JUST OUT.

The Second Edition of Upton's Infantry Tactics, abridged and revised, by LIEUT. HUGH T. REED, U. S. Army, late Inspector General of Indiana.

This little volume has met with such universal favor among military men in nearly every State in the Union, that it is only necessary to state the price of the book and the name of the publishers, to insure its rapid introduction into every Company of Infantry in the United States.

This work treats only of the Drill, Inspection, etc., of a separate Company, and the forms of all ceremonies of a Battalion. It is prepared from Upton's Infantry Tactics; late Orders from the War Department; decisions by General Upton; and Customs of the Service on points not clearly defined in the tactics; it gives numerous references from one paragraph to another; all of which make the subject comparatively easy and interesting to the soldier. 160 pages, paper. Price, 50 cents. Discounts given when ordered by the dozen.

Reed's Military Science and Tactics. Treats of the elements of the tactics of all arms of the service; target practice; guard duty; field fortifications; science and art of war; military, martial, and international law; U. S. Flags; military colleges; programs for drills; U. S. articles of war; chevrons, etc. 470 pages, leather. Price, $2.00.

Reed's Abridgment of the U. S. Artillery Tactics. Gives the manual of the piece, mechanical manœuvres, etc., of a gun detachment. 75 pages, paper. Price, 50 cents.

Reed's Signal Tactics. Contains the elements of military signaling. 64 pages, cloth. Price, 50 cents.

Books sent, post paid, on receipt of price, by

Mr James K. Patterson,

Dear Sir:

Please send me a catalogue, and full information concerning your College. What will it cost per month to come to that college now provided the strictest economy is practiced. Can appointments be given to students from Georgia to that College; if so please give me full instructions concerning such appointments. Can students enter there at any time. I think that I am prepared for the higher classes in that college & would be glad to complete my course there if the expenses are not too great.

Please send this information by return mail as I am waiting to decide where I will go. Yours Truly Wm C Martin.
