

TOAST & OR JOK'S

(First) The rich girl that finish school, Her father gave her a big car (make it a large make one) She was out one night with it and was helth) up. they taken her pocket book, money, and all her jewery & car, All but her Dimond Ring which she had put up her pussy So she came back and tole her father ~~WHY~~ about it which he ~~WHY~~ ask her how did she manage to save her Rings So she hesitaial a little but final tole him Up here" So he laugh and said that her mother should have been along with her, she ask why; he tole her she should have had mother with her and she could have save the car.

Second.

The two young marriage men who made up there mine they would go home and ask there wife for some loveing so next morning one came on the job telling how he enjoyed his self him & his wife was all over the bed floor ever where and all style. So the other one spoke up you know I could not do any good My wife had the Pindeside ) So the other spoke up O said "Yes" I know that fellow Pindeside) he live right down the street from you.;;;

Third

There was three little boys which one had been with sister the other with his cousin so the thard one tole them that he did not have a sister or a cousin or any one to be with. They tole him to ask his Grandmother which he did and she consented if he would go down int the back a split her some wood so he did but why he was gone she put one of those old time rat trap down there being already he . so when he got back and Scrawl up there and just as the little thing Started in the trap caught him so that scared him . he grew up and marraige and his wife could'nt understand why he would never ask her or be with her so she ask him and he tole her about what his Grandmothr had did so she final bage him showing him that she would never do that to him. So just as desidedd to TE take a chance and went to get up on her she broke wing So he jump up and said anytime a dog can bark that loud he bound to bit.