

Rochford Ill.

Jan. 4, 1932.

Dearest Mable & David:

First of all I want to wish you a Happy New Year. Hope you and both feeling just fine. The one all well around here now.

Your mother has had an awful bad cold but is better now. Gales have had a cold but am all right now. I suppose your mother told you I spent most of Christmas day in bed which sure was a big disappointment for me but it could