Dear Little Jessie:—

Your nice little letter was received with Kate's and Lillie's. I cannot tell you how glad I was ^{to know that} you still loved me enough to write to me. Miss Logan will be good to you in Sunday school and teach you. You must try to learn and love her as well as you can but I don't want you to love her as well as you do me. I wish you were down here and could go to school in our nice new house to me. I could teach you ^{five} ~~two~~ days in the week instead of one. Why didn't you tell me about some of the pretty things you saw in Louisville? I heard that Aunt Ann got lost. Was you much
