

Dec. 1st

The Faculty met at the usual hour. Honorable discharges were granted Messrs J. M. Tucker and H. O. Graham, and Russell. The requests of Straggs & M^{rs} Gullough for a change in their classes were referred to the Drs. and Profs. concerned. A furlough for an indefinite time was granted to D. H. Pittman. The following resolution was then offered and adopted, viz: "Each member of any club on the grounds of Belknap or Woodlands is entitled to equal rights and privileges with every other member, and no action looking to the expulsion of any member shall be initiated except for a violation of the club regulations framed under the sanction of the Executive Committee and promulgated by them; and such action shall be taken only after complaint shall first have been made to the Faculty and the ground of complaint fully set forth."

The Faculty then adjourned

Jas G. White,
Sec. of Faculty.

November 8th

The Faculty met at the President's call. A. C. Davis having promised a thorough reform and a faithful discharge of duty was readmitted on Monday, Oct. 30th, with the consent of a majority of the Faculty without a formal action. Having violated his promise by engaging in a fight with a fellow-student, it was resolved that he be again dismissed. (No ~~minutes~~^{notes} of this meeting were taken as the Sec. was absent but these minutes are written from a statement made to me by a member who was present.)

The Faculty then adjourned.

Jas. G. White,
Sec. of Faculty.
