THE UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

. . . The State Is Our Campus

Located in Lexington, an urban community of over 150,000 population in the heart of Kentucky's famed Blue Grass region, University of Kentucky is a state-supported, land-grant institution which celebrated its centennial year in 1965.

The present school, which currently enrolls about 22,000 students and offers instruction in 10 academic colleges plus a Graduate School and a division of Extended Programs, had its beginnings in 1865 when it was established as a part of old Kentucky University. This action by the State Legislature united sectarian and public education under one organization for the first time. Federal funds authorized under the Morrill Act were used to develop agriculture and mechanical arts within KU and, in 1878, A&M College was separated from KU to become a separate state institution on the general site of what is now the 706-acre main campus. Name changes in 1908 and 1916 resulted in the title by which the school is now known.

A new chief administrative officer, Dr. John W. Oswald, took over reins of the University at the beginning of the 1963-64 school year. The 49-year-old new president, who succeeded Dr. Frank Dickey, has an athletic background including collegiate football play at DePauw and letters in basketball and track. He was selected on the Sports Illustrated Silver Anniversary All-America Team in 1962. Dr. Oswald, whose special field is plant pathology, came to Kentucky from a position as vice-president-administration, Statewide University, University of California.

The University is on the approved list of the Association of American Universities and is a member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. It is fully accredited in its respective colleges and departments by all of the major professional societies and educational organizations.

ATHLETICS AT KENTUCKY

Kentucky's athletic program, a well-balanced and ambitious activity featuring inter-collegiate competition in ten different sports, is organized under the Department of Athletics and a corporation known as the University of Kentucky Athletics Association.

The program is conducted without overemphasis or sacrifice of educational objectives and in strict compliance with the rules of the University, the Southeastern Conference and the National Collegiate Association.

A board of directors, headed by University President John W. Oswald in the capacity of chairman, maintains overall policy supervision of the athletic program. In addition to the UK President, board officers include Robert Johnson as vice-chairman and Dr. W. L. Matthews in the capacity of secretary. Fourteen other men, drawn from the University faculty and the general public, also serve on the board as appointees of the president as does a student representative.

Supervising the steady growth and balanced development of one of the nation's top athletic programs is Bernie A. Shively, a former Illinois grid All-American and a veteran of over 25 years in the post of Director of Athletics.

The Association's Board of Directors is composed of the following:

Dr. John W. Oswald, Chairman	Steve Cook (Student)	Charles O. Landrum
Robert Johnson, Vice-Chairman	Dr. Thomas Clark	James H. Pence
Dr. W. L. Matthews, Jr., Secretary	Dr. Glen Creech	Dr. N. J. Pisacano
Dr. Ralph Angelucci	Dr. John Douglas	Dr. Charles B. Wilson
Prof. David Blythe	Dr. Lyman Ginger	Floyd Wright
Dr. Aubrey J. Brown	Dr. A. D. Kirwan

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
Bernie A. Shively

University of Kentucky is able to boast proudly of having one of the nation's most harmonious and well-balanced athletic programs—September to June activity in 10 different sports featuring more than 500 athletes in action before audiences that exceed a half million persons and involving use of facilities valued at several million dollars.

Supervising the steady growth and balanced development of one of the top intercollegiate athletic programs in the country today is a tall, silver-haired, former gridiron All-American known familiarly to thousands of UK sport fans as "Shive."

He is, by name, Bernie A. Shively. In his position as Kentucky's Director of Athletics since 1938, this gentleman of many talents has been largely responsible for guiding the University to increasing prominence in the athletic world.

In addition to a fair-minded policy direction that has resulted in "big time" stature for the school's athletic teams, Shively during his 29-year tenure has directly supervised major expansions in the physical plant designed to keep pace with the growing patronage by a sports-minded public. Among these have been the doubling of the seating capacity of Stoll Field, and preparation of a spacious sports center to provide top facilities for spring sports teams and football practice.

The seating capacity of Kentucky's football stadium, McLean Stadium on Stoll Field, has been doubled to bring the current number of seats to approximately 37,500 and on par with most other schools located in heavier-populated areas. Powerful lighting equipment also was installed during the 1948-49 construction and a new-type "iodized" light put up in 1961 to bring night football into new popularity. Partly to satisfy the overwhelming number of basketball devotees, who could not squeeze into the 2,800-seat Alumni Gymnasium, a long-planned Memorial Coliseum was completed in 1950. Seating 11,500 persons for cage contests, the four-million dollar Coliseum also houses the Athletic Department. More recently, Shively directed the acquisition of a pair of modern, ranch-style living units which served as the home of the football team since 1954. "Wildcat Manor" and "Kitten Lodge" replaced three frame houses which the gridgers had occupied since 1949. The units were vacated at the start of the 1967-68 school year, as all athletes moved into the University's new dormitory complex.

Plans Spacious New Sports Center

A large dressing room building and football practice field, used since 1955, was abandoned in 1959 to make way for a huge new men's dorm. Under Shively's supervision, a spacious new Sports Center was prepared a short distance away on the University farm to take even better care of the footballers and spring sports teams. The Sports Center is generally regarded as one of the finest sports facilities in the nation.

Stoll Field has undergone, with Shively's supervision, a major "face-lifting" to improve its playing surface and the view of the fans sitting in the lower rows of the stands.

Born in Oliver, Ill., May 26, 1903, Shively attended Paris (Ill.) High school and there began his athletic career by participating in track and football. Although he was considered an outstanding backfield man in high school, Shively didn't attract the serious attention of collegiate scouts. He entered Illinois and tried out for the football team on his own. From that humble beginning, Shively went on to become a great guard under Coach Bob Zuppke on the same Illini team made famous by the immortal Red Grange.

Shive played two years with Grange, running interference for the "Galloping Ghost" and made All-America in 1926 as a senior despite a bad knee that handicapped his playing. He also won the heavyweight wrestling championship of the Big 10 and was a standout in track to rank as one of the finest all-around athletes in Illinois' history.

Shively came to Kentucky in 1927 as line coach of football under Harry Gamage and six years later was named head of the UK Physical Education Department.

He succeeded Chet Wynne as Athletic Director in 1938. During this period and the years following, he also served as track and baseball coach for several seasons and continued to assist the football staff as line coach until 1944. The next year, 1945, he assumed full charge of the grid squad for one season before turning the job over to mentor Paul (Bear) Bryant in 1946.

The Kentucky Athletic Director is a past chairman of the NCAA Basketball Tournament Committee and for the past 14 years has been president of the Southeastern Conference Coaches and Athletic Directors Association. He served as chairman of the SEC Basketball Committee for a number of years and is a past chairman of the NCAA summer baseball group. Shively also has found time to be active in civic and alumni affairs.

Shively and his wife, Ruth, have two children. Doug was a star end on the UK grid team for three years ending in 1958 and is now coaching at UK after a six-year stint at Virginia Tech, while daughter Suzanne was a Phi Beta Kappa graduate in 1957.

COACH OF THE CENTURY—Kentucky's Adolph Rupp, already the most honored tutor in the history of the game, picked up a unique award during the off-season. He is shown above receiving a silver pitcher symbolic of his selection as "Coach of the Century" by the Columbus (Ohio) Touchdown Club. Making the presentation to the Baron is Frank Gifford, former pro-football great now a national radio sportscaster.

ADOLPH FREDERICK RUPP

"Nation's Winningest Basketball Coach"

37 Years — Won 765, Lost 165 — 83.2%

For almost four decades, the sports world has watched an amazing record being forged with near perfection out of raw material by a colorful figure in the Blue Grass country of Kentucky known familiarly to hundreds of thousands as the "Man in the Brown Suit."

He is Adolph Rupp of Kentucky and when the sport of basketball is mentioned today, a direct chain of thought brings out the name of this maker of champions who holds undisputed rank as the "Nation's Winningest Basketball Coach." The name of Rupp, feared and respected in opponents' hearts and beloved by the millions who have witnessed the remarkable success of his Wildcat cage teams, has become synonymous with the game of basketball.

Such unprecedented recognition for the fabulous mentor is only natural since his success in the past 37 years as head man of the fabled Kentucky cage thoroughbreds has been nothing short of phenomenal. It would take a book longer than his own technical best-seller, "Championship Basketball," to recite the record completely. Briefly, however, that record includes:

- An amazing 765 victories out of 930 starts for an unparalleled winning percentage of better than 82 percent against major competition.
- One of only two still-active major college coaches with 700 career victories to his credit.

Coach Rupp enters the 1967-68 season with a coveted personal goal easily within his reach. With the seventh victory he will pass the career win mark of 771 set by his old college coach—Forrest (Phog) Allen—at Kansas in the 42nd year of his career. Rupp, now in his 38th year with 765 wins, already owns the best winning percentage—83.2.

- Certification by the NCAA Service Bureau as the nation's most successful collegiate basketball coach, both for the decade ending in 1961 and at the 20-year level.
- Selection as the unanimous national "Coach of the Year" in 1966 for the fourth time in his career and runner-up for the 1957 and 1964 seasons.
- Honored in 1967 by Columbus (Ohio) Touchdown Club as "Coach of the Century."
- An unprecedented honor roll of four NCAA Tournament championships picked up by his Wildcats who hold the all-time record of 15 appearances in the national classic and can claim more victories in NCAA play (26) than any other team.
- Coach of the International Universities Tournament champions in 1966.
- A nominal world championship as co-coach of the successful USA entry in the 1948 Olympic Games which included members of Kentucky's NCAA champions.
- Producer of more Olympic gold medallion winners (7) than any other cage coach.
- An all-time record total of 22 Southeastern Conference titles since the league was organized in 1933.
- Election to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 1959 and previous selection (in 1946) by Helms Athletic Foundation as a member of their exclusive Hall of Fame.
- Trustee and member of selection and honors committees of Basketball Hall of Fame. Also chairman NABC Hall of Fame Committee and heads the group that selects players to appear in East-West All-Star Game benefitting the Hall of Fame.

- Recipient of the Governor's Medallion in 1959 for meritorious service to the Commonwealth of Kentucky and plaques of appreciation from the U.S. Air Force (1959) and Sugar Bowl committee (1951).
- Election to the Kentucky Hall of Fame (1945), outstanding citizen of Lexington (1949) and twice honorary citizen of the City of New Orleans. Enrolled in the Kentucky Athletic Hall of Fame in 1965.
- Chosen "Deltasig of the Year" for 1966 by the International Fraternity of Delta Sigma Phi, professional fraternity in commerce and business administration.
- Development of more All-Americans (24 players honored 34 times) and more material for the pro ranks (26) than any other coach.
- Five Sugar Bowl Tournament championships, a National Invitation Tournament title and nine trophies from the 14 previous UK Invitational Tournaments.
- Membership on the NCAA Basketball Rules Committee.
- More overseas clinic trips (seven to Europe, three to the Far East, and one to the Near East) for U.S. Government than any other coach.

Rupp's Teams Play In Most Tournaments

Tournament invitations in pre-Rupp years were almost unheard of—Kentucky played in only seven sectional eliminations. In contrast, the Rupp-led Wildcats have the distinction of playing in more tournaments of all types than any other team. All told, his Bluegrass fives have achieved the unequalled feat of 156 victories against only 42 defeats, covering action in 45 national classics plus 29 conference meets, the '48 Olympics and the International Universities Tournament of 1966.

Although the competition was nowhere near as rugged as the schedules played by today's nationally-recognized Wildcat brigades, Rupp's very first team compiled a highly-successful, 15-3 record and Kentucky basketball has been on a winning plane ever since. The most games lost in a single season since Rupp added his touch were 13 in 1966-67. The remarkably low average number of losses per season in the Rupp Era is three and he can boast of never having a losing season.

Rupp's teams have finished as national champion in the press association polls five times in the last 18 years. They were unranked in the top 20 only in the 1952-53 campaign, when they were idle, and in three other seasons. Possibly his greatest achievement came in the 1953-54 season when the Wildcats rolled unchecked through a 25-game schedule of top-flight opposition to become the biggest-winning, perfect-record unit in all basketball history up to that time.

