

Courier Journal Louisville
June 6, 1915 page 8 section 3 column 3

MASS MEETING TO PROTEST
AGAINST AGAINST HUNTERS

Greenville, Ky., June 5. A mass meeting will be held at courthouse here tomorrow afternoon for the purpose it is said of undertaking to put an end to acts of lawlessness in Muhlenberg county commonly attributed to the alleged possum hunters. The meeting was called by Robert Pollock, president of the United Mine Workers of District 23. Vice president Duncan of the same organization.

Three men who are charged with having been in a raid at Graham in this county recently have been arrested and are in jail in default of bail.