The Minutes of the meeting of November 14, 1988, were approved as circulated.

Chairman Loys Mather made the following announcements:

The Senate approved two new degree programs last October. We have received word that those programs have been approved by the Council on Higher Education. The degree programs are: Masters in Health Administration and the Ph.D. in Nutritional Sciences.

Results of the first election ballot for a faculty trustee are now official. The three persons who received the largest number of votes are as follows: Ray Betts, College of Arts and Sciences (217 votes); Wilbur Frye, College of Agriculture (196 votes), and Bill Lyons, College of Arts and Sciences (125 votes). The names of these three people will be on the second election ballot which you will be receiving within a few days. Given the important role that the faculty trustees play on the Board of Trustees, I think it is important that all of us participate in the process. Also as senators, it is important that you go back to your departments and encourage your colleagues to vote in this next round of the election.

*Absence explained.

Finally, I have been asked to remind you about a seminar on Intellectual Properties on February 15 from 12:00 noon until 1:30 p.m. in 137 Chemistry-Physics Building.

The Chair recognized Mr. James Rose, President of the Student Government Association, who wanted to make an announcement regarding the University Ball.

Mr. Rose's remarks follow:

I just want to let you know a little more about "Excelsior", a campus-wide formal that the Student Government, in conjunction with a lot of other student organizations, is putting on. The idea behind this is two-fold. One concerns the traditions of this institution. This is also for the faculty, the administration, the alumni and all the people that make up the University community. We hope that this can be something that is successful on our campus and can really bring together our community. The second thing is for dollars. We already have one contribution of about $100 from one person. We are encouraging that. We are getting other contributions and all that money will go directly for scholarships.

The dance will be at 8:00 p.m. We are going to have displays of different academic colleges there portraying what they are doing. A lot of times students don't see what different colleges are doing. A lot of times the faculty members don't see what other colleges are doing.

We are going to try to make it a black-tie affair this year. We will not close the door and will allow anyone to come in. Tickets can be purchased at the Student Center Ticket Office. I appreciate your support. I hope you will look at this as a long-range event.

The Chairman thanked Mr. Rose.

Chairman Mather recognized Professor Dan Fulks (Business and Economics) for an announcement.

Professor Fulks remarks follow:

I would like to take just a few minutes to hopefully tell you what you already know about Honors Day 1989. Last year's event was such a tremendous success in everybody's mind that we decided to make a few changes this year, one of which is in the program itself. The College of Communications and the School of Journalism have graciously agreed to combine this year's program with the annual Creason Lecture. Our guest will be Dan Rather, and we are certain that the combined events will be very exciting. The date is a little later, April 28 at 3:00 in the afternoon. We ask for your support in several ways. First, please be sure and mark your calendars and plan to attend. Second, encourage your cohorts to attend. Third, we would like an opportunity to speak to any college faculty meetings you may have between now and April 28. We would like to send a representative from the committee over to encourage faculty to attend. Finally, we would like your input. For those of you who were at the program last year, if you have some suggestions for changes, please call me at the College of Business or Ann Garrity in the Chancellor's Office and let us know what you think. Also, please take a look at the awards that were recognized last year. If anything should be added to the program or deleted, please let us know. We feel this is a grand day for the University, as we are celebrating academic excellence, and we appreciate your support. Again, that is April 28. Thank you.

The Chairman thanked Professor Fulks.

In further remarks the Chairman stated:

I have mentioned to you before that the President has tried to keep the Senate Council informed regarding the process of the NCAA investigation of the UK Basketball Program. He has met with representatives of the Council and with the full Council. Also, he met once with the Council in an executive session. We feel he is doing a good job in trying to keep us informed of that situation. The Council has been very pleased with the manner in which the Administration has handled this investigation. We have sent him a resolution to that effect last August and again in January. I would like to read to you the resolution that we sent to him last month. The resolution follows:

"The Senate Council commends President Roselle for the responsible and professional manner in which he has handled the NCAA investigation of the University of Kentucky basketball program. The decision to conduct a complete and independent investigation of the allegations made by the NCAA is consistent with protecting the primacy of the academic mission of the University while nurturing and promoting a quality program of inter-collegiate athletics. Equally important, the President's dedication to pursuing the truth in this matter while strengthening the integrity and reputation of the University has the unqualified support of the Senate Council. We are confident that the University of Kentucky and its tradition of excellence in basketball will be best served by continuing this approach."

