KENTUCKY vs. MISSISSIPPI

Psychology, as taught by Professors Charlie Bradshaw and Johnny Vaught, will be one of the big questions subject to examination tonight as the Rebels of the University of Mississippi and Kentucky's home-standing Wildcats clash in a Southeastern Conference headliner.

The phases of the questioning revolve around lessons learned last week—Mississippi's stunning scoreless tie with underdog Memphis State and Kentucky's equally stunning display of explosive power in a 33-14 conquest of highly-regarded Virginia Tech.

Both ball clubs are looking for some right answers to the psychological queries of "Can a humiliation be turned to advantage in preparation for a key battle?" and, in the case of the Wildcats, "Will confidence gained in a thrilling and thorough victory provide the courage that proves the stepping stone to even greater heights?"

Ole Miss certainly will come to town fighting mad at its failure to live up to reputation and Coach Vaught will be out to recoup national prestige for his Rebel band which had been pegged as a worthy successor to the undefeated SEC titlists of 1962. Kentucky's youth-dominated Wildcats, with a much-needed hour of experience under their belts, have high hopes of fending off Mississippi's bid for revenge—both on account of the Memphis State affair and the scare administered by the upstart Kentuckians last year in Jackson before they bowed, 14-0.

Mississippi leads in the rivalry, 13 wins to five and one tie. Kentucky's last win came eight years ago in Lexington, but the series over the years since 1944 has been spiced with a strange sequence of upsets and near upsets.

COVER—Charlie Bradshaw's inner qualities of determination, fortitude and straight-forwardness seem even more evident in artist Ellsworth Taylor's sketch on tonight's cover than they do in observation of the Kentucky grid chief in person. The former UK end star and ex-Wildcat assistant coach is in his "sophomore" season as headmaster of a program designed to put Kentucky back in its rightful place in the gridiron world and progress toward the goal is evident with each new test given his charges.

BERT T. COMBS

Governor of Kentucky

Closing out a four-year term as Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, Bert Thomas Combs is able to look back with a special degree of pride on a distinguished career of public service that carried him up through the ranks to the chair of chief executive.

The 52-year-old public servant, who in his capacity of Governor also serves as chairman of the University of Kentucky Board of Trustees, began his career as a lawyer immediately upon graduation from the UK College of Law in 1937 and later entered political life when he became city attorney of Prestonsburg. He next held the post of Commonwealth Attorney for the 31st judicial district of the state and from 1951 to 1955 served as a judge on the state's highest tribunal, the Court of Appeals.

His distinguished background also includes service as a captain in the Judge Advocate General's Department and he was the recipient of both the bronze star and the medal of merit during Army service.

During his administration as Governor, an office to which he was elected in 1959, the State of Kentucky has made outstanding progress in many fields—including education, agriculture, industrial development, highway construction and social welfare.

Governor Combs is a native of Manchester in the Eastern Kentucky mountain area and worked his way through Cumberland College prior to entering the University Law School. He is married to the former Mabel Hall and they have two children, Lois Ann and Thomas George.

Is the '64 Buick Wildcat really wild?

...the wildest!

Wish we could show you a picture of the '64 Buick Wildcat instead of just "Wildcat people". But that would spoil the surprise in store for you on October 4th. That's when the new Wildcat (and all the other beautiful '64 Buicks) go on display at your local Buick dealer's. Until then, a few tidbits to whet your appetite: three new Wildcat V-8 engines ranging up to 360 hp. Three new transmissions, including a new Super Turbine torque converter automatic with lots more thrust on lots less gas. Four new models: 4-door hardtop; 2-door sport coupe; 4-door sedan; convertible. Above all, they're Buicks!

ALONG THE WILDCAT TRAIL

KENTUCKY 33, VIRGINIA TECH 14

It took only 14 seconds for University of Kentucky's rookie-dominated Wildcats to prove that inexperience is only a state of mind and the '63 sophomores built that premise into a thrilling, 33-14 trouncing of Virginia Tech before a season-opening audience of 35,000 at Stoll Field. The victory was Kentucky's first since 1958 in an opening game.

