

1873
January 10th

The Faculty met at the usual hour.

The clubs were reported in moderately good condition. Mr. M. Collum was reported as in debt to his club. His case was referred to the Pres. Mr. D. V. Throop (who was dismissed Oct. 4th) presented a petition to be re-admitted into this College. His request was refused. Mr. Davidson was reported as having left the working department without permission. His case was referred to the Pres. and the Superintendent of that department. Mr. Marshall was reported by his teachers as unnecessarily absent from his classes very frequently. He was required to attend faithfully to all his duties. There being quite a number of students boarding in the Deanville Club, who have not been working for some time, it was recommended to the Superintendents of the Horticultural and Agricultural departments that they require ^{all} such students to report for work immediately or leave the club. On motion the Faculty adjourned.

Jas. G. White,

Sec. of Faculty.

January 17th

The Faculty met at the usual hour.

Canwell's general conduct was reduced 50% for absence from drill. D. Hardin's general conduct was reduced 5% for visiting Lexington, at night, without permission. G. R. Davidson's general conduct was reduced 50% for having his room dirty. The request, presented by Mr. Price for himself and twelve other students, for the permission to organize of another literary society in this College, was referred to the Pres. and Prof. Shackelford. Mr. Kendall's request to be excused from Geography was refused. On motion the Faculty adjourned.

Jas. G. White,

Sec. of Faculty.

January 24th

The Faculty met as usual.

A furlough till Jan. 28th was granted Mr. J. M. Curlee. An honorable discharge was granted to Mr. Fleming. Mr. C. C. Chatham was excused from recitation on account of ill-health. On motion the Faculty adjourned.

Jas. G. White,

Sec. of Faculty.