SUPERVISION AND MANAGEMENT FILMS

Two 30 minute films will be shown in the Classroom Building (CB208) at the following times:

- A - L, Monday (Jan. 27) 3 - 4 p.m.
- M - Z, Tuesday (Jan. 28) 3:30 - 4:30 p.m.

The films are concerned with supervision and management problems. All interested staff members are invited to see the films.

VISITING LIBRARIANS

A group of librarians from the University of Tennessee Library and an architect will visit Lexington on Monday morning, January 27. The Tennessee staff is visiting other libraries in order to determine if they want to add to their present library building or construct a totally new facility. They may seek information from various staff here concerning our satisfaction (or lack of it) with the King buildings.

M.R.A.P. TASK FORCES

The M.R.A.P. Study Team had an all day session on January 15 at which time the individual chairpersons for the task forces were agreed upon and the members from throughout the Library staff were chosen. The Study Team is now contacting the Library staff to confirm their appointment and is preparing instruction and charges for the respective task forces.

An orientation session is planned for next week for all the task forces. Those selected will be notified of time and place. A complete list of the task forces and the dates they will be in operation will be given next week in the Green Bean.

NEWSPAPER/MICROTEXT

Since Mary Ada Sullivan is scheduled to retire at the end of fiscal year 1975-1976 consideration is being given to adding a professional position in Newspapers/Microtext beginning this fall. This would permit someone to work with Mary Ada for a year to learn the detailed procedures in the Newspaper/Microtext Department.

Any staff member interested in this position should speak to Dotty Green or Paul Willis as soon as possible.
