letter to
Keta 1 Sept 64

Dear Carolyn:

many thanks for the reprints. As I mentioned in Victor's letter, I could use half a dozen more, but it is not urgent.

I thought I had better add this on a separate sheet to you: these are some titles of books I have noted down and wonder if by any chance they are in the Library and if I might be able to get them: In many cases I do not have the complete reference:

808.8
H261.32
(Eng. ed.)

- Trenholme The Story of Iona, Edinburgh 1909
- J. Chagnolleau Les Iles de l'Armor Paris 1951
- H.G. Leask Irish Churches and Monastic Buildings Dundalk 1955
- W.F. Skene, Celtic Scotland, ii vols.
- Von Derkheim The Japanese Cult of Tranquillity
- Renan La Poesie des Races Celtiques, Paris 1913
- J.M. Synge The Aran Islands
- Waters EGR The Anglo Norman Voyage of St Brendan, Oxford, 1928

I realize that these may all draw a blank and will not be surprised if they do. But anyway there is no harm in trying.

Best wishes and blessings to you both

Cordially in Christ,

Tom

Hoping to see you on the 22nd.
