

UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA
UNIVERSITY, ALABAMA

OFFICE OF PRESIDENT
GEORGE H. DENNY

June 16, 1917

My dear Doctor Patterson:

Just a line to say that I am sincerely glad that the trustees refused to do anything to humiliate you. I say this not merely as your friend, but also as one who has in mind the long and distinguished service you have rendered the University of Kentucky. Those who know what that service meant to the institution in the dark days when its very life was threatened will be profoundly grateful that nothing has been done to cause you distress.

Believe me, Yours sincerely,
George H. Denny.
