Harvester Building, Chicago, Illinois.

All employes voting by secret ballot today on proposition return Monday stop All indications point to heavy vote for resumption stop Believe majority miners will return Monday but some radicals won't stop We are taking every possible effort to hasten opening by agreement and feel this method should be exhausted before we attempt to operate under guard stop If our present plans succeed we will have nearly our whole camp preserved but if not the camp will be split and long delays ensue therefore feel you must have patience until we know result of balloting today.