Dazzling soph scatback Rodger Bird, the Corbin Comet who bids to be the greatest of the fabulous athletic Bird brothers, raced back the game-opening Gobbler kickoff a near-record 92 yards to a touchdown that put Kentucky's thoroughbreds off and running. The slender, 5-11 and 184-pound speedster paced the most explosive UK offense seen in many a moon by racking up another 157 yards from scrimmage in 19 trips for an incredible, 8.3 average during the remainder of the contest.

That remarkable first score, only a mere three yards shy of the all-time school record for kickoff returns, set the stage for a not-to-be-denied effort by the young Wildcats but victory did not come easy.

Virginia Tech struck back quickly to tie the score at 7-7 in the late stages of the opening period and notched another touchdown during the second quarter after Kentucky had forged ahead for the second time on an 81-yard march capped by Ken Bocard going over from the eight.

The fierceness of the Cat-Gobbler battle was attested by the 14-14 halftime deadlock, but Kentucky was just getting started. Charlie Bradshaw's young charges, who received tremendous leadership from the older hands like Herschel Turner, put the game beyond reach of ex-Wildcat Jerry Claiborne and his VPI invaders with a tie-breaking TD late in the third quarter, and a pair of fourth-quarter clinching tallies.

Bird picked up the third UK score as he crossed the visitors' goal line for the second time in the evening and the other Wildcat markers were added by halfback Bobby Kosid and quarterback Talbott Todd. John Andrighetti, another sophomore, accounted for three extra points by kicking. Extra point pass attempts after the other two scores failed.

BIRD ON THE WING—University of Kentucky's "Corbin Comet," soph halfback Rodger Bird (21), takes off on a dazzling, 92-yard touchdown return of the opening kickoff to get the Wildcats rolling to an eventual, 33-14 win over Virginia Tech last Saturday night. The victory over the visiting Gobblers was the first season-opener success by the Wildcats since 1958. In the photo, Tech's Billy Edwards (88) stands in the way but Bird dodged him and eluded chasing Sonny Utz (34) enroute to touchdown territory. The UKat's Herschel Turner (70) is shown coming up fast to lend blocking help.

JOHN W. OSWALD

President
University of Kentucky

University's New President Knows Value of An Athletic Program . . .

Dr. John Wieland Oswald, new president of the University of Kentucky, is an educational administrator who believes organized athletics have a definite place within the university community.

Having himself been a college athlete, Dr. Oswald is now one of the staunchest supporters of the teams wearing the Blue and White. However, he advocates that any campus athletic program should be kept within the proper perspective and that over-adulation should be avoided.

Dr. Oswald served as vice-president for administration at the University of California at Berkeley before becoming the sixth chief executive of UK.

The native of Minnesota did his undergraduate work at DePauw University where he majored in botany. He played varsity football—captaining the DePauw eleven in 1937—and earned letters in basketball and track.

He was awarded a Ph.D. degree in plant pathology at the University of California in 1942 and entered the U.S. Navy the same year. As a PT boat skipper and later, as a divisional commander, he participated in over 50 missions in the Mediterranean.

After World War II, Dr. Oswald returned to academic life and advanced through the ranks at the University of California. He has published over 70 papers on plant pathology investigation and has done research work in the Netherlands under Fulbright sponsorship.

In 1962, he was named to the Sports Illustrated Silver Anniversary All-America, an award the magazine confers upon former college football players for outstanding achievement in their chosen professions.

Other members of the Oswald family are his wife, the former Rosanel Owen of Alabama, their two daughters, Elizabeth and Nancy, and John, Jr.