Rivaling that achievement, in the opinion of the sportswriters and broadcasters, is the tremendous coaching jobs turned in by the basketball miracle man in more recent seasons. In 1956, Rupp guided a moderately talented club to an eighteenth SEC title, third place in the polls and a ninth NCAA Tournament appearance while achieving a 23-5 record. The surprised experts, who had predicted UK would not win its own conference, voted Coach Rupp the runner-up spot as 1957 "Coach of the Year."

Even that effort went by the boards in 1958, however, as Kentucky's talentless wonders copped the NCAA title for an unprecedented fourth time. The Wildcats were unsung and almost unknown except by reputation and heritage. Not a single man had been honored on the All-Conference fives selected before tournament time and they had lost more games (6) in regular season play than any UK team in 17 years.

If the experts thought that was tops in miracles, they reckoned without the amazing drive of this man Rupp. With four-fifths of his starting lineup gone, he re-built shattered foundations in such an astonishing fashion that the Wildcats rolled through the 1959 season almost unchecked. Although they failed to win the title in their increasingly-tough Southeastern Conference for only the third time since 1943,

UK was generally conceded to be the nation's top team. Most experts agreed that the Kentuckians, who finished with a 24-3 record and ranked second nationally, missed a golden opportunity to pick up a fifth NCAA crown as they were upset by Louisville in the tourney opener. This feeling was given meaning as Rupp was accorded "Coach of the Year" honor by United Press International.

The 1959-60 season admittedly was not a great one as the UKats chalked up only an 18-7 mark—second worst season of the Rupp Era. However, many experts considered the outcome to be a tribute to one of the greatest coaching efforts ever turned in. Plagued from the beginning of the season to the end by adversity (sickness, injuries, eligibility difficulties and personnel problems), complete disaster was always imminent and avoided only by masterful juggling (16 different starting combos) and artful strategy moves.

It was a similar story of great coaching technique against the heavy odds of personnel and schedule in 1960-61. Although the final record read only 19-9, a closer look reveals the touch of Rupp was there for the Wildcats were regrouped into a fearsome outfit after early troubles and rolled to 11 wins in their last 12 starts. Enroute they conquered eventual SEC champ Mississippi State on the road and demolished Vanderbilt in a SEC Playoff for an NCAA berth. They never ran out of gas until stopped by Ohio State in regional finals.

Tremendous Season Envelops In 1961-62

There was no way of anticipating the tremendous season that evolved in 1961-62 except to depend on the proven touch of master rebuilders Rupp. Minus four starters off the 19-9 outfit of the year before, Rupp guided his "Fearless Five" to victory in the UK Invitational and cornered a share of the league title for the 20th time. Finally, lack of bench strength and superior height caused the UKats' downfall in the NCAA regional finals and they stowed away their gear with a surprising, 23-3 mark.

Not much could be said for 1962-63, which resulted in the posting of the poorest record (16-9) of the Rupp Era up to that time, except that it easily could have been worse without a dedicated coaching effort. Although their surge fell disappointingly short in quest for a fifth NCAA title, the 1963-64 Ruppmen blazed a torrid path that led to high national ranking all season long. Before a critical lack of height and too demanding a schedule caught up with them, the Wildcats waltzed to titles in two major seasonal tournaments (UKIT and Sugar Bowl) and copped an unprecedented 21st SEC Championship. Again lacking the vital height to control the boards and missing bench strength, the 1964-65 Kentuckians suffered through the worst season in Rupp's 35 years of coaching—a 15-10 mark. The record failed to reflect that the 'Cats threw scares into a lot of good outfits and wound up strong, taking decisions in seven of their last 10 starts.

The 1965-66 season demanded that Rupp pull more miracles out of his seemingly bottomless "bag of tricks" and he did just that—guiding a rebound from the worst season of his career (15-10 in '65) to the second best. Without a starter taller than 6-5, Rupp's Runts astounded the cage world by rolling to a near-perfect season. Enroute to attaining runaway recognition by both polls as regular season National Champions, the Ruppmen were edged only once in 25 tests. Only the strain of battling a height disadvantage and sickness prevented a successful claim to a fifth NCAA title—which escaped them in the championship game.

For his obviously amazing coaching job, Rupp was chosen as national "Coach of the Year." The vote was a rare unanimous choice of the man whose critics only a year before had decided the "old man" was finally slipping.

The season of 1966-67 goes into the record books as the poorest in Coach Rupp's great career. Despite the presence of two returning All-Americans, some vital ingredients were missing and the 'Cats floundered to a 13-13 record.

Rupp is recognized by sports authorities with doing more than any other modern tutor to make basketball a national spectator sport. From the very outset of his career at Kentucky, which began in 1930, he has introduced or popularized many new and revised trends in the game that have aided materially in making the country basketball-minded. One such innovation was the controlled fast break offensive pattern that has since become the crowd-pleasing trademark of Wildcat cage teams.

As Baron Rupp begins his 38th year at the helm of Kentucky's heralded cage force, he is able to look back proudly over a success story that is not likely to be surpassed for many a season to come. Few major goals of the coaching profession have escaped his grasp down through the years and, as he approaches the twilight of a fabulous career, even former adversaries are readily attesting to his greatness. The "Man In The Brown Suit" is finally being given his due credit for building the game of basketball into the crowd-pleasing sport it is today.

In his own backyard (the Southeastern Conference) particularly, it is generally acknowledged that Rupp is the prime benefactor of Dixie basketball—having goaded loop schools into providing better places to play, recruiting better boys and giving more emphasis to the sport.

On the record, the Kentucky coach (66 years young) is off and running toward a unique goal of 800 coaching victories. He may never achieve it, but past experience indicates he will give it that "old college try" as long as he has the urge and as health permits.

In the summer of 1966, Rupp took his Wildcats on a five-week tour of the Middle East (Greece, Israel and Iran) at the request of the U.S. State Department. The Kentucky good-will ambassadors won the International University Tournament in Tel Aviv.

Internationally recognized for his avocation as a registered Hereford breeder-enthusiast, Rupp is currently in his fifteenth term as president of the Kentucky Hereford Assn. He owns and operates one of the largest farms in the Bluegrass area and serves as a director of the Central District Warehousing Corp., world's largest tobacco marketing organization. The coach in 1962 was named to a five-year term on the Board of Governors of the Agricultural Hall of Fame and National Agricultural Center.

Coach Rupp is active in Shrine affairs, being chosen in 1950 as one of the 10 outstanding Shriners of the nation and holding honorary memberships in temples throughout the country. He is a Past Potentate of the Oleika (Lexington) Temple and serves as vice-chairman of the board for the Shrine Crippled Children's Hospital in Lexington.

He has his own television and radio shows during the season, has produced two film shorts ("Basketball: Individual Offense" for Coca-Cola Co. and "Parade to National Championship") and written books on virtually every phase of the game.

Born in Halstead, Kansas, Sept. 2, 1901, Rupp attended University of Kansas where he played guard under Phog Allen. Following graduation in 1923, he coached high school ball one year at Marshalltown, Iowa, and then at Freeport, Ill., four seasons before coming to Kentucky in 1930. His fame as "The Man in the Brown Suit" stems from his superstitious preference of brown as the color of his game-night wardrobe.

The outstanding success of this man as a basketball coach is matched only by the personal fame he has attained off the court.

The masterful story-teller is equally renowned on the banquet and coaching clinic circuit and is in constant demand as a speaker in the off season. He annually appears in more than a dozen states to make speaking engagements and believes he has missed only Alaska in tours throughout the 50 states. Rupp undoubtedly has conducted more coaching clinics than any other tutor. Overseas assignments for the Army and Air Force have taken him in recent years to Europe seven times (last, Germany 1967) and three times to Hawaii and the Far East. Several foreign olympic coaches have studied under Rupp at UK.

RUPP ENTERS EXCLUSIVE '700 CLUB'

Four seasons back, in 1964, Kentucky Coach Adolph Rupp attained a coveted goal—his 700th coaching career victory. The big win came on the road at the expense of Georgia—particularly fitting since the same club had handed him his first UK coaching loss at the same scene 34 years before. And it became singularly impressive since the UK tutor could point to achievement of the milestone at the earliest point in his career of any "member" of the club.

Only one other still-active coach and a pair who have now retired have attained the creditable feat. Forrest (Phog) Allen of Kansas became the first to pick up 700 career wins as he accomplished the aim in 1952—in the 42nd year of his coaching tenure. He stepped down after 46 years with a record of 771 wins and 233 losses. Western Kentucky's colorful Ed Diddle was in his 38th year of coaching in 1960 as he notched victory No. 700. And he retired after a 42nd campaign in 1963-64 that raised his record to 759-302. Still active at Oklahoma State after 37 years and a 700th victory recorded in the final game of 1963-64 is Henry (Hank) Ibt. With 765 wins entering the 1967-68 campaign, Rupp is closing fast on the record of Allen, his former coach.

HARRY LANCASTER

Assistant Coach

When Harry Lancaster finds a spare moment to reflect on his days as an all-around star athlete at Georgetown (Ky.) College back in the early thirties, he can recall with a degree of dismay how close he came to never pursuing the "round ball" sport that in the days since has earned him a highly respected position in the basketball world.

An All-Conference halfback for three straight years and captain during his last two seasons, Lancaster's football career almost overshadowed his play on the basketball court. In the cage sport, he was equally successful—with three All-Conference nominations and two team captaincies to his credit—but considered himself a better football player than cager.

Born in Paris, Ky., Feb. 14, 1911, he attended Paris High School where he played four years in all sports. Following graduation in 1928, he continued his athletic career at Georgetown College and gained star recognition in football, basketball and baseball. As a cager, he played against Coach Rupp's first UK team in 1930. After finishing at Georgetown in '32, Harry remained on for the next school year as an assistant coach in both the grid and cage sports before moving into the high school field. He coached several sports, mostly basketball, for nine years and was a high school principal for six years before coming to the University of Kentucky in 1942 as an instructor in physical education. For two seasons (1943 and 1944), he helped Coach Rupp on a part-time basis. Soon thereafter, the war intervened and Lancaster saw 16 months' Navy duty, rising from apprentice seaman to Lieutenant (Senior Grade).

Returning to UK in March, 1946, he became a part-time assistant to the Wildcats' famous cage mentor, Adolph Rupp, in addition to carrying on his teaching duties and gaining his master's degree. Two years later, he became Coach Rupp's general right hand man in a full-time capacity. Lancaster also served as Kentucky's baseball coach for 17 seasons prior to relinquishing the post following the 1965 campaign to devote full time to his cage duties.

In addition to his coaching duties, Lancaster manages to sandwich in a large slice of traveling. Besides checking on the nation's best high school cagers as potential material for future Wildcat national champion crews, his travel stems from a plan to extensively scout upcoming opponents. Coach Rupp was one of the first in the country to inaugurate this wide-spread scouting system in basketball and believes it has contributed materially to Kentucky's past success in carrying off championships with almost reckless abandon.

Lancaster also traveled to Greece in the summer of 1951 on a special athletic assignment for the U. S. State Department. The mission called for the Kentucky aide to act as an advisor to Greek Basketball Federation officials on Olympic procedure and other matters. He also conducted numerous clinics, coaching schools and gave public lectures on the cage sport as played in the U.S.A.

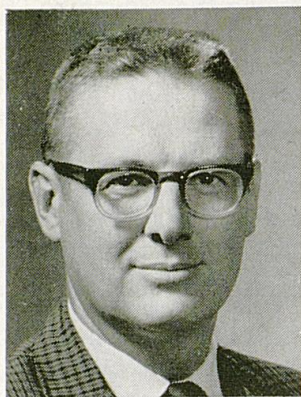

During the summer of 1962, he helped Coach Rupp conduct clinics for Army personnel in the Far East Theater and worked with Rupp on the team's Middle East Tour in 1966 and a clinic in Germany last summer.

Lancaster's coaching success with the freshman teams has been commendable. The yearlings have lost only 48 contests under his tutelage the past 17 seasons against formidable competition that included the more elite junior college clubs and top-notch service quintets. His record stands at 193 wins, 48 losses.

JOE HALL

Assistant Coach

Former Kentucky basketballer Joe Hall enters his third season as an aide on the staff of Coach Adolph Rupp with ever-increasing prestige and, paradoxically, a burning ambition. The 38-year-old native Kentuckian from Cynthiana, who turned in the finest recruiting job in many a year as he lined up six All-Americans for the 1966-67 freshman team, would rather spend more time in coaching togs. He's not unappreciative of the opportunity to represent his Alma Mater in the recruiting wars, but coaching is in his blood and he aspires to learn more about the profession from his current boss.

