M.I.K. GETS SOME PRESS

The following item appeared in the ANDERSON NEWS on April 29, 1982.

Free fun

One thing I enjoyed during my recent fabulous and fun-filled three-day vacation was a visit to the Margaret I King Library on the UK campus.

I never fully appreciated that facility during my years in Lexington, but I now realize how much fun and how educational it can be to browse among the thousands of books, magazines and newspapers.

One section of particular interest to me is on the second floor where there are bound volumes of all back issues of most any magazine you can think of.

If you haven't visited this great facility recently or have never been...go...there's lots of free entertainment to be had.

It is nice to know we are occasionally appreciated.

PICNIC GOERS TAKE HEED

Remember -- the picnic is tonight, see you there.

Also, it is never too late to pay your LS0 dues. Please send them to Gwen Curtis in the Map Department, or give them to your departmental representative.

THANKS TO THE STAFF

Thank you for the beautiful Gorham glass ash tray and the elegant silver cigarette lighter. They enhance my coffee table and will be admired, used and enjoyed for years to come.

It was with mixed feelings that I decided to retire. It is always hard to sever day by day contacts with friends you have worked with over the years, and I will miss you. However, I am looking forward, with great anticipation, to doing the many things I haven't had time for in the past.

Sincerely,

Martha Hugg

CONGRATULATIONS to Cecil and Kathy Madison on the recent birth of their son, Cecil, Jr.
