been able to stop talking yet. You see I have applied for a better position with more pay and I was talking to the fellow shortly before I began this letter and he told me that it would be open for me in about a week or so. It has made me a bit excited to think that I have at last started on my upward trail to success.

I know Edna that this is not even as much as called good typeing but I am sure that you will look over it and excuse all mistakes and the hundred misspelled words.,cause I guess I8m to blamed lazy to go back and correct them.

Must close but will sure write again and try to do a bit better.

Success to you,and hopes for your happiness,

P.S.Answer soon for I want to hear what you have to say, "In other words, I am hungry for your letters!"

Miss Edna Bernhardt, Hagerstown, Ind.

My dear Miss Bernhardt:

Oxford College is situated on the direct line to Chicago, two hours distant from Indianapolis, in the beautiful town of Oxford among the hills of Southern Ohio, an hour distant from Cincinnati, a recognized musical center.

Recently we sent you literature of Oxford College, which we believe to be a college worthy of your interest. The instruction is conducted by exceptional teachers. The atmosphere is that of a refined and cultured home. We have real student government, and exceptional social privileges.

Our standard college course of four years leads to the B. A. degree, B. S. degree in Home Economics, in Music to the degree of B. M. We have a special two year course in Normal Domestic Science, giving a diploma and a certificate to teach without examination, under certain conditions. We also have excellent courses in Art and Expression.

Fifteen units from an accredited High School admits to our Freshman class without examination. Our small classes assure each student individual attention. The expense, as outlined in the catalogue, is $467 a year which covers room, board, heat, light and tuition in all the regular branches.

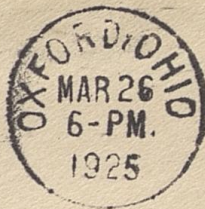

As our accommodations are limited, an early application is necessary. If there are any questions you would like to ask, we will gladly try to answer them.

Hoping to hear from you, I am,

Very truly yours

Hi Beacher:-

Well here I be, setting here writing a letter been a long time since the last one. (nuf nonsense) Ha.

Reckon you heard the sad news Centerville beat Hagerstown at H. 36 to 31 - couldn't get to see it my Uncle died Friday and I was not feeling very well. (Funeral <sup>Sunday (19th)</sup> tomorrow)

I know accountants make a lot of money but - he's got to have brains and then some.

My bookkeeping is part accountancy, going to try to get a job in a bank.

You'll not be <sup>2</sup>shocked for a long time, if you ~~would~~ wait till I'm married, so don't hold your breath until I do. I have got a good many pretty girls on my shirt tail I don't have apron strings Ha! Ha!

I am comming down next summer If I don't get a job, may stay a day or two, want to see the sights of the city. Go to the zoo and see some of my relation, (Oh I didn't mean that! dag-gone the luck) just a slip of my pen.

I'm still tooting on my sax, when I get a job I'm going to take some more lessons, maybe I can be in the orchestra or dance at your wedding, nother slip of my pen.

I've got Dinners like down at my house got so I can hammer away on it pretty good.

Well my pen has slipped too much now. Guess I had better sign off, got to get ready to go to Germantown to-nite. (sat)

Don't forget to write.
I'm <sup>sure</sup> glad to get your letter, and also glad to hear you like your job.

So Long,

Wayne.