A successful coach for nine years prior to joining the Rupp staff in July, 1965, as coach, scout and recruiter, Hall transferred from Central Missouri State, where he spent the 1964-65 season as head coach—posting a 19-6 record and gaining CMS's first NIAA Conference championship since 1951. Hall, who was a 6-1 guard on the 1949 Wildcat team, entering coaching following graduation from UK in 1955. He spent two years at Shephardsville High, achieving Coach of the Year honor in the Mid-Kentucky Conference in both 1957 and 1958. Moving into the collegiate field, he served one season as freshman coach and then five years as head coach at Regis College in Denver, Colo. Among the team's top victories in his final season of 1963-64 were decisions over Denver University, Oklahoma State and Air Force Academy.

Hall, in 1964, also coached the Capital Federal Denver team in the AAU Tournament and later was honored by selection as head coach of the AAU Stripes in the Olympic Trials at Jamaica, N. Y. Joe is married to the former Katherine Dennis of Harrison County and they have three children—Judy 11, Kathy 10, and Stephen 7. In addition to his A.B. degree from UK, Hall holds a master's degree from Colorado State.

T-VIEWING THE WILDCATS

Kentucky's Wildcats have winning ways that make them particularly tough when in focus of the television cameras. In eight appearances during the past sixteen years before the national television audience, Coach Adolph Rupp's crew has come out victorious every time except in the NCAA championship game last season. Their first experience on television is believed to have been in the NCCA eastern finals at Madison Square Garden in 1951 when games with St. John's and Illinois were televised nationally. Portions of a game with Loyola in Chicago Stadium Feb. 15, 1957, were aired as part of a salute to Coach Rupp on the old "Tonight" show. NBC-TV's "Game of the Week" series in 1958-59 featured three UK wins at the expense of St. Louis, LSU and Tennessee and a similar series in 1960-61 carried by ABC-TV saw the Wildcats measure Georgia Tech in a Memorial Coliseum game. Several other Kentucky road games have been televised locally or regionally in recent years and this season Kentucky is scheduled to appear before the TV cameras four times on a Southeastern Conference "Game of the Week" series. The Wildcats are dated with Vanderbilt at home and will meet Florida, Auburn and Louisiana State on the road. A pivotal battle with Vandy in Nashville in 1966 was piped into Memorial Coliseum at Lexington via closed circuit television and a crowd of 7,500 fans—biggest ever to see such a cage telecast in the nation—saw the Wildcats win in one of their finest showings of the season.

KUHN

RICE

KEN KUHN, Sports Information Director—A veteran of 20 years in the post of directing the flow of information about the Wildcat cage team and other athletic activities, Kuhn is a graduate of Michigan State. He spent two years in general UK public relations before moving over to the Athletic Department in 1948. In addition to directing publicity, Kuhn also edits numerous UK sports publications such as the national-award-winning basketball and football brochures. He is a member of COSIDA—national organization of college sports information directors—and a past president of the SEC Sports Publicity Association.

RUSSELL RICE, Asst. Information Director—After 16 years of valuable experience in the newspaper field, Rice transferred his talents last April to the UK Sports Information Office to assist in publicizing Wildcat sports. In moving to the University, he left a position of Sports Editor of the Lexington Leader which he had held since 1962. A native of Paintsville, Ky., Rice won letters in high school football, basketball and baseball. He attended Kentucky Wesleyan one year before transferring to UK, from which he graduated in 1951. He is an avid fisherman and past president of the Kentucky Casting Association.

DR. CLAUDE VAUGHAN, Trainer and Academic Supervisor—Newest member of the Wildcat staff is 33-year-old native Kentuckian Claude Vaughan, who takes on the vital responsibilities of caring for the mental and physical health of the UK players. Dr. Vaughan, whose special field is economics, was born in Paris, Ky., and received all of his academic degrees from University of Kentucky.

GEORGE HUKLE, Basketball Equip. Mgr. and Statistician—An invaluable aide to the Kentucky basketball team for longer than most people can remember, George Hukle has served as official statistician for the Wildcats for a great many years and is in his fifth year as cage equipment manager . . . Regarded as the dean of Southeastern Conference statisticians and one of the nation's veterans, Hukle has been keeping charts for Coach Rupp since 1933 . . . He is credited with popularizing the statistic of field goal attempts in collegiate basketball.

KENTUCKY BASKETBALL OUTLOOK—1967

Adolph Rupp enters the 1968 basketball season with more question marks than at any time during his past 37 successful years as coach of the Kentucky Wildcats.

The first order of business is replacing graduated All-Americans Louie Dampier (20.6 scoring average) and Pat Riley (17.4 points and 7.7 rebounds per game).

Many eager but inexperienced hands seek the honor. Creating what could be a confusing and/or pleasing situation are 18 varsity players ranging from a 5-10 guard to a 6-10 forward-center.

The smallest Wildcat is Bill Busey, who teamed with Mike Casey to lead the Shelby County Rockets to the 1966 state basketball title.

Busey scored 9.3 points as a freshman while Casey, a 6-4 forward-guard, led team scorers with a 23.1 per game average during his break-in campaign. He also averaged 9.5 rebounds a game. Casey and Busey are part of a sophomore corps which takes up all but seven spaces on a 1968 roster, which includes six seniors and a lone junior.

The biggest Wildcat, also a sophomore, is Art Laib, who transferred to UK last year after playing his freshman year with Gulf Coast Junior College in Panama City, Fla. He was added to the roster this fall after "laying out" the required year after transferring.

Laib, who needs seasoning and experience in the Kentucky style of play, isn't expected to earn a starting berth over such tried performers as seniors Cliff Berger, 6-8½ and Thad Jaracz, 6-6. In addition, other big men on the squad include sophomores Dan Issel, 6-8½; Clint Wheeler, 6-8; Randy Pool, 6-7, and Wayland Long, 6-7.

Berger, Issel May Shape Pivot Duty

Berger, who played in 20 of 26 games last season and was fourth high scorer with 226 points, is expected to share the pivot position with Issel, who averaged 21.1 points and 17.3 rebounds for the frosh.

Jaracz, who was an Associated Press third team All-America his sophomore year, led the team in rebounds (8.3 average) and was third high scorer (293 points) last season. He is expected to assume a leadership role and hopefully return to his sophomore form.

Bringing experience to the forward position are seniors Gary Gamble, 6-5, and Tom Porter, 6-4, who saw quite a bit of action but averaged less than four points and three rebounds each last season. They'll be challenged by sophomores Casey, Mike Pratt, Wheeler and Pool. Rupp has experimented with Casey at both guard and forward and apparently has settled on the latter. Pratt, 6-4, enters varsity play after scoring 20.1 points and getting 8.1 rebounds a game as a yearling. He hit 53 per cent of his shots. Pool missed the second semester of his freshman year due to academic problems while Wheeler missed the first three weeks of practice because of an ankle sprain. Long, put on a one-year scholarship after his freshman campaign, needs seasoning.

Two problems face Rupp as he works with a talented guard corps. He must find an ample replacement for the high-scoring Dampier and also secure a passer and playmaker.

Phil Argeno, 6-2, the lone junior, came on strong after earning a starting berth late last season and could solve the problem at one guard position. Sophomore Terry Mills, 6-2, looked good in pre-season practice, but the competition is very keen with seniors Steve Cleveland, 6-1, and Jim LeMaster, 6-3, and sophomores Busey, Jim Dinwiddie, 6-4, and Benny Spears, 6-3, providing a strong challenge.

The Wildcats undoubtedly will miss the Riley-Dampier "Dynamic Duo" which led them to the NCAA final two seasons ago, but the outlook should be brighter than the 13-13 finish of last year. Rupp has said his squad may not set the world afire this season, but the talented sophomores will be heard from before they graduate.

He pointed out that the current group handles the ball better than last year and the Wildcat squad has more size than ever. Youth is predominant, however, and it remains to be seen how the sophomore-dominated squad will react to a schedule which includes such respected non-conference foes as Michigan, Xavier, Pennsylvania, North Carolina, Dayton and Notre Dame. In addition, the Southeastern Conference, with the round robin schedule, should be at its greatest overall strength this season. Vanderbilt, Georgia, Louisiana State, Tennessee and other SEC schools had good freshman teams last season and also feature several fine returning lettermen.

There is also a basketball renaissance in progress throughout the SEC, with most schools expanding current facilities, playing in new buildings or in various phases of constructing new fieldhouses.

The season should be interesting, to say the least.

KENTUCKY IN THE SEC

Perhaps the greatest supremacy enjoyed by any team in any sport is reflected by Kentucky's basketball success in the Southeastern Conference since 1933. Against SEC teams, UK has annexed a record of 383 victories and lost only 66—a winning average of over 85 per cent. They have annexed 22 league championships and own over 60 team and individual records from regular season and tournament play. Only Tennessee, Vanderbilt and Florida can boast of beating the Wildcats two in a row in the same season and only Mississippi State and Alabama are added to the exclusive club when the basis is widened to consecutive wins over two or more seasons. Kentucky's record against SEC teams, including non-conference games, is shown below.

Average loss margin—6.1

(Kentucky's home floor winning streak started against Ft. Knox on Jan. 4, 1943, following a loss to Ohio State two nights earlier. Before Ga. Tech snapped the string, the Wildcats had posted a national record 129 consecutive victories. All told, since the Ohio State loss, the Ruppmen have won 284 and lost only 27 at home. Since Memorial Coliseum became the home floor at the start of the 1950-51 season, the record is 200-27.)

WHO WERE THE 'FABULOUS FIVE'?

The most frequently asked question tossed at basketball historians and sports authorities is "Who were the 'Fabulous Five' of Kentucky?" The answer is Alex Groza (center), Ralph Beard and Kenny Rollins (guards), Wah Wah Jones and Cliff Barker (forwards). This famous 1948 team, captained by Rollins, won 36 and lost 3 while sweeping to Kentucky's first NCAA title and went on to participate as a unit in the Olympic Games—helping the USA team capture the world championship. Rollins graduated after the '48 season, but the remaining foursome continued to play havoc with collegiate basketball and copped another NCAA title for Kentucky in 1949 on a record of 36-2. Members of these two teams later gained fame in the pro ranks as they formed a unit known as the Indianapolis Olympians. And, along with contemporary Wildcats Adrian Smith and Billy Evans, who participated in the 1960 and 1956 Olympics, they give UK and Coach Rupp a unique standing of seven Olympic gold medal winners.

'BANNER' AND NO. 6

According to tradition, Kentucky's basketbaling Wildcats have a pet pattern that they execute the first time hey get the ball in a game. The nationally-famous saying attributed to UK Coach Adolph Rupp is "Star Spangled Banner and then No. 6." This stems from Rupp's strategy of running the strategic guard-around play of Kentucky's repertoire and the reason, Rupp explains, is simple: "It tells us immediately if the opposing team is playing a zone defense against us." The basic-guard-around pattern has been employed by Kentucky as it raced to four national championships and has produced eight All-America guards during the Rupp Era.

KENTUCKY'S COLORS

The blue and white of the University of Kentucky are known to sports fans everywhere. Officially the colors are Yale blue and white, but in the beginning, when the Lexington institution was still known as the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Kentucky, the colors were "Stoll blue" and white. One day back in the 1890's a group of Kentucky football stalwarts met to choose their school colors. Someone suggested blue and white—"blue like Dick Stoll's necktie"—and those colors were immediately adopted. "Dick" Stoll was to become Judge Richard C. Stoll, distinguished public servant and, for more than fifty years before his death, a member of the U.K. board of trustees.

Three teams featuring four returning starters each and a combined 1966-67 record of 58 wins and 22 losses will join Kentucky's sophomore-dominated Wildcat squad in the 15th renewal of the University of Kentucky Invitational Tournament Dec. 22-23 in Memorial Coliseum.

UK's Pat Riley carries off 1966 trophy

The visitors' credentials are even more impressive in view of expert forecasts for the 1967-68 season.