The President indicated to us that he was appreciative of the support from the faculty, not only through this resolution but also from the large number of letters that he has received from individual faculty members. He asked that I convey that to you. He also wants you to understand that the reaction of the Board of Trustees to that report was very favorable as well as their reaction to the process through which the University conducted the investigation.

We have a number of items that will be coming before the Senate during March and April. In that connection we have adjusted the spring meeting schedule slightly. I would like for you to make note of that. First, in two weeks from today, February 27, we are calling a special meeting of the Senate at which time the President will be with us to talk to us and respond to your questions concerning the University budget. Our next scheduled meeting was March 6. Given the workloads that members of the committees have taken on and some items that will be before this body during the spring, we are postponing the March 6 meeting until March 20. Please make note of that. We are hoping by doing this, it will free up the backlog that is likely to result at the April meeting. The April meeting will be the second Monday in April as scheduled.

The Chair recognized Professor Arthur Nonneman for a Memorial Resolution.

MEMORIAL RESOLUTION

Jesse Graham Harris, Jr.
1926-1988

Today, with wildly varied emotions, we shall recall the life and death of Jesse G. Harris, Jr., Professor of Psychology, College of Arts and Sciences, University of Kentucky. It is with gratitude and affection that we recall his many years of selfless devotion to the University of Kentucky, to the Department of Psychology, to the profession of psychology, and to his students and colleagues. It is with confusion, pain, and a tremendous sense of loss that we recall his death, at his own hand, on November 22, 1988. At the time of his death he was on sabbatical leave from the University, having completed his third four-year term as Chairperson of the Department of Psychology (1963-67, 1980-84) on June 31, 1988.

Dr. Harris had a truly distinguished academic and professional career. As an undergraduate at Harvard University he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa in 1946, and as a graduate student at Duke University he was elected to Sigma Xi in 1953. He received the A.B. degree from Harvard in Biochemical Sciences in 1946 and the Ph.D. from Duke in Clinical Psychology in 1955. He then served as an active duty commissioned officer in the U.S. Navy Medical Service Corp from 1955-1958, receiving a commendation from the Naval School of Aviation Medicine, Pensacola, Florida, in 1958. He remained active in the U.S. Naval Reserve, Medical Service Corps, until 1986, when he retired at the rank of Captain.

After two years as Assistant Professor of Psychology at the University of Connecticut (1958-60), Dr. Harris came to the University of Kentucky in 1960 as Associate Professor and Director of Clinical Psychology Training in the Department of Psychiatry of the new A. B. Chandler Medical Center. In 1963 he was promoted to the rank of Professor and was appointed Chairman of the Department of Psychology. His major research interests included the structure of personality, clinical assessment, the validity of projective tests, and schizophrenia. Throughout his career at the University of Kentucky Jesse committed considerable energy to the development of the Clinical Psychology Doctoral Program. He obtained one of the first NIMH Training Grants awarded for clinical psychology training, he was instrumental in the creation of our Psychological Services Center, he taught a series of courses in psychopathology, personality, assessment, and projective techniques that constitute the heart of our doctoral curriculum in clinical psychology, and he continued active clinical supervision of graduate students. In addition, Jesse Harris served as the director of 39 doctoral dissertations, and many of his former students are now recognized as major figures in clinical psychology and neuropsychology.

