STRIKE

THREATENED

But as Usual it Was the "Outsiders" Who Made the Trouble.

The linemen of the Fayette Telephone Company are said to have threatened a strike Friday, but the men went out.

According to report the bulk of the men have been getting $2.25 a day and working ten hours. They wanted $2.50 a day and a schedule of nine hours.

A meeting of the Board of Directors of the Company was quietly held late Friday afternoon and the situation discussed.

The men, it is said, were requested to put their demands in writing, so that the matter could be presented in