Don Donoher's Dayton Flyers, who meet Adolph Rupp's Wildcats in the second game opening night, are rated in the Top 10 in all pre-season forecasts on the strength of a 25-6 record and second place finish in the NCAA finals at Louisville last March.

Tay Baker's Cincinnati Bearcats finished a strong fourth in the tough Missouri Valley Conference last season while compiling a 17-9 record.

Frank McGuire's South Carolina Gamecocks, who meet the Bearcats in the opening game at 7:30 p.m. Dec. 22, staged a strong finish to wind up third behind Duke and nationally-ranked North Carolina in the Atlantic Coast Conference. The Gamecocks finished with a 16-7 record.

The Wildcats, who claimed their ninth UKIT title in 14 years last December, are relying heavily on help from one of the best freshman teams in school history. Expected to take up slack left by graduated All-Americans Pat Riley and Louie Dampier are sophomores Dan Issel (C), Mike Casey (F-G) and Mike Pratt (F).

They'll join with a lettermen group led by seniors Thad Jaracz, 6-6 F-C who was most valuable player in last year's UKIT; Cliff Berger, 6-8½ F-C; and Steve Clevenger, 6-0 guard; and Phil Argento, lone junior on the squad.

Dayton will counter with All-America Don May and returning regulars Dan Sadlier, Glinder Torain, Dan Obrovac, Bobby Hooper and Rudy Waterman. Guard and captain Gene Klaus was the only regular to graduate.

In addition, Donoher will have at his command members of a freshman team which lost only once (to Kentucky at Lexington) while winning 20 games (including a revenge verdict over the Kittens at Dayton). Presenting the biggest challenge for a starting spot is George Janky, 6-8 center with that frosh squad. Jerry Francis (6-3) and Jim and Jerry Gottschall (identical twins) also are considered strong varsity material.

The big Flyer, however, is May, a 6-4 hometown boy who was the nation's No. 5 rebounder (16.7 per game) and also led the Flyers in scoring with a 22.2 average last season.

While May was great all season, he was particularly outstanding in the NCAA tournament, pacing Dayton to wins over Western Kentucky, Tennessee, Virginia Tech and North Carolina before bowing to UCLA in the final. He stood the Louisville crowd on its ear with 34 and 21-point performances in the final two games. He was voted to the NCAA All-Tournament team and selected as MVP in the Mid-East Regional.

The Flyers, making their fourth appearance in the UKIT, were tournament champion in 1955 with an 89-74 victory over the Wildcats. They lost to Illinois and Southern Methodist in 1956 and finished third in 1964 after losing to Illinois and defeating West Virginia.

Cincinnati and South Carolina are making their first UKIT appearance. The Bearcats bring to Lexington a veteran squad which lost only No. 2 scorer (13.3 per game) Mike Rolf. Leading the returning four starters is 6-9 center Rich Roberson, who led the team in scoring with a 14.8 average last season as a sophomore. Coming up from a strong freshman team will be 6-8, 210-pound Jim Ard, who totaled 48 points and 24 rebounds in two games with the UK frosh last season.

Frank McGuire Coaches South Carolina

The Gamecocks, led by old Kentucky nemesis McGuire (formerly at St. John's and N.C. State), feature the ACC's leading rebounder in 6-7, 240-pound Gary Gregor, who has already been drafted by the pros. Frank Standard (12.1 ppg) is an underrated forward who joints guards Skip Harlicka (16.7) and Jack Thompson (11.7) for an impressive lineup. An added dividend comes from 6-8 Gene Spencer, who was redshirted.

Besides gaining victory for victory's sake alone and trying for the huge trophy that goes with the championship, the four clubs stand to pick up a good share of the proceeds and highly important national prestige that has become associated with success in the tournament.

Often the winner of the UKIT has made a significant gain in the national poll rankings as the direct result of attention-grabbing early wins in the tourney over major intersectional powers. Twice in recent years, the UKIT champ has vaulted all the way to the top position in wire service polls and generally the champion has used its success in the Kentucky tournament as the springboard to a winning season. The Kentucky Wildcats, almost unheralded except by reputation before their successful sweep to UKIT top honors in 1965, moved up from 15th to ninth and went on to claim final regular season ranking of No. 1 plus winding up the campaign 32-2 following a near miss in the NCAA title game and success in the International Universities Tournament in Tel Aviv.

Patronage of the UKIT by the cage-conscious public is considered to be the direct result of the high-calibre fields lined up with far-sighted success by Athletic Director Bernie Shively and Coach Rupp. All told, 26 of the nation's leading basketball teams from every section of the country have made appearances in the previous 14 classics. The tournament was inaugurated in 1953 with the avowed aim of returning big-time basketball, beset by scandal hatched in big city arenas, to the campus and to provide the public with a view of top-flight basketball as it is played in different sections of the country.

'THAT WAS NO ZONE DEFENSE!'—RUPP

Always ready with a colorful quip for dotting members of the press-radio-TV corps, Kentucky Coach Adolph Rupp sent his listeners rushing to their dictionaries in 1963-64 when he came up with a colorful description of a new defense installed in early season. Sportswriters who witnessed the special 1-3-1 point defense for the first time against Tennessee in January were inclined to refer to it as a "zone." But Baron Rupp, to whom the term "zone defense" had long been one of the most abhorred in his vocabulary and a pattern never used by his Wildcats, cagily denied this. "We never have used the zone at Kentucky and never intend to," he declared with tongue in cheek. "That was no zone. It was simply a stratified, transitional, hyperbolic paraboloid." STHP or zone, whatever you called it, it carried the UKats to a successful quest of the conference title and an NCAA berth. They lost only once in regular season play using the special defense—that coming in the final game with St. Louis. In an earlier upset at the hands of Alabama, the UK defense had reverted to the familiar "Man-for-Man."

GREATEST TEAM, PLAYER, THRILL?