Within the university community at large Dr. Harris was widely recognized and respected for the unique combination of abilities and personal qualities that he embodied. He could be doggedly tenacious in pursuing solutions to those problems that concerned him most deeply, but he was a gentleman in every sense of the word, and he demonstrated the highest integrity in every aspect of his personal and professional life. A partial listing of the College and University committees that he chaired includes: University Council on Experiential Education (1973-74), University Academic Area Advisory Committee for the Social Sciences (1975-76), Institutional Review Board for the Nonmedical Sciences (1972-74, 1982-84), College of Arts and Sciences Faculty Council (1978-79), Senate Committee on Academic Organization and Structure of the University (1977-79), Senate Committee on Revision of Governing Regulations Relating to Review of Academic Units (1986-87), Phi Beta Kappa Scholarship Committee (1985-87).

Throughout his career Dr. Harris received numerous awards and honors from the profession of psychology. In 1965 he was elected a Fellow of the American Psychological Association, Division 12, and he was a Diplomate in Clinical Psychology for the American Board of Examiners in Professional Psychology. In 1963 he was appointed by the Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky to the Mental Health Manpower Commission, and he served for five years as Chairperson of Kentucky Manpower Development, Inc. He also served for five years as Chairperson for the Board of Psychology. In 1979 he was elected President of the Kentucky Psychological Association, and in 1983 the Association awarded him its Distinguished Service Award.

The death of Jesse G. Harris, Jr. has left a void for all of us who knew him and worked with him. He was always available for anyone who might need his encouragement, his guidance, his wisdom. He fostered in us a spirit of cooperation, mutual respect and support. We are better for having known him, and the University of Kentucky is a better place for his having served here.

Dr. Harris is survived by his wife Julia Patricia McNamee Harris (Pat), two daughters, Julia Kathleen Harris Miller and Cecelia Ann Harris Johnson, and a grandson, Jeffrey Alan Miller.

Professor Nonneman respectfully requested that the Memorial Resolution be placed as a permanent part of the Minutes for this meeting and that copies be provided for Dr. Harris' widow.

The Chair asked the Senate to rise for a moment of silent tribute.

The Chair recognized Professor William Marksberry, Chairman of the Honorary Degree Committee, and a member of the College of Medicine. The Chairman reminded the Senate that the action taken at the meeting on the Honorary Degrees was not a final action. He stated that it was simply a part of a lengthy process and action on the candidates is not final until it is acted upon by the Board of Trustees. He stated that the information which Dr. Marksberry provided, the names he suggested, was not public information. The Chairman asked that all in attendance adhere to this and hold the information in the strictest of confidence and if anyone felt they could not, that they should excuse themselves.

Jay Blanton, Editor of the Kentucky Kernel, wanted to know under what grounds the information was not public information. The Chair stated it was not public information because it was simply a recommendation on personnel that the Senate would be recommending to the Board of Trustees. Mr. Blanton stated that he wanted to place a formal objection to the University Senate. He read the following statement:

The exemptions of the Kentucky Open Meetings law are clearly stated and defined.

Meetings may be closed when the subject matter includes 'discussion or hearings which might lead to the appointment, dismissal or disciplining of an individual employee, member or student. (General personnel matters may not be discussed in private.)'

The Kentucky Kernel and its legal counsel believe that recommendations concerning the conferring of honorary degrees are in no way covered by the personnel exemption in the state Open Meetings Law.

Therefore, we see no legal basis for the University Senate to close its regularly scheduled meeting today, February 13, 1989. We formally object to any attempt to do so.

Mr. Blanton stated that if the meeting was going to be closed there would have to be a formal motion placed as well as a vote by the University Senate to close the meeting. Chairman Mather noted that he did not say the meeting was closed but only that he wanted to keep the names of the individuals in confidence. He also reminded Mr. Blanton of a quote from the Supreme Court's opinion concerning the Open Meetings law when they said: "when matters dealing with individuals are to be discussed, the meeting may be closed in the manner provided by KRS 61.815." Mr. Blanton said that he would still like to object and that his objection be placed on record. He did not want the information concerning Honorary Degrees to be kept in confidence.

