

Mar. 1, 1904

Flint, Mich. Mar. 1st.

My Dear Bro. —

How do you do?
It seems quite a time
since I had a chat with you.

We looked in vain for
some time, before receiving your last letter,
and I began to think
that some of the family were sick.

And mother, I think
had a full convalescence.
But your letter explained the reason to our satisfaction.

(Work — in time, overtime and out-of-time.)