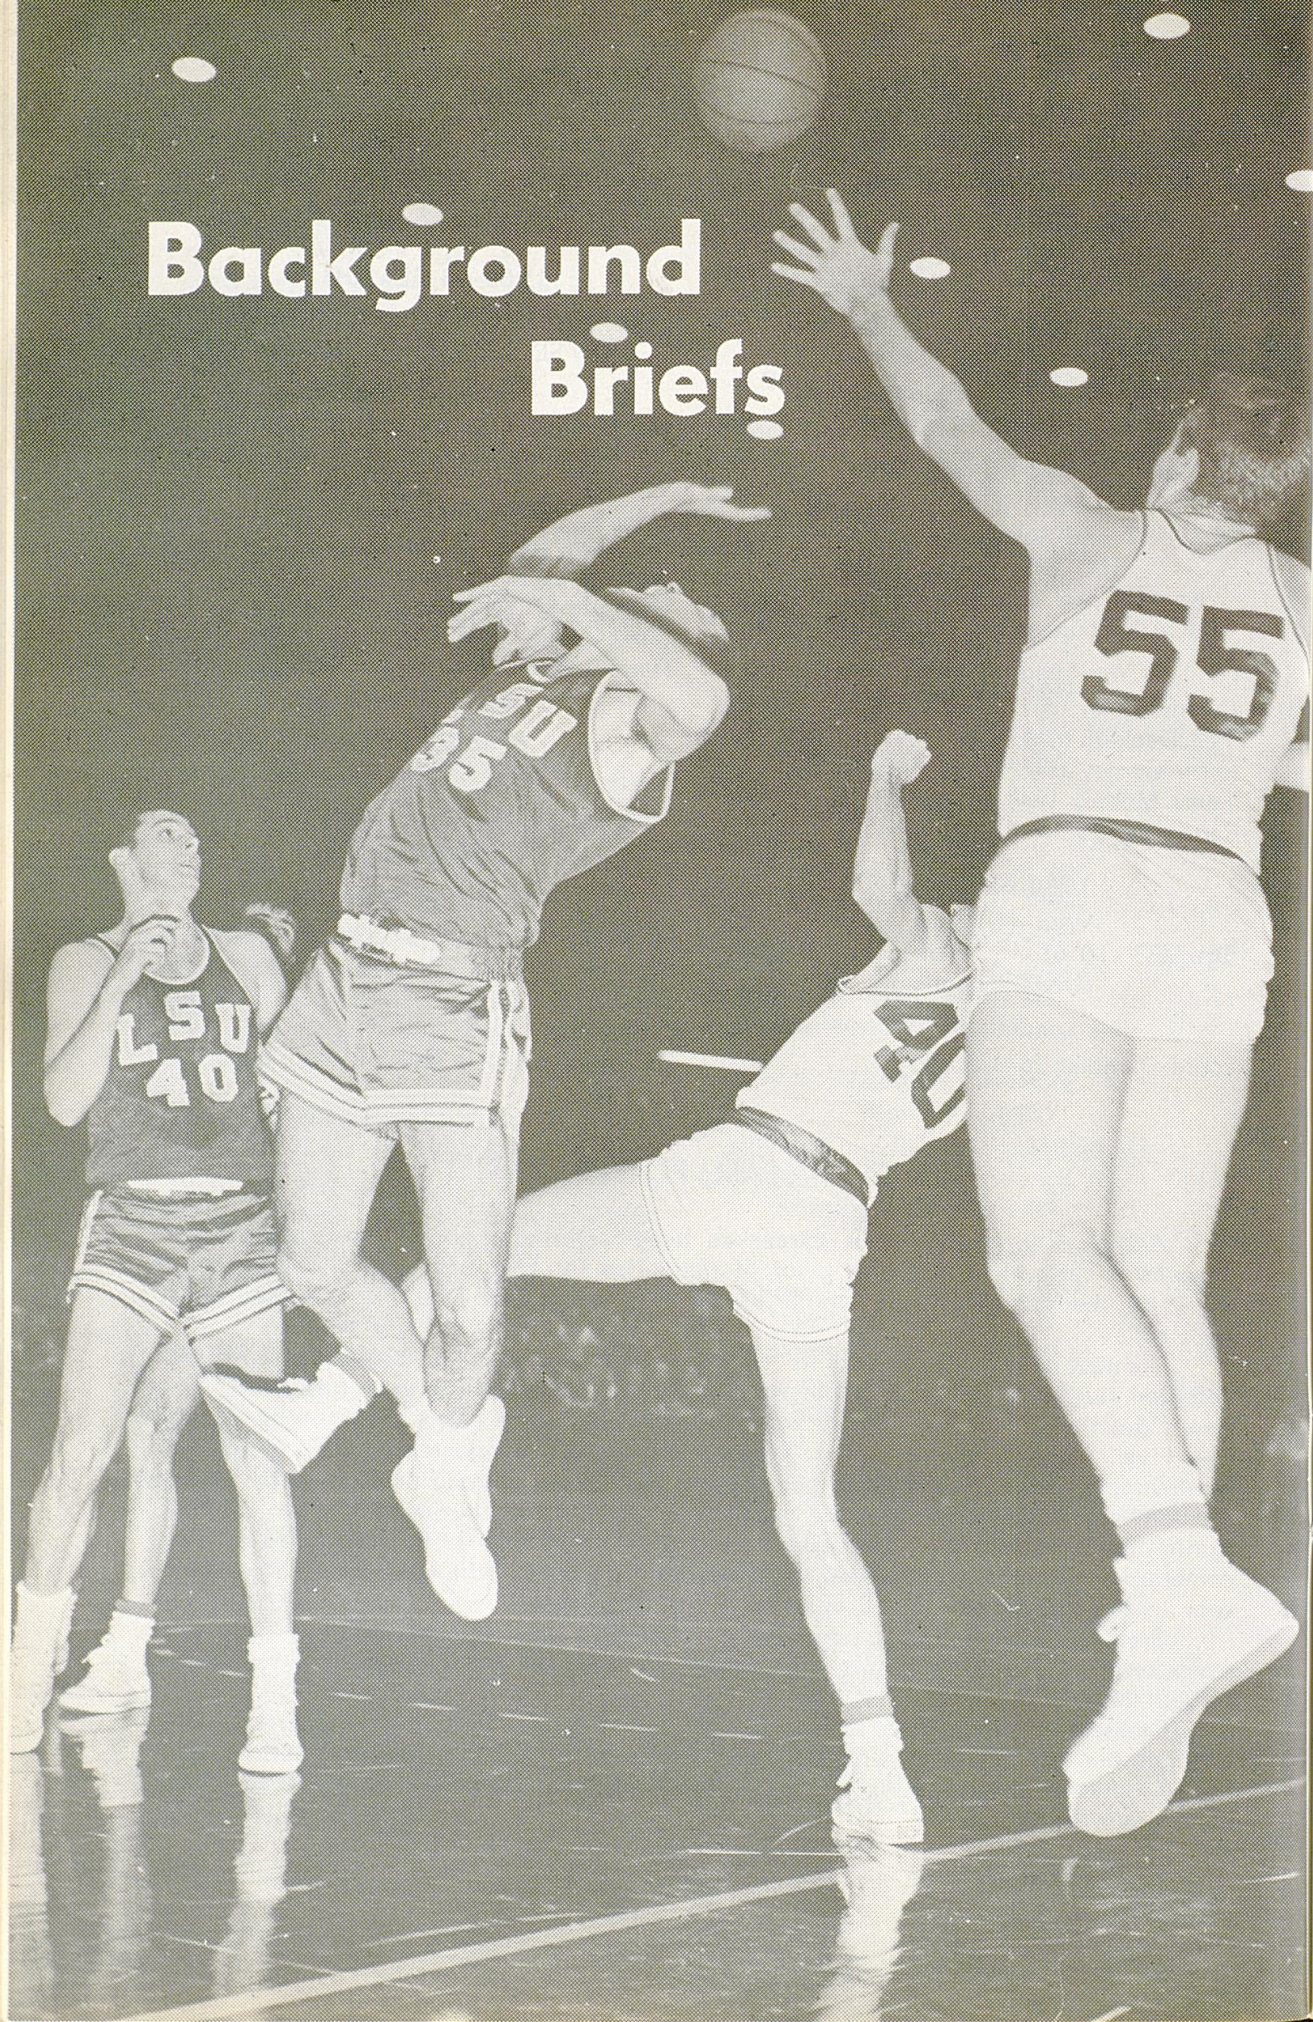

Adolph Rupp's illustrious career as headmaster at Kentucky for almost four decades is certainly filled with a lot of memories for him and he's willing to share many of them with anyone who'll listen. But there are lines he will not cross, such as:

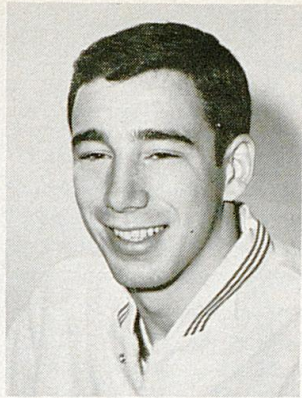

Greatest team?—Rupp points to four national champion outfits and an undefeated team that probably could have taken the national title if it had tried. Listeners get the impression that he would narrow the choice down to two—the "Fabulous Five" Olympic champions of '48 and the possibly even greater 1954 crew that went undefeated in 25 games to become the best perfect-record unit up to that time. There's much suspicion that he was ready to bestow the accolade on "Rupp's Runts" of 1966 had they managed to win the NCAA title as the climax to a great comeback. Few doubt that the odds-defying "midgets" will always occupy a high spot in his estimation.

Greatest player?—Rupp steadfastly refuses to discuss personalities. "I'd just make one boy happy and hurt the feelings of a lot of other great ones that have played for me."

Greatest thrill?—"That's hard to say, but I guess three of my greatest were winning the '48 Olympics with my boys, going undefeated in '54 and getting that NCAA national championship trophy in 1958 with an unheralded bunch they called the 'Talentless Wonders'."

Background Briefs

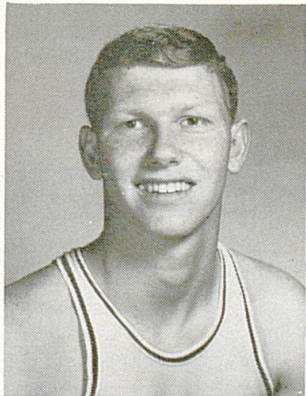

PHIL ARGENTO (No. 13)

6-2 Junior Guard
Cleveland, Ohio (2/22/47)

Worked into the Wildcat lineup slowly in 1966-67, as expected, and came on strong at season end . . . Finished with a 5.2 scoring average, hitting 41 of 82 field goal attempts for an even 50 per cent and 28 of 31 free throw attempts . . . Showed signs of fulfilling promise of sparkling frosh season, when he broke the UK freshman game point production mark four times and posted a high point total of 50 for his best effort . . . Scored 48 points on two occasions . . . Wound up frosh season with 460 points and a 30.7 average . . . Starred at West High School in Cleveland, Ohio, with 30.7 average in his final season . . . Posted a career total of 1,259 points in 50 schoolboy games . . . Put new marks in high school record books for scoring, rebounding, assists, field goals and free throw shooting . . . Twice All-State . . . Possesses fine touch, a good eye for the basket and a knack for getting a shot away quickly . . . Family nationality Italian and Irish.

CLIFF BERGER (No. 45)

6-8½ Senior Center-Forward
Centralia, Ill. (9/25/46)

Could be a big man in Wildcat plans, from the point of leadership as well as scoring and rebounding proficiency . . . Starter in the final 13 games last season . . . Cliff logged 543 minutes playing time in 20 games and finished with 226 points, tying fellow senior Thad Jaracz for third place scoring honors with 11.3 points per game . . . Led team in field goal accuracy, hitting 98 of 176 shots for 55.6 per cent . . . Made 30 of 36 from the free throw line . . . Finished third in rebounding with a per game average of six . . . Operated as the Wildcats' No. 6 man in his sophomore year, scoring 84 points and hauling in 86 rebounds during 297 minutes of action in 25 games . . . He is remembered for his fine relief job in Kentucky's pivotal win over nationally third-ranked Vanderbilt that season . . . Widely sought after a high school career in which he won All-America honors at Centralia Township, Cliff scored 796 points and averaged 26.5 plus 14 rebounds a game his senior year . . . At 6-8½, he is the Wildcats' biggest pivotman since 6-9 Ned Jennings in 1960-61.

BILL BUSEY (No. 14)

5-10 Sophomore Guard
Bagdad, Ky. (10/8/48)

Small in stature, but fast afoot and tricky with a basketball . . . Fourth leading scorer on freshman team last season with 189 points in 20 games for 9.4 average . . . Specializes as a playmaker and should make the guard battle interesting, although it's doubtful that he'll relegate more experienced players to a bench role . . . All-State at Shelby County High where he teamed with fellow UK soph Mike Casey to aid Rockets in posting 33-1 record en route to state championship . . . Three-year regular in basketball, quarterback in football, outfielder in baseball, dashman and broad jumper in track . . . High school coach Bill Harrell classified him a better playmaker than scorer, but Busey averaged 16.9 points as a high school senior.

MIKE CASEY (No. 34)

6-4 Sophomore Forward-Guard
Simpsonville, Ky. (5/26/48)

Rated one of top freshman prospects in land, Casey lived up to advance billing last season . . . Freshman captain led Kitten scoring parade with 471 points (23.5 average) and was second leading rebounder with 195 grabs to Dan Issel's 355 as frosh finished with a fine 18-2 record . . . Considered almost a sure bet for starting position this season . . . All-State at Shelby County High where he averaged 28.5 points a game as the Rockets finished 33-1 and won the State Tournament . . . Honorary captain All-State team and Kentucky's "Mr. Basketball" for Kentucky-Indiana series . . . Headed Coach and Athlete Magazine's list of nation's top 10 prep All-Americans . . . Four-year point total 2,088 points in career of 96 games . . . A clutch shooter with all the moves . . . Lone unanimous choice on All-State Tournament team.

STEVE CLEVINGER (No. 32)

6-1 Senior Guard
Anderson, Ind. (7/29/46)

An excellent ball-handler and passer, the "Hoosier Hot Shot" shook academic troubles and minor injuries which plagued him in his freshman and sophomore campaigns, respectively, and saw action in all but two of the Wildcats' 26 games last season . . . He started five games, compiling a total of 81 points during 316 minutes total playing time . . . Credited with 39 assists—third to departed All-Americans Pat Riley (68) and Louie Dampier (57) . . . Shot a respectable 48.3 percent from the field and contributed 1.4 rebounds a game . . . As a sophomore, he performed creditably in 11 games before breaking a small bone in his foot just prior to the NCAA Tournament . . . Ran into academic difficulties in his freshman year (1964-65) and wound up ineligible the second semester—causing him to miss three-fourths of the games (13 of 19) . . . All-State three straight years as a schoolboy at Anderson and Indiana's "Mr. Basketball" for the Kentucky-Indiana All-State series . . . Accounted for 1,298 points in high school play.

JIM DINWIDDIE (No. 10)

6-4 Sophomore Guard
Leitchfield, Ky. (5/1/48)

Showing great promise as a defensive player, Dinwiddie saw action in all but one game last season as the UK frosh compiled an 18-2 record . . . He hit 25 of 69 field goal attempts for 36.2 per cent, which must improve if he expects to compete for a varsity guard position . . . His total production was 78, a 3.9 average . . . Contributed 50 rebounds and 24 assists . . . A top playmaker for Leitchfield, he helped the Western Kentucky team post 26-7 record as he averaged 20 points and 15 rebounds his senior year . . . Made second and third team All-State but mentioned as high as second team All-America on some selections . . . Fourth in state in high jump senior year . . . Born Louisville . . . Scottish descent.

GARY GAMBLE (No. 50)

6-5 Senior Forward

Earlington, Ky. (3/28/46)

Started first four games of junior campaign, but relinquished post and was relegated to first line reserve duty . . . Started final game of last year's UKIT . . . Went route against Notre Dame in Freedom Hall, sealing Irish doom with six field goals in first half . . . Finished with 17 points—single game high for his UK career . . . Saw action in 22 games, with eight starts and 312 minutes to his credit . . . Averaged 3.5 points and 2.3 rebounds per game . . . His rebound total of 50 was fifth highest on squad . . . Classed as a good rebounder and fine defender, but needs to develop more offensive punch . . . Came to Kentucky as somewhat of a "darkhorse" since highest schoolboy honor at Earlington was honorable mention All-State.

DAN ISSEL (No. 44)

6-8½ Sophomore Center-Forward

Batavia, Ill. (10/25/48)

Displayed rebounding talent that Wildcats have long lacked as he garnered 355 grabs in 20 games for 17.7 average . . . Also held up his end of scoring, finishing second on squad with 416 points for a 20.8 average . . . Hit 50.6 per cent from the field and contributed 35 assists . . . Definitely a top contender for starting center position . . . Chose Kentucky over 100 interested schools . . . Classed by Coach Rupp as "the best pivot prospect in the country" . . . Scouts called IsSEL one of top three schoolboy cagers in nation . . . Blessed with fine speed, great ability and plenty of moves near the basket . . . Scored 2,500 points in high school career of 106 games—725 for 25 average in senior season . . . Excellent student majoring in Commerce.

THAD JARACZ (No. 55)

6-6 Senior Center-Forward
Lexington, Ky. (12/15/46)

A native Lexingtonian, Jaracz is the only returning player who started every game last season . . . Led the team in rebounding with 215 grabs (8.3 per game), eighth in the Conference . . . Third in team scoring with 293 points . . . Named most valuable player in the 1966 UKIT . . . As a soph in 1965-66 he was honored by the Associated Press on its third team All-America selections (only soph among 15 honorees) and chosen as "Sophomore of the Year" in the Southeastern Conference . . . Proved to be one of key men in Kentucky's surprising surge to No. 1 position in the national polls and close miss in its bid for a fifth NCAA championship that season . . . Operated at both center and forward last season, but probably will shift to forward this season as taller sophomores battle for the pivot position . . . Played high school ball at Lexington Lafayette . . . His father played football at UK in 1941-42 . . . Much of the team's success will depend on leadership generated by Jaracz.

ART LAIB (No. 54)

6-10 Sophomore Center-Forward
San Francisco, Calif. (10/14/47)

An unknown factor in Coach Rupp's plans for the 1967-68 season, Laib came to Kentucky from Gulf Coast Junior College in Panama City, Fla., where he set a school record of 27 rebounds in one game . . . Also set a one-game rebound record (29) at F. C. Hammond High School in Alexandria, Va. . . . Played only one year at Gulf Coast before deciding to transfer to Kentucky . . . Laid out of competition the required year and is now ready to make his bid with the Wildcats . . . Father is a colonel in the U.S.