The Chair left it to the Senate as to whether or not to keep the information confidential. Professor Hans Gesund (Engineering) moved to close the meeting for the purpose of discussing matters which might lead to the conferring of degrees on certain individuals. The motion was seconded. The Chair again asked Mr. Blanton if he was willing to abide by the suggestion he made of keeping the names of the nominees in confidence. Mr. Blanton stated he was not willing to do that. Professor Gesund moved the previous question. Professor Daniel Reedy (Dean of the Graduate School) asked for a point of information. He wanted to know if the motion could be made to close the meeting for simply an action of the Senate without reference to the legislation. Professor Gesund stated it was under the law and it was a personnel matter. There was no further discussion, and the motion passed in a voice vote. Those who were not members of the Senate left the meeting.

The Chairman recognized Professor Marksberry who read the biographical information on six nominees for the Senate's consideration. Following Dr. Marksberry's presentation the Chair stated that the candidates could be discussed in the executive session but no vote could be taken. There was no discussion and the Chair declared the meeting open. He told the Sergeant-at-arms to tell anyone waiting that the Senate was in open session.

Professor William Lyons (Arts and Sciences) moved to endorse the recommendation of the committee. The motion was seconded and unanimously carried.

The Chair stated there was a member of the Senate present who had been a member for many terms and that was Professor James Kemp (Agriculture). He added that Professor Kemp had served on the Senate Council a number of times over the last few decades. He served as Chairman of the Senate Council, as a faculty representative on the Board of Trustees, and served in many other capacities at the University. He served with distinction both to this University and to his profession. The Chair stated this was Professor Kemp's last Senate meeting because he is retiring February 28. The Senate joined the Chairman in an appropriate round of thanks.

Chairman Mather recognized Professor Donald Leigh, Chair-elect of the Senate Council, for action item (b) on the agenda. Professor Leigh, on behalf of the Senate Council, moved approval of the proposal to change the graduate admissions standards in the College of Nursing. He stated that the proposed changes would permit needed flexibility for nursing students. This proposal was circulated to members of the Senate under date of 26 January 1989.

The Chair noted that motions from the Senate Council required no second. There was no discussion, and the motion unanimously carried in a voice vote. The proposal reads as follows:

Current:

1. Undergraduate grade point average of 2.5 on a 4.0 grading scale.
2. Combined score of 800 on the verbal and quantitative portions of the GRE
3. A baccalaureate degree in nursing from a NLN accredited program.
4. Minimum of one year post-baccalaureate experience in nursing

Proposed:

- No change.
- No change
- No change
- One year post-baccalaureate clinical experience (pre-requisite to clinical courses)

- | | |
|---|--|
| 5. Licensure to practice nursing in at least one of the United States | Eligible for Kentucky licensure as a registered nurse (Kentucky license prerequisite to clinical practicum). |
| 6. None | Evidence of being prepared in physical and health assessment skills |

Background and Rationale:

The proposed changes in the standards for admission to the M.S. program in Nursing were made as a result of a self-study conducted for the site visit of the National League for Nursing accreditation in the Fall of 1986. (Attendant curricular revisions were proposed and approved by the University Senate: 12/8/88).

The proposed changes permit needed flexibility for nursing students. Items #4 and #5 allow students to begin their academic courses without finishing up the requisite experiences and licensing prerequisites, but insure that they will have both by the time they begin the clinical part of their education. Change #6 simply formalizes a strengthening of the program that is now in operation.

Implementation Date: Fall Semester, 1989.

The Chair recognized Professor Leigh for agenda item (c). Professor Leigh, on behalf of the Senate Council, moved to approve the proposal to revise graduate admissions requirements in Electrical Engineering and Mining Engineering. He presented the proposals separately. The proposal was circulated to members of the Senate under date of 30 January 1989. The motion did not require a second. There was no discussion on the graduate admissions requirements in Electrical Engineering. The motion unanimously carried. Professor Leigh presented the second part of the proposal to revise graduate admissions requirements in Mining Engineering. There was no discussion. The motion unanimously carried and both parts of the proposal read as follows:

1. Proposal to revise graduate admissions requirements in Electrical Engineering for Students without a BSEE degree

Current:

The graduate student applicant who does not have a BSEE degree from an ABET accredited Electrical Engineering program should develop competence and demonstrate ability in the fundamental of electrical engineering.