"Courage, Competition and Character"

by DR. JOSEPH KAPLAN
Department of Physics, U. C. L. A.
Chairman of International
Geophysical Year

Many years ago when I became actively involved in intercollegiate athletics, I tried hard to clarify in my own mind the role of intercollegiate athletics in the university or college. This was not a casual exercise on my part, because I was involved in the development of a relatively new campus of the University of California, and also because of the increasing pressures on all of us of preparation for World War II, and the increasing emphasis on research and graduate work at a University which was destined to become one of the most remarkably developing institutions in the Nation.

Thus the University climate for athletics was a changing one. There developed much more emphasis than ever before on academic achievements, the Nobel Prize, election to the National Academy of Sciences, creative and research activities. One might have expected that intercollegiate athletics, particularly in football and other highly competitive and much publicized areas, would begin to fade into the background until it was practically a minor activity in the University. In large metropolitan areas, the development of professional football and basketball offered a new threat to the popularity and prosperity of the traditionally crowd-pleasing major collegiate sports.

That this fading out of the picture by intercollegiate athletics has not taken place is in itself a remarkable phenomenon of our times. There are real, deep-seated and meaningful reasons for this, of which I will present the three that appear to me to be the most significant. At the same time I will present reasons why the current emphasis on intercollegiate athletics must not be allowed to diminish.

The three reasons to which I referred earlier are basically related to the three most significant characteristics of the modern intercollegiate athletic picture. These are contained in my three word title, "Courage, Competition and Character". To one who is active in the field of international scientific affairs, and who is more than casually aware of the problems that we face as a nation, these three words summarize the real needs of our time. For this nation to survive as a leader among the free nations of this world, we must have courage, we must be able to compete and we must maintain the best in our national character.

Intercollegiate athletics is an area of activity in which all three of these are intimately involved. Both team sports and individual effort require courage, character and the competitive spirit. The demonstrations that one sees of these important elements in our modern existence are easily understood. The language of athletics has almost universal appeal, thus the lessons to be learned are relatively easily communicated. I like the space program because it provides us with a simple mechanism for bringing the beauties of science to the public. I like intercollegiate athletics because it provides an equally effective and simple technique for bringing to the public the meaningfulness of the competitive spirit, character and courage.

Our space activities demonstrate our willingness to cooperate with other nations. Our emphasis on sports, particularly in our colleges and universities, shows the world that we value the attributes to which my title refers. Taken together, these make for a nation in which other people can have real confidence.

BERNIE A. SHIVELY

Director of Athletics
University of Kentucky

Bernie Shively — A Man Of Many Talents . . .

Nationally recognized for his direction of one of the nation's most balanced collegiate athletic programs, University of Kentucky's veteran Director of Athletics Bernie A. Shively is truly a gentleman of many talents.

He gained his greatest fame as a football All-America guard at Illinois in 1926 on the same grid outfit made famous by the immortal Red Grange. And, demonstrating a claim to being one of the finest all-around athletes in Illinois' history, Shively also laid claim to the Big 10 heavyweight wrestling crown and annexed letters in track before graduating in 1927.

Following his graduation, Shively came to Kentucky as a line coach in football. During his 35 years of service to the Kentucky athletic program, "Shive" also served as head football coach one season (1945), track coach and baseball coach as well as heading up the University's Physical Education Department. He became Director of Athletics in 1938.

For almost as long as the Southeastern Conference played a post-season basketball tournament, Shively served as chairman and the experience had stood him in good stead as he now directs the University's own highly-successful Invitational Tournament and supervises the NCAA Basketball Tournament in the capacity of committee chairman.

Shive also tried his hand at basketball officiating in the SEC for about 20 years and served several seasons as Supervisor of Officials for the Ohio Valley Conference. He is a past chairman of the NCAA's summer baseball committee and since 1954 has been president of the SEC Coaches and Athletic Directors Association. In addition, he has found time to be active in civic and University projects.

A native of Paris, Ill., Shively and his wife, Ruth, have two children. A son, Doug, was co-captain of the Wildcat football team in 1958 and now is an assistant grid coach at Virginia Tech. Daughter Suzanne was a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of UK in 1957.