Army . . . Nationality German . . . He could be biggest UK player since seven-foot Bill Spivey (1950-51).

JIM LeMASTER (No. 12)

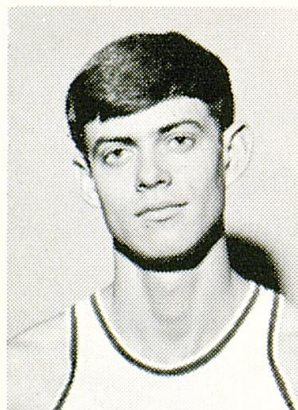

6-3 Senior Guard

Lexington, Ky. (8/12/46)

Could be classified as a farmboy—his father is reside manager of Spendthrift Farm on the outskirts of Lexington—but attended high school in Paris, Ky. . . . He earned All State honors in 1964 at Bourbon County High as a 24-point scorer and also was a grid star . . . Kentucky's first cag All-America (Basil Haydon '21) also hailed from Paris, bu Jim isn't expected to follow in Haydon's footsteps . . . Considered a reliable "fireman," however, and should shor up the Wildcat bench this season if he doesn't nail dow a starting guard position . . . Saw action in 17 games, with two starts and 217 minute playing time last season . . . Averaged 2.7 points and 2.1 rebounds . . . A tough muscular competitor, LeMaster handles himself well on the court and is classified fine floorman as well as "take charge" type and a fine passer . . . Hit 51.7 per cen of his shots last season, but his strong point probably is defense . . . Won Jaycee Freshman Leadership Award as a yearling.

WAYLAND LONG (No. 30)

6-7 Sophomore Forward

Lancaster, Ky.

Got late start in basketball, playing only last two years at Garrard County, but showed future potential and was welcomed to frosh squad last season after he had entered UK on an academic scholarship . . . Saw limited action in 15 games . . . Came a long way as a yearling last year, but still has long way to go . . .

TERRY MILLS (No. 21)

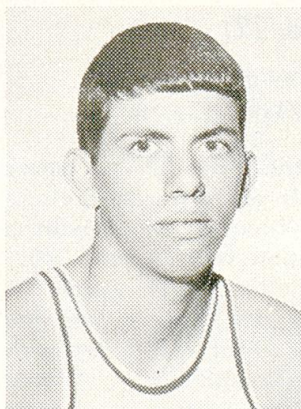

6-2 Sophomore Guard

Barbourville, Ky. (8/15/48)

A steady performer, Terry played in all 20 games for last year's freshman squad—compiling a total of 161 points that ranked fifth highest on the squad . . . Also credited with 44 rebounds and 28 assists . . . Described as a complete player who does everything well, he scores from inside or out, rebounds capably, defends effectively and passes well . . . Caught eye of scouts as junior when he accumulated 43 points and 24 rebounds in two state tourney games . . .

Prep All-America, All-State and All-Tournament . . . Called a sleeper by some . . . Scored 1,622 points in three-year career and had 682 points in 31 games as senior plus 279 rebounds.

RANDY POOL (No. 42)

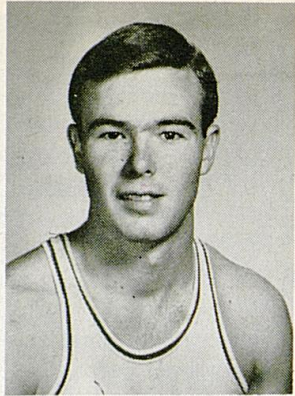

6-7 Sophomore Forward-Center

Oak Ridge, Tenn. (4/20/48)

Called "Moose" by teammates, affable Tennessean Pool has a knack for relieving tense situations by saying the right thing at the right time . . . Found little humor in his first semester grades last season, however, and sat out the remainder of the season after appearing in four games . . . Hit for total of 10 points and grabbed 15 rebounds . . . Conquered his scholastic problem and now is ready to challenge other tall timber on the squad . . . Layoff could hamper his chances this season . . . At Oak Ridge High, Pool was unanimous All-State and chosen outstanding player of state tournament as team finished third . . . UPI named him top prepster in Tennessee that year . . . Coach and Athlete selected him All-America . . . Scored 1,500 points in 63 career games, with 700 in his senior season.

TOMMY PORTER (No. 25)

6-4 Senior Forward
 Gracey, Ky. (10/17/45)

A front line reserve and a one-time starter last season, Porter is expected to give Coach Rupp good depth at forward . . . Returns after a junior campaign in which he saw action in 18 games, including a starting assignment in a 60-58 UK victory over Auburn in Memorial Coliseum . . . Hit 51.4 percent on shots from the field while averaging 2.7 points and 1.8 rebounds per game . . . Classified a good shooter, fine rebounder and capable defensive man . . . Needs to become more aggressive . . . A good student in Agriculture, he was chosen from 400 candidates as Kentucky's Star Farmer in 1964 . . . Past president of Kentucky Junior Hereford Association (Coach Rupp heads the senior cattle group) . . . Raised on 315-acre farm in Christian County, but has ambition to go into dentistry as career . . . Scored 1,212 points in three years at Christian County High . . . All-State and All-America mention.

MIKE PRATT (No. 22)

6-4 Sophomore Forward
 Dayton, Ohio (8/4/48)

A picture of confidence, muscular Mike has served notice he expects to earn a starting berth at forward—quite a task considering the senior and sophomore talent with a similar goal . . . Backs his contention with a solid 20.1 scoring average during a freshman season in which he totaled 402 points while hitting 55.1 per cent, to lead the team, from the field . . . Also was third rebounder with 162 grabs . . . Led the frosh is assists with 55 . . . Rated one of top schoolboys in Buckeye State history . . . Held under double figures only twice in last three years of high school and posted 24.9 average final season . . . Collected 1,396 points in 76 games of career for new Dayton-area record . . . Averaged 16 rebounds as senior . . . All-City football and baseball twice.

BENNIE SPEARS (No. 11)

6-3 Sophomore Guard
Ashland, Ky. (7/5/48)

Returned a little heavy from summer vacation . . . Needs to trim down to compete in the torrid varsity guard race . . . Saw action in 17 frosh games, hitting 30 of 71 field goal attempts for 42.2 per cent and 14 of 24 free throws for 58.3 per cent . . . Contributed 39 rebounds and 11 assists . . . Played high school ball at Blazer High in Ashland with Clint Wheeler and raised many an argument as to which was best . . . UK scouts saw potential in both and hope their collegiate play will follow similar pattern . . .

Gained second team All-State notice following senior season as his team advanced to the State Tournament . . . Broke school record in junior year with 44 points in one game . . . All-State in baseball 1965.

6-8 Sophomore Center-Forward
Ashland, Ky. (7/13/48)

A little on the slender side during his freshman season, Wheeler reported back to Wildcat camp carrying 25 more pounds, and in the right places . . . Displayed good rebounding prowess, finished fourth high on the squad with 129, and contributed 105 points to the frosh cause last season . . . Praised for touch and excellent timing . . . Though tall, likes to shoot from outside . . . Hit with 50 per cent accuracy in 32 games while helping Blazer High to State Tournament . . . Slipped to 35.5 per cent during his frosh season at UK . . . First team All-State Lexington Herald-Leader . . . 1,300 points in career, 601 final prep season . . . 17 a game on rebounds . . . Brother, Bill, played football at UK 1952-56 and now is local doctor.

SCHOLARSHIP FRESHMEN

BOB McCOWAN—6-2 Guard—Dayton, Ohio (4/23/49)—Followed in the footsteps of Mike Pratt as leading scorer in the City of Dayton last season with 553 points in 23 games . . . Like Pratt, he also joined the exclusive "1,000-Point Club" with a total of 1,076 and then cast his lot with the Wildcats . . . Helped Don Barger's Fairview Dragons to a 19-4 season record and runner-up honors in the district tournament . . . Also set a school high jump record of 6'5" and averaged 11 rebounds his senior year . . . Lettered three years in basketball, football and track . . . Made various All-Star teams, including Coach & Athlete and Scholastic Coach All-Americans . . . Described as a fierce competitor and great playmaker . . . Enrolling in medical school planning to follow in footsteps of father, Dr. William McCowan.

STEVE SCHMITT—6-10 Center—New Castle, Ind. (8/30/49)—Offered a chance to hit the professional bowling circuit while a tender 14 years of age, Steve resisted the temptation . . . He was 6-3 at the time and grew to 6-8 during his freshman year . . . Glasgow (Ky.) High School coach Jim Richards took notice and extended an invitation for Steve to try the roundball sport . . . Steve played on the Glasgow "B" team his sophomore year . . . His father joined Chrysler in New Castle, Ind., and Steve became a 6-9 starter there . . . He grew to 6-10 last season . . . Registered an 18.8 scoring average and set New Castle records for most rebounds in a season and most shots blocked as Coach Cecil Tague's Trojans finished 25-3, losing in the state finals . . . All-State third team and Basketball Yearbook All-America, Steve also won two track letters, specializing in the shot put.

GREG STARRICK—6-2 Guard—Marion, Ill. (4/9/49)—One of most highly sought prep stars in the nation . . . Chose Kentucky over dozens of other schools and the Cincinnati Reds, who offered an attractive bonus . . . Son of former high school basketball coach Wendell Starrick . . . Set Marion High School and South 7 Conference single game scoring record with 70 points, school season record of 771, career record of 1,975 and conference season record of 511 points, averaging 36.5 a game . . . Basketball Yearbook, Parade, Newport News and Coach & Athlete All-America, first five on all Illinois All-State teams . . . Most Valuable Player Carbondale Holiday Tournament, Evansville "Player of the Year for two years in row and winning other awards too numerous to mention . . . Earned three letters in baseball . . . Hopes to be a lawyer.

LARRY STEELE—6-6 Forward—Bainbridge, Ind. (5/5/49)—Equally adept at any position, Larry singed the nets for 1,550 points during a 72-game career at Bainbridge High School . . . Tallied 640 of those points last year in leading Pat Rady's Pointers to a 23-3 season record and sectional and regional championships . . . Also averaged 13 rebounds his senior year while making All-State and being named co-captain of the honorary squad in basketball-conscious Indiana . . . Lettered four years in basketball and two in track . . . Described as an excellent shooter, rebounder and defensive man . . . Member of National Honor Society.

FOUR TELEVISION APPEARANCES SCHEDULED FOR UK IN SOUTHEASTERN SERIES

Paying tribute to the magic name of University of Kentucky in basketball, a Southeastern Conference television "Game of the Week" series again this season will feature Adolph Rupp's Wildcats four times.

The 10-week series over a regional network has been set up by TV Sports, Inc., of Patterson, N.J. Producer Eddie Einhorn announced that all games to be televised will be played on Saturday afternoons to avoid interference with non-televised conference games. There will be no area blackout on the TV games.

Kentucky's appearances before the live television cameras will come against four different foes this year, with three of the four meetings taking place on the road. In order, the TV opponents will be Florida, Auburn, Louisiana State and Vanderbilt. Only the Vanderbilt game is to take place in Lexington.

The Wildcats, who have been particularly tough when parading before the TV cameras, won all four TV games in 1965-66 and two out of four last season.