Before being admitted to full graduate standing or as a candidate for the Master's or Doctor's degree, a fundamental background in Electrical Engineering should be acquired by non-EE degree holders. The background should be demonstrated by meeting one of the three criteria formulated below.

1. Enroll in and satisfactorily pass the following EE core courses with a minimum C grade, while also maintaining an overall B average:
 - a. EE 211/221/222; and
 - b. EE 420/461/467/480; and
 - c. EE 471 or EE 415 or EE 468; or
2. Satisfactorily pass the final examination in the above 400 level courses with a grade of B or better and demonstrate laboratory proficiency; or
3. Demonstrate, by an academic transcript, that the student has taken and satisfactorily passed an equivalent scientific or engineering course in his undergraduate major area to offset the core course requirement. For instance a computer science major might not be required to take EE 480; a physics major may be exempt from EE 467; a math major exempt from EE 420.

The specific background requirements for an individual student will be set forth in a formal letter of transmittal from the Director of Graduate Studies; a copy, with the student's signed concurrence, will be placed in the student's record file.

Exemptions from any specific requirements and the approval of specific entrance criteria for a non-EE technical student will be authorized by the Director of Graduate Studies. The Director of Graduate Studies will issue the formal letter referred to above.

Notes:

- a. A student from a non-accredited EE program, especially those from foreign countries, might satisfy these criteria by showing an appropriate transcript.
- b. The background criteria conditions above are in addition to courses allowed toward the MSEE degree. Over and above these qualifying criteria are the 24 credit hours plus thesis under Plan A or 30 credit hours plus one semester's 3 hour registration in EE 783 as a special project under Plan B.

Proposed:

Those students without a BSEE degree must now satisfactorily complete a set of specified remedial courses consisting of EE undergraduate required courses (EE 211, 221, 222, 415, 420, 461, 462, 480/280, 467/468, 380) and two 500 level EE elective courses before regular admission to the graduate program will be granted. The Director of Graduate Studies may approve substitutions from previous scientific or engineering work in related areas on a course for course basis.

Background and Rationale:

The proposed changes increase the number of courses students without a BSEE degree must fulfill before being admitted to the graduate program. These added courses are intended to correct weaknesses the faculty has noted in such students under the old admission rules.

The proposed changes have been approved by the Graduate Council, the Graduate Faculty, the Senate Committee on Admissions and Academic Standards and the Senate Council.

2. Proposal to revise graduate admissions requirements in Mining Engineering

Current:

In addition to satisfying general Graduate School and College of Engineering admissions requirements (a GPA of 2.8/4.0 on all undergraduate work is normally required), applicants for admission to the M.S. Min.E., and the Ph.D. degree programs in mining engineering must have been awarded a Bachelor of Science degree from an engineering program accredited by the Accreditation Board for Engineering and Technology.

Proposed:

In addition to satisfying general Graduate School and College of Engineering admissions requirements (a GPA of 2.8/4.0 on all undergraduate work is normally required), applicants for admission to the M.S. Min.E., and the Ph.D. degree programs in mining engineering must have been awarded the Bachelor of Science degree prior to admission to graduate degree status. Normally, it is expected that applicants will have graduated from an engineering program accredited by the Engineering Accreditation Commission (EAC) of the Accreditation Board for Engineering and Technology (ABET). For applicants from non-U.S. universities, from related but non-engineering disciplines, and from institutions that do not have accredited engineering programs, an assessment will be made of the comparability of educational background to that prescribed, and appropriate remedial coursework established as a provision for admission.

Background and Rationale:

Current requirements for graduate student admission in mining engineering contain language that is unduly restrictive--excluding all applicants from abroad and from related scientific disciplines. The proposed change in language will allow Mining Engineering to admit non-traditional students, applicants from non-U.S. universities, from non-engineering disciplines, and from institutions that do not have accredited engineering programs--after careful screening and remedial work as necessary in each student's case.