Wildcat Coach Has Qualities For Success . . .

The personification of qualities of inner toughness, outwardly serious demeanor, quiet determination, ability, confidence and integrity . . . That's Kentucky's head football coach.

Charlie Bradshaw, 38-year-old ex-Wildcat player and assistant coach, fulfills all these qualities that are the background for success and goes a step further . . . He's an inspirational leader who exudes the toughness that it takes for those around him—staff and players—to get the job at hand done in a way that will pay off with success.

He believes in the direct approach and in the short span of just one season has instilled his formula in the minds of his charges. Kentucky footballers are now convinced that success is approached only through determined hard work.

Bradshaw's football philosophy was schooled into him as a player by Paul (Bear) Bryant and influenced by nine years of experience in an assistant coach capacity at UK and Alabama.

Born and raised in Montgomery, Ala., Charlie played football at Sidney Lanier High before coming to Kentucky as a 1942 gridder. He didn't see any action that year and withdrew from the University after one semester to enter the Marine Corps.

He returned to UK to play end for the 1946, '47 and '48 seasons and for three games in 1949 before being ruled ineligible by the Southeastern Commissioner. He remained on the Bryant staff as a student assistant and then returned to Sidney Lanier as a coach and co-ordinator in 1950.

In 1954, he came back to Kentucky as an aide on the Blanton Collier staff and stayed until 1959 when he moved to Alabama and an offensive coaching job under Bryant.

He was hired to replace Collier here on Jan. 10, 1962, and was extended a four-year contract.

Wildcat Coaching Staff

University of Kentucky's football coaching staff this season presents a composite picture of youth plus experience. Statistics on Head Coach Charlie Bradshaw and his 10 full-time aides provide an average look of only 33 years of age but a background of no less than nine years in the profession of tutoring football. All told, the staff represents 101 years of coaching experience.

MATT LAIR (Kentucky '48)—First UK aide ever to hold the title of Assistant Head Coach . . . Played as a blocking back and guard on same Wildcat teams as Coach Bradshaw . . . The 39-year-old North Middletown native has background of 16 seasons of grid tutoring, including five previous years at UK (1954-58), two at Texas A & M, one with Texas Tech . . . Works primarily with defensive line.

HOMER RICE (Centre '51)—Entered collegiate field in 1962 after nine championship seasons and seven undefeated campaigns during 11 years in Kentucky-Tennessee high schools . . . Aggregate record 101-9-7 for period . . . Won seven "Coach of the Year" awards . . . Little All-America QB at Centre . . . The 36-year-old native of Ft. Thomas is charged with making UK's offensive operations go.

DAVE HART (St. Vincent '50)—Newly assigned to the responsibility of defensive coach of the Wildcats, Hart is former highly-successful schoolboy tutor in Pennsylvania . . . Compiled 86-18-3 record in 11 years, last eight at Johnstown . . . The 37-year-old native of Conneville, Pa., was the state's AAA "Coach of the Year" in '58 . . . Invaluable recruiter.

GEORGE SENDEL (Kentucky '48)—Louisvillian Sengel's career as a Wildcat wingman overlapped that of Coach Bradshaw by a couple of years and his former teammate asked Sengel to stay on the staff he had joined in 1961 . . . The 40-year-old Air Force vet had nine years of coaching in schoolboy ranks in Florida and Kentucky prior to becoming UK end coach.

BUD MOORE (Alabama '61)—A 23-year-old Birmingham, Ala., native, Bud picked up his initial playing and coaching experience under Paul Bryant and Charlie Bradshaw at Alabama . . . He was a star end and tackle for the Tide in the 1958-60 period, served briefly as student assistant and coached one year at Gadsden (Ala.) High before joining Bradshaw staff at UK in 1962.