The complete SEC television schedule for 1967-68:

Date	Game	Tip-off Time
Jan. 6	Tennessee at Alabama	2:10 p.m. CST
Jan. 13	Kentucky at Florida	3:10 p.m. EST
Jan. 20	Kentucky at Auburn	2:10 p.m. CST
Jan. 27	Kentucky at Louisiana State	12:45 p.m. CST
(DH)	Vanderbilt at Mississippi State	2:10 p.m. CST

WILDCATS ARE POPULAR

At home or on the road, Baron Adolph Rupp and his colorful Kentucky Wildcats are one of college basketball's biggest drawing cards. The largest crowd ever to see the Kentuckians in action turned out on March 17, 1961, for the opening night of the NCAA Midwest Regional at Freedom Hall in Louisville. A tournament-record crowd of 18,833 witnessed Kentucky whip Morehead and Ohio State top Louisville. Another banner crowd of 17,494 the following night broke all existing NCAA records for two-night play. Other top crowds to see the Wildcats were 18,493 in Madison Square Garden for a St. John's game Dec. 21, 1946; 18,803 who witnessed the Kentucky-Seattle national championship match at Louisville March 22, 1958; and 18,274 attending a regular season clash between Kentucky and Illinois at Freedom Hall in Louisville Dec. 30, 1958. At their own Memorial Coliseum in Lexington, the Ruppmen play to virtual capacity crowds every time out. The record one-night crowd was the 12,891 who saw the Wildcats defeat the Vanderbilt Commodores, 104-73, on Feb. 17, 1964. This overflow crowd of spectators surpassed the previous high of 12,375 who saw Kentucky drop its season opener in 1962 to Virginia Tech. For the home season, the high total is 165,650 estimated to have witnessed the 14 Wildcat home games during 1963-64. Previously, the high was 165,495 in 16 games of the 1961-62 campaign. Again this season, as in the past three, sellouts are so certain that only season book holders will get in to see the crowd-pleasing 'Cats. A year ago, 600 tickets were taken away from season book holders to accommodate the growing student body and faculty.

KENTUCKY FRESHMAN SQUAD

Defense—Pressure Man-to-Man

Chief Losses—Craig Dill (C) 19.6; Dennis Bankey (G) 7.2

Top Returnees—Jim Pitts (G) 16.5; Dennis Stewart (F) 14.9; Bob Sullivan (F) 11.2;
Dave McClellan (6-4 F) 7.1

Best Newcomers—Rudy Tomjanovich (6-7 F); Rich Bloodworth (6-3 F), Bill Fraumann
(6-5 F)

OUTLOOK: Coach Dave Strack has a nucleus of seven lettermen returning from the 1966-67 Michigan team that finished last in the Big Ten. The Wolverines, who had a 2-12 Conference and 8-16 over-all mark, should definitely be on the upswing again, however. The drop last year was a real come-down from the teams that dominated the Big Ten for three previous seasons with the help of Cazzie Russell and company. Strack lost two top performers, co-captains Craig Dill, 6-10 center and leading scorer with 19.6 and Dennis Bankey at guard. Chief returnee is Jim Pitts, senior guard who averaged 16.5 last year. Strack also has a pair of starting forwards back. Top incoming sophomore is Rudy Tomjanovich, a 6-7, 195-pound forward, a former All-American and All-State who averaged 25.6 as a freshman last year. Kentucky is scheduled to dedicate Michigan's new 15,000-seat fieldhouse if it is completed on time.

Chief Losses—Skip Higley (G) 11.5; Gary Keller (F) 15.1; Jeff Ramsey (C) 5.3

Top Returnees—David Miller (6-7 G) 13.8; Neal Walk (6-11 C) 11.5; Gary McElroy (6-5 F) 8.3

Best Newcomers—Richard Vasquez (6-0 J.C. Transfer), Andy Owens (6-5 F), Mike Leatherwood (6-0 G)

OUTLOOK: Kentucky gets its earliest initiation into Conference warfare since 1946 when it takes on the Gators in the second game. The test should provide a good key as to where the power lies in the SEC this season. Both clubs are rebuilding. Florida will miss All-SEC performers Gary Keller and Skip Higley, but Coach Tommy Bartlett (who guided the Gators to a second place finish a year ago) has a seeming abundance of talent to draw replacements from. Neal Walk (6-11) returns to man the center spot. Andy Owens, 6-5 prep All-American, should fill in well for Keller. Higley's guard job is up for grabs between two junior college transfers. David Miller, 6-6, returns to give height and leadership at guard. He is the elected team captain for 1967-68. Gary McElroy (6-6) will be a familiar face at forward. The Gators (22-4 last season) should be tough.

Defense—Man-to-Man and Zone

Chief Losses—Jim Hengehold (F) 9.5; John Gorman (F-C) 7.2; Dave Lynch (G) 4.1

Top Returnees—Bob Quick (6-6 F) 19.3; Tim O'Connell (6-1 G) 13.2

Best Newcomers—Don Darby (6-5 F); Chris Hall (5-11 G)

OUTLOOK: Re-appearing on the Kentucky schedule for the first time since 1963, Xavier is banking on the presence of a new coach and four returning starters to pump new life into an outfit that matched Kentucky's 13-13 record last season. The new chief Muskie is George Krajack, formerly an assistant at Clemson and West Virginia. Bob Quick (6-6) and Tim O'Connell head the list of returnees. Quick has averaged 20 points a game the past two seasons and also dragged down about a dozen rebounds a game. O'Connell is rated a fine outside shooter and driver—giving Xavier a fine balanced threat of inside and outside shooting. The big problem supposedly is a lack of experienced depth—especially at forward where just one letterman returns.

COACH—Dick Harter (1 Year at Penn.—Won 11, Lost 14)

Offense—Patterned

Defense—Basic Man-to-Man, Zone

Chief Losses—Frank Burgess (C) 8.7; Bill Lohmeyer (F) 6.2

Top Returnees—Tom Northrup (6-0 G) 12.1; Charlie Snell (6-2 F) 12.1; Tom Mallison (6-10 C) 9.2; Steve Pearsall (5-8 G) 8.4

Best Newcomers—Jim Murphy (5-9 G); Carl Robbins (6-6 F); Ken Cohen (6-2 F)

OUTLOOK: Pennsylvania should be improved with six of its top seven scorers back and a fine crop of freshmen moving up. Coach Dick Harter, now in his second year at Penn, lost 6-9 Frank Burgess but has 6-10 Tom Mallison back and adds 6-7 soph Carl Robbins—who should add needed inside scoring to the Red and Blue attack. Forwards Tom Northrup and Charlie Snell each averaged 12.1 last season, tops on the team. Northrup was also used at guard. Jeff Osowski, 6-5, is a tough forward and good rebounder. Ken Cohen, a soph, could help also. At guard, Northrup, Steve Pearsall and Pete Andrews (7.0 ppg) all were used last year, and 5-9 soph Jimmy Murphy is also available. Harter should have better balanced offense, and better ball-handling, and the team should show improvement over last season's 11-14 mark.

Chief Losses—Bob Lewis (G) 18.5; Tom Gauntlett (G) 4.1; Mark Mirken (F) 1.7

Top Returnees—Larry Miller (6-3F) 21.9; Rusty Clark 6-10 C) 13.9; Dick Grubar (6-3 G) 9.2; Bill Bunting (6-8 F) 7.7; Joe Brown (6-4 F) 2.8; Gerald Tuttle (5-11 G) 2.6

Best Newcomers—Charlie Scott (6-5 F); Jim Delany (6-0 G), Eddie Fogler (5-11 G)

OUTLOOK: North Carolina's Tar Heels, defending champs of ACC and the East, have high hopes of making the new season another banner year. But Coach Dean Smith warns that if this club is to gain the stature of last year's team, "Everything must fall into place." Back from last year's sensational team are four starters, including all-America Larry Miller, 6-3 forward from Catasauqua, Pa. Other returning starters are 6-10 Rusty Clark, 6-8 Bill Bunting and the playmaker, 6-3 Dick Grubar. Chief loss by graduation was the great Bob Lewis. Best newcomer may be Charlie Scott, a 6-5 jumping jack from New York City. Two promising sophomore guards are Eddie Fogler and Jim Delany. Smith says that depth and improved team speed are the team's strong points in a bid for improving last year's fourth place finish in the NCAA tourney.

Best Newcomer—Jim Ard (6-8 F)

OUTLOOK: Breaking Louisville's stranglehold on the throne room door in one of the nation's toughest cage leagues is a formidable task. But the Bearcats, who go to the post with four returning starters, will not be facing the likes of the Cardinals as they make a bid for national honor in the UKIT for the first time. A returning line-up of four regulars gains impressive help from sensational Jim Ard—husky 6-8 Negro who scored at a 21-point clip as a freshman last year. Rich Roberson, a 6-9 pivot man, leads the experienced hands on whose shoulders the Bearcats are hopeful of building more consistent scoring to go along with sound defense and rebounding that carried them to a 17-9 record and fourth place conference finish in 1967.

Chief Losses—

Top Returnees—Gay Gregor (6-7 C) 13.0, Frank Standard (6-4 F) 12.1, Skip Harlicka (6-1 G) 16.7, Jack Thompson (6-0 G) 11.7

Best Newcomer—Gene Spencer (6-8 C) (redshirt)

OUTLOOK: The Gamecocks will go up against their opening night UKIT opponent on equal footing—like Cincinnati they have four starters available for duty and are figured a definite title threat to a national power (North Carolina) in their Atlantic Coast Conference. South Carolina will counter Cincinnati: star Rich Roberson (6-9) with 6-7, 240 pound Gary Gregor—the league's top rebounder an an advance draft choice of the pros. The experts also heap much praise on the slick back-court duo of Skip Harlicka (16.7 producer) and Jack Thompson (11.7). A couple of promising youngsters who were on the injured list most of last season, and red-shirt graduate Gene Spencer (6-8) are added to 1967-68 strength.

COACH—Don Donoher (3 Years at UD—Won 70, Lost 19)

Offense—Single Post

Defense—Man-to-Man

Chief Losses—Gene Klaus (G) 9.2

Top Returnees—Don May (6-4 C) 22.2, Dan Sadlier (6-6 F) 7.8, Glinder Torain (6-6 F) 10.3, Dan Obrovac (6-10 C) 6.1, Bobby Hooper (6-0 G) 11.7, Rudy Waterman (6-1 G) 11.2

Best Newcomer—George Janky (6-8 F-C)

OUTLOOK: For the past two seasons Coach Don Donoher has guided his remarkable Dayton Flyers to near misses in the NCAA Tournament—last year going all the way to the championship game where they bowed to UCLA. With sensational Don May and all other regulars except one returning this season, the chances appear good that Dayton will make the 1967 UKIT a stepping stone enroute to another shot at the national title. The Flyers and their opening night foe (Kentucky) will be renewing a rivalry last combated in the NCAA Mideast Regional of 1966 (UK 86, Dayton 79). Besides that contest, the two schools have met on two other occasions with each taking a victory. Dayton's lone win in the three-game series came on an 89-74 triumph that won the third UK Invitational Tournament in 1955.

Chief Losses—Louie Dampier (G) 20.6 and Pat Riley (F) 17.4

Top Returnees—Thad Jaracz (6-6 F-C) 11.3, Cliff Berger (6-8 C-F) 11.3

Best Newcomers—Mike Casey (6-4 G-F), Dan Issel (6-8 C-F), Mike Pratt (6-4 F)

OUTLOOK: There is surprising optimism in the Kentucky camp considering the reflection cast by the "worst ever" season of 1966-67 in inimitable Adolph Rupp's brilliant career and the departure of the All-America duo of Louie Dampier and Pat Riley. Success in the recruiting wars dealt Uncle Adolph the hand of potential talent that just could eliminate any brooding and start the Wildcats up the ladder toward their customary high national ranking that comes with winning ways. Regulars return at three positions, but the wary eyes of the opposition seem inclined to focus mostly on a promising crop of sophomores. Three youngsters very much in the running for starting jobs are 6-4 Mike Casey, 6-8 Dan Issel and 6-4 Mike Pratt—who led the UK Frosh to an 18-2 season. The Baron has an abundance of material (18 players) and long-awaited height (12 are 6-4 and better). On the debit side is inexperience (12 sophs) in depth and a really tough schedule, including defense of the UKIT title against Dayton, Cincinnati and South Carolina.

Defense—Man to Man

Chief Losses—Jim Monahan (F) 8.4; Tom Caldwell (F) 8.6

Top Returnees—Bob Arnzen (6-5 F) 21.3; Bob Whitmore (6-7 C) 16.4; Dwight Murphy (6-2 G) 10.4

Best Newcomers—John Gallagher (6-4 F), Mike O'Connell (6-1 G)

OUTLOOK: The Irish got themselves straightened out with the coming of the new year last season—posting a second-half record of 12-5. The feat may easily spell early trouble this year for Notre Dame foes if such capable hands as Bob Arnzen and Bob Whitmore improve on their performances that paced Irish scoring on averages of 21.3 and 16.4, respectively. Arnzen set a soph record for ND with 597 points and this year becomes the first underclassman to captain the Irish. Peppery, former Alabama mentor Johnny Dee believes his team can better last season's 14-12 mark and gain a measure of national cage prominence.

