

Harrodsburg Ky April 19th 1873
My Dear Brother

Your letter of the 17th was received yesterday, I am glad that all are so well. I have been pretty well since I last wrote. Am truly sorry to hear of the difficulty that has sprung up in our church at Lexington. I doubt not that it was without cause, I know the high regard and estimation in which Mr Dinwiddie holds Mr Kinkead, and feel confident that, if he had aught against him, that he
