Dear Victor

The proofs are very attractive. I have corrected this one set and am keeping the other. I especially like the idea of the titles & Latin words in red. It is all right to alter the order of the "words", the only exception would be the final one - but there again we might come to an agreement.

I look forward to seeing you both if possible on the 4th. There is a bit of 'flu here now, & I have it - but we'll probably be all over it by then. Meanwhile I'll send a bit of books. Easter blessings to both of you - faithfully in Christ