The proposed changes have been approved by the Graduate Council, the Graduate Faculty, the Senate Committee on Admissions and Academic Standards and the Senate Council.

The Chair recognized Professor Donald Leigh for item (d), the last item on the agenda. Professor Leigh, on behalf of the Senate Council, moved approval of the proposal to revise Section I - 4.0 (paragraph 7) of the University Senate Rules relative to the annual faculty survey. Professor Leigh stated that the item concerned the annual faculty survey that the present Senate Rules require. The new part of the proposal would be that an ad hoc committee of properly qualified professionals shall be appointed by the Senate Council to survey a random sample of the faculty in the spring of each even numbered year. This proposal was circulated to members of the Senate 31 January 1989.

The Chair noted again that the recommendations from the Senate Council required no second. The floor was opened for discussion. Professor Bradley Canon (Political Science) wanted to know if the ad hoc committee of qualified professionals would limit the committee to people who are familiar with random sampling. Chairman Mather did not interpret the statement to entirely limiting the committee to that group. He felt the understanding was there would be someone on the committee that would understand sampling.

There were no further questions. Motion unanimously carried in a voice vote and reads as follows:

Proposal: (Underlined portion is new; bracketed portion is to be deleted)

I 4.0 An ad hoc committee of properly qualified professionals shall be appointed by the Senate Council [shall] to survey a random sample of the [entire] faculty in the spring of each even numbered year to identify the most pressing issues facing the University during the coming year. The Senate Council shall evaluate the issues and, where appropriate, assign them to standing committees. Any significant issue not within the jurisdiction of one of the standing committees shall be referred to an ad hoc committee appointed by the Senate Council. Standing and ad hoc Committees of the Senate shall have the privilege of presenting reports to that body after review by the Senate Council provided the report has been appropriately circulated in advance.

Rationale:

As a part of its report to the Senate Council in April 1988, the ad hoc Senate Survey committee recommended consideration of alternative methods for surveying the faculty. Present rules require the Senate Council to survey the entire faculty on an annual basis. Survey organizations have found small, appropriately selected samples, whose members can be vigorously pursued, can yield more useful information than large populations for whom reminders and tracking are financially and logistically difficult. In addition, it is not clear that annual surveys undertaken to fulfill an official rule (which has been ignored by some Councils) will yield new and useful information. Further, it is unlikely that general faculty attitudes will undergo radical changes from one year to the next.

This proposal would allow the Council greater flexibility in timing and sample groups as well as added capability to focus on specific issues---while at the same time providing assurance that faculty opinion will be solicited.

The Chairman reminded the senators of the special meeting with the President on February 27 and the regular Senate meeting on March 20.

There being no further business, the Chairman adjourned the meeting at 3:50 p.m.

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

LEXINGTON, KENTUCKY 40506-0032

UNIVERSITY SENATE COUNCIL
10 ADMINISTRATION BUILDING

26 January 1989

TO: Members, University Senate

FROM: University Senate Council

RE: AGENDA ITEM: University Senate Meeting, Monday, February 13, 1989. Proposal to change the graduate admissions standards in the College of Nursing.

Current:

Proposed:

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1. Undergraduate grade point average of 2.5 on a 4.0 grading scale. | No change. |
| 2. Combined score of 800 on the verbal and quantitative portions of the GRE | No change |
| 3. A baccalaureate degree in nursing from a NLN accredited program. | No change |
| 4. Minimum of one year post-baccalaureate experience in nursing | One year post-baccalaureate clinical experience pre-requisite to clinical courses) |
| 5. Licensure to practice nursing in at least one of the United States | Eligible for Kentucky licensure as a registered nurse (Kentucky license prerequisite to clinical practicum). |
| 6. None | Evidence of being prepared in physical and health assessment skills |

Background and Rationale:

The proposed changes in the standards for admission to the M.S. program in Nursing were made as a result of a self-study conducted for the site visit of the National League for Nursing accreditation in the Fall of 1986. (Attendant curricular revisions were proposed and approved by the University Senate: 12/8/88).