Best Newcomers—Perry Wallace

OUTLOOK: With three double-figure scoring veterans returning and new rebounding strength due to be added by super sophomore Perry Wallace—first Negro scheduled to play basketball in the SEC, Vanderbilt figures to present another formidable outfit again this season. Benefitted by a pair of wins over Kentucky, the Commodores in 1966-67 posted a fine 21-5 record last year and finished in a second place tie behind Tennessee in the loop standings. The Vandy bid will ride to a great extent on the shoulders of All-SEC Tom Hagan, leading rebounder Bob Warren and the soph jumping Jack Wallace. Also around to help is 6-4 forward Boy Wyenandt—a 17-ppg producer and second team All-Conference choice. The graduation of floor leader Jerry Southwood leaves a big gap to fill. The final game of the season for Kentucky and second meeting with the Commodores will be regionally televised as the SEC "Game of the Week."

Best Newcomers—Randy Hollingsworth (6-5 F), Dave White (6.0 G), Cliff Johnson (6-9 C)

OUTLOOK: With everyone back and a promising crop of upcoming sophomores, Alabama figures to be a much-improved basketball club this season. As the Crimson Tide move into spanking new, 15,000-seat Assembly Hall, they will be banking in particular on the scoring production of unanimous All-Southeastern guard Mike Nordholz—a sensational southpaw who averaged 21 points per game last season. Although 1966-67 followed a pattern of "as Nordholz goes, so goes Alabama," such dependence may not be as noticeable this year. Key men due to provide help are 6-7 center Rich Deppe and 6-3 guard Garry Elliott, who came along strong in late season last year. New faces also could help. Coach Hayden Riley will have a pair of junior college transfers plus likely help from sophs—headed by 6-5 Randy Hollingsworth (19.5 freshman average) and 6-0 David White (16.7).

* Jeffords out all last season with knee injury

Best Newcomers—Bob Lienhard (6-11 C); Allen Yuhas (6-5 F); Tom Superka (6-3 F); Herb White (6-1 F); Jerry Epling (5-11 G).

OUTLOOK: This year is one Georgia Coach Ken Rosemond has been waiting for. He will have height and depth up from the freshman team including the biggest player ever to play for the Bulldogs, 6-11 Bob Lienhard. He will have from the freshman team capable rebounders and scorers to join varsity regulars Jim Youngblood, Dick McIntosh and Don Wix. This threesome will be seniors and will have the experience to lead the new frosh, but there is one more face, absent from the lineup last year, due to return. Ray Jeffords, who had been voted captain for the season, unfortunately sustained a knee injury which sidelined him last season. With Jeffords returning, the Bulldogs will have an experienced leader who is one of the strongest rebounders ever to play for the Bulldogs.

Best Newcomers—Billy Alexander (6-6 C), Ron Jackson (6-5 F), Carl Shetler (6-0 G)

OUTLOOK: Auburn's 1967 basketball squad will have more size and better depth than in the past and these two factors might give Coach Bill Lynn his best record in his five seasons. The Tigers lost two valuable starters in center Ronnie Quick, the team's second leading scorer, and Bobby Buisson, a playmaker who turned in sterling defensive efforts all season. Inexperience will be a big factor in Auburn plans and only one senior will probably be in the starting lineup. Alex Howell, who led the Tigers in scoring with a 14.0 average last year. Wallace Tinker, a junior forward, will join Howell as the second starter returning. Tinker led the team in rebounds and was consistently in the top ten in rebounding in the SEC—though only 6-3. The key to the season, Lynn feels, is whether or not the young boys can come through. Two sophomores, Bill Alexander (6-7 C) and Ronnie Jackson (6-5 F) seem to be prime candidates for a starting job. Lynn feels that Auburn could become a contender for the SEC title along with Vanderbilt, Florida, and Mississippi State. Unless the sophs develop, the Tigers could best be classed as a darkhorse.

Top Returnees—Tom Boerwinkle (7-0 C) 12.0; Bill Justus (6-1 G) 12.0; Tom Hendrix (6-5 F) 10.0

Best Newcomers—Kerry Myers (6-3 G); Bobby Croft (6-10 F); Larry Mansfield (6-8 C)

OUTLOOK: Tennessee lost All-America forward Ron Widby from its Southeastern Conference championship team, but the return of the four remaining starters portends another contending squad for Coach Ray Mears. Regulars who will be on hand include 7-0 center Tom Boerwinkle, All-SEC last year and a fine rebounder (15 average); smooth forward and captain Tom Hendrix, a slick defensive player; cat-quick guard Bill Justus, (runner-up Soph of the Year in '67) and a master of one on one situations; plus play-maker ace Bill Hann. Bobby Croft (6-10), Kerry Myers (6-3) and Larry Mansfield (6-8) shape up as the best of a nifty corps of newcomers. If Tennessee can repeat their SEC success of last year the Vols will match a feat of gaining two straight clear-cut titles accomplished in the past only by Kentucky.

Best Newcomers—Pete Maravich (6-5 G), Rich Hickman (6-0 G), Jeff Tribbett (6-0 G), Steve Shumaker (6-7 C), Rich Lupcho (5-9 G), Drew Corley (6-5 F)

OUTLOOK: The Bayou Bengals are not likely to capture the SEC championship this season in view of their overall lack of experience and absence of obvious improvement in shooting ability (42 percent last season). Defense also was a big problem a year ago, but should improve. The analysis could go on almost indefinitely. But that is not the story of LSU basketball for 1968. Above all else, the Tigers' hopes are keyed on soph sensation Pete Maravich who was the talk of the league last year as he posted a phenomenal 43.6 points a game. The average probably will suffer from the improved calibre of competition on a varsity level, but opposing teams will have their hands full trying to hold "Pistol Pete" in check. There also will be the matter of Pete's talented buddies and a junior college transfer, 6-7 Steve Shumaker.

Best Newcomers—Ron Coleman (6-3 G), Danny Dossett (6-5 F), Charlie Ward (6-4 F), Tommy Williams (6-4 F), Tom Butler (6-8 C).

OUTLOOK: A year ago, Coach Eddie Crawford went to the post with nine sophomores among his 12 varsity performers and cautioned against expecting overnight miracles in the form of wholesale victories. The Rebels did post a 13-12 winning season, made seventh place in the SEC and were generally recognized as the "most improved team in the conference." This time around, Coach Crawford has a predominantly junior ball club and all 1967 regulars returning. This should spell improvement, but probably does not pinpoint the Johnny Rebs as championship contenders this season. Care must be taken with this "darkhorse" club that could turn into a "spoiler" with such proven hands as 6-8 Jerry Brawner, 6-5 Ken Turner and 6-2 Larry Martindale. Danny Dossett (6-5 F) looms as the biggest breakthrough threat among the newcomers.

Best Newcomers—Jim Martin (6-7 F-C), Bubba Walker (6-4 F), Johnny Guyton (6-7 F), Jim Mattox (6-3 G), Allen Pruett 6-0 G)

OUTLOOK: The Bulldogs of former State star Joe Dan Gold made a dangerous swing at the SEC title last season before settling for a fifth place tie with Kentucky. This season, despite the absence of three starters, Mississippi State could offer an even more determined bid for high conference honors. One of the big reasons is the presence of stellar forward Dave Williams (6-7), a two-year All-SEC selection who paced State last season in both scoring (15.7) and rebounding. Joining Williams as a returning starter at the other forward will be Tom Payne. New blood for Coach Gold's bid for a third straight finish in the SEC upper echelon will be a couple of holdouts—Jim Martin (6-7) and Bubba Walker (6-4) plus a handful of sophomores.

Memorial Coliseum

SUCCESSOR TO A 'WHITE ELEPHANT'

Only a little more than a quarter century ago, the University of Kentucky provided its basketball team with its second home—a magnificent new Alumni Gymnasium seating 2,800 spectators.

A great many persons freely suggested that the arena would prove to be a "white elephant" which would never be crowded to anywhere near capacity by the sport that then was considered little more than innocuous winter-months' pastime.

But the hardwood game blitzed the nation and Kentucky's teams forged to the national forefront in such a crowd-pleasing manner that the "huge" hall soon could not begin to accommodate the large number of fans seeking to whet their new-found interest. In fact, the situation soon developed to the point where only the student body and faculty were admitted and for several years about all that Kentuckians at large knew of their state university's famed cage teams consisted of information gleaned from the radio and newspapers.

In 1941, when Dr. H. L. Donovan became president of the University, one of his first recommendations was for a building "that will properly take care of our athletics, our health service, physical education, and recreation." From this beginning came the plan that culminated in the construction of 11,500-seat Memorial Coliseum, an unparalleled edifice costing $3,925,000 by the time it was completed in 1950.

The huge building, which serves as a memorial to the nearly 10,000 Kentucky heroes who lost their lives in World War II and the Korean conflict, covers an entire city block and contains as much space as a seven-story office building. Situated along Avenue of Champions, the Coliseum is used primarily for basketball games but also serves as the site of a sellout community concert and lecture series as well as numerous physical education classes and conventions.

In sharp contrast to the early days in Alumni Gym, the present hall plays host to more than 150,000 Kentuckians annually for appearances of the famous Wildcat cage teams alone and interest is increasing with such strides, as evidenced by sellout crowds throughout the past three seasons, that even this splendid arena is rapidly becoming too small.

THE NCAA IN MEMORIAL COLISEUM

University of Kentucky's spacious Memorial Coliseum, one of the largest and finest basketball arenas in the South, has been the site of portions of the NCAA Tournament six times since its completion in 1950. First round playoffs were staged in the UK Coliseum in 1955, 1959, 1960 and 1962 while regional tournaments were held in the building in 1957, 1958, and 1965. The Wildcats played in the two regional eliminations, being eliminated by Michigan State in '57 and defeating Miami (Ohio) and Notre Dame in '58 enroute to its fourth and last National Championship. This season, the UK Coliseum will again be the site of the Mideast Regional. Dates are March 15-16.

ORIGIN OF "WILDCATS" NICKNAME

Kentucky's athletic teams are known to sports fans as the Wildcats. This first and only nickname borne by University varsities had its origin in 1909 in a speech made by Commandant Corbusier, then head of the military department of old State College. Speaking to a chapel audience of students on the showing of the Kentucky football team in defeating Illinois six to two, the Commandant declared "they fought like Wildcats." The tag was popularized by word of mouth and by the press with the result that it has since become synonymous with all major Kentucky athletic teams.

While the name is old in origin, no claim is made regarding precedence over similar nicknames boasted by Northwestern, Villanova and about 10 other major athletic teams.

An alumnus in 1947 presented a live Kentucky Wildcat to SUKY, student pep organization. Named "The Colonel," the cat served as a live mascot for UK teams until his death in 1955. The current mascot is a stuffed wildcat obtained from a Brooklyn taxidermist just before the 1958 football season and named "Tucky."

WILDCAT MASCOTS HAD COLORFUL NAMES

Over the years, Kentucky athletic teams have been spurred on in efforts toward victory by numerous colorfully-named wildcat mascots. Records indicate the first animal was given to the University in 1921. Named "Tom," this live Kentucky wildcat died quickly from being in captivity and was replaced with "TNT." Other live mascots followed—including "Whiskers," "Hot Tamale," and "Colonel"—only to pass from the scene due to death or being turned loose in the mountains after they did not thrive out of their native habitat. The current mascot, displayed at the football and basketball games by SUKY (student pep organization) is a stuffed Kentucky wildcat obtained in 1948 from a Brooklyn taxidermist.

* Played in International Universities Tournament at Tel Aviv, Israel, in August, 1966.

UK RECORD 20-GAME WINNERS

Kentucky lives up completely to its billing as the all-time champion of major college basketball with its run of 14 straight 20-victory seasons beginning in 1945, according to Boston sports authority Bill Mokray. The Wildcats were not permitted to field a team in 1953, but made up for it with a perfect record (25-0) the following season and continued their streak through 1959. Baron Adolph Rupp's warriors also achieved the magic circle with a 20-3 record in 1933 and posted a 23-3 mark in 1962 and 21-6 in 1964. Only other major teams to boast of as many as ten straight 20-victory campaigns are North Carolina State and Western Kentucky—each showing 10-year runs.