GEORGE BOONE (Kentucky '61)—One of the most determined players ever to wear the blue and white of UK, Boone started out on his own but soon won scholarship aid and became outstanding tackle . . . The 25-year-old Louisvillian stayed on Wildcat coaching staff in part-time role after completing eligibility in 1960, became regular coach following year and retained by Bradshaw as a line assistant.

RALPH HAWKINS (Maryland '57)—One of the most valuable coaches on the staff, Hawkins has background of collegiate and professional play plus coaching experience in both schoolboy and college ranks . . . The 28-year-old bachelor from Washington, D.C., was freshman coach at Maryland before joining New York Titans . . . Coached high school ball in D.C. and served as backfield assistant at SMU.

BILL JASPER (Tennessee '52)—A native Kentuckian from Somerset who traversed a route through enemy territory enroute to joining the Wildcats, Jasper is former star linebacker at Tennessee . . . Joined the Bradshaw staff in 1962 with successful record for 10 years' work in Kentucky and Tennessee high schools . . . Supervises gridders' academic program . . . 34 years old.

JIM CARMODY (Tulane '56)—Newest addition to the Bradshaw staff, Carmody transfers allegiance from alma mater Tulane where he was an outstanding center and later (1961-62) an assistant coach . . . Coaching background of the 30-year-old New Orleans native also includes three-season stint at Holy Cross and championship year with Army team in Korea . . . Works with UK freshmen.

RAY CALLAHAN (Kentucky '56)—A newcomer to the staff but no stranger in Kentucky grid circles, 30-year-old former UK guard standout Callahan enters the collegiate field for the first time after successful high school career . . . The Lebanon native capped fourth season as head coach at Danville High by winning state AA title in 1962 and picking up personal honor as AA "Coach of the Year."

Athletics At Kentucky

Kentucky's athletic program, a well-balanced and ambitious activity featuring inter-collegiate competition in nine different sports, is organized under the Department of Athletics and a corporation known as the University of Kentucky Athletics Association.

The program is conducted without overemphasis or sacrifice of educational objectives and in strict compliance with the rules of the University, the Southeastern Conference and the National Collegiate Association.

A board of directors, headed by University President John W. Oswald in the capacity of chairman, maintains overall policy supervision of the athletic program. Ex-officio members, in addition to the president, include Dr. Leo M. Chamberlain, Dr. W. L. Matthews in the capacity of secretary to the board, and a student representative—all appointed by the president. Twelve other men, drawn from the University faculty and the general public, also serve on the board as appointees of the president.

Supervising the steady growth and balanced development of one of the nation's top athletic programs is Bernie A. Shively, a former Illinois grid All-American and a veteran of 25 years in the post of Director of Athletics.

The Association's Board of Directors is composed of the following:

Dr. John W. Oswald, Chairman
Dr. W. L. Matthews, Jr., Secretary
James B. Allen
Dr. Ralph Angelucci

Let your next match start
you on a change of pace.

You'll be striking up a lasting friendship, too. You'll discover Robt. Burns Cigarillos are just different enough to provide a stimulating change of pace. Size it up. The Cigarillo is not so long you need a lunch hour to enjoy it. Not too long. Not too short. Just the right size. Just the right mildness, too. Cigarillo's fine blend of tobaccos sees to that. It's mild but full of flavor—the kind of flavor you don't have to inhale to enjoy. Change of pace. Peace of mind. Only 5¢ each. Remember, if it's not a Robt. Burns, it's not the Cigarillo.

KENTUCKY vs. DETROIT

Playing Two Weeks From Tonight on Stoll Field
(Next Week the Wildcats Will Be Meeting Auburn on the Road)

FACTS ABOUT THE TITANS

Coach—John Idzik (Maryland '51) 1 Year at UD—Won 1, Lost 8

1962 Record—Won 1, Lost 8

Last Year's Score—UK won 27-8 at Detroit

Series—Kentucky leads, 2-0

Chief Losses—QB Jerry Gross, Ends John Lower and Tom Bolz, C Tom Arrowsmith

Top Returnees—Fullback Fred