Page 2

US Agenda Item: Nursing Admissions

26 January 1989

The proposed changes permit needed flexibility for nursing students. Items #4 and #5 allow students to begin their academic courses without finishing up the requisite experiences and licensing prerequisites, but insure that they will have both by the time they begin the clinical part of their education. Change #6 simply formalizes a strengthening of the program that is now in operation.

Implementation Date: Fall Semester, 1989

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

LEXINGTON, KENTUCKY 40506-0032

UNIVERSITY SENATE COUNCIL
10 ADMINISTRATION BUILDING

30 January 1989

TO: Members, University Senate

FROM: University Senate Council

RE: AGENDA ITEM: University Senate Meeting, Monday, February 13, 1989. Proposal to revise graduate admissions requirements in Electrical Engineering and Mining Engineering.

1. Proposal to revise graduate admissions requirements in Electrical Engineering for Students without a BSEE degree

ME

Current:

The graduate student applicant who does not have a BSEE degree from an ABET accredited Electrical Engineering program should develop competence and demonstrate ability in the fundamental of electrical engineering.

Before being admitted to full graduate standing or as a candidate for the Master's or Doctor's degree, a fundamental background in Electrical Engineering should be acquired by non-EE degree holders. The background should be demonstrated by meeting one of the three criteria formulated below.

1. Enroll in and satisfactorily pass the following EE core courses with a minimum C grade, while also maintaining an overall B average:
 - a. EE 211/221/222; and
 - b. EE 420/461/467/480; and
 - c. EE 471 or EE 415 or EE 468; or
2. Satisfactorily pass the final examination in the above 400 level courses with a grade of B or better and demonstrate laboratory proficiency; or
3. Demonstrate, by an academic transcript, that the student has taken and satisfactorily passed an equivalent scientific or engineering course in his undergraduate major area to offset the core course requirement. For instance a computer science major might not be required to take EE 480; a physics major may be exempt from EE 467; a math major exempt from EE 420.

The specific background requirements for an individual students will be set forth in a formal letter of transmittal from the Director of Graduate Studies; a copy, with the student's signed concurrence, will be placed in the student's record file.

UNIVERSITY SENATE COUNCIL
10 ADMINISTRATION BUILDING

31 January 1989

TO: Members, University Senate

FROM: University Senate Council

RE: AGENDA ITEM: University Senate Meeting, Monday, February 13, 1989. Proposal to revise Section I - 4.0 (paragraph 7) University Senate Rules, relative to the annual faculty survey.

Proposal: (Underlined portion is new; bracketed portion is to be deleted)

I 4.0 An ad hoc committee of properly qualified professionals shall be appointed by the Senate Council [shall] to survey a random sample of the [entire] faculty in the spring of each even numbered year to identify the most pressing issues facing the University during the coming year. The Senate Council shall evaluate the issues and, where appropriate, assign them to standing committees. Any significant issue not within the jurisdiction of one of the standing committees shall be referred to an ad hoc committee appointed by the Senate Council. Standing and ad hoc Committees of the Senate shall have the privilege of presenting reports to that body after review by the Senate Council provided the report has been appropriately circulated in advance.

Rationale:

As a part of its report to the Senate Council in April 1988, the ad hoc Senate Survey committee recommended consideration of alternative methods for surveying the faculty. Present rules require the Senate Council to survey the entire faculty on an annual basis. Survey organizations have found small, appropriately selected samples, whose members can be vigorously pursued, can yield more useful information than large populations for whom reminders and tracking are financially and logistically difficult. In addition, it is not clear that annual surveys undertaken to fulfill an official rule (which has been ignored by some Councils) will yield new and useful information. Further, it is unlikely that general faculty attitudes will undergo radical changes from one year to the next.

This proposal would allow the Council greater flexibility in timing and sample groups as well as added capability to focus on specific issues---while at the same time providing assurance that faculty opinion will be solicited.
