

June 5, 1892.

Mr. G. H. Wilkes.

Lebanon Oregon

Kind Friend:

I have always considered promptness a virtue, but there is certainly an exception. When I answered your letter I had not received Mr. Michner's picture, so I thought you were only joking and sent me the moss instead. Hence my answer. I sincerely hope you did not and will not tell him, since I am the recipient of his photo this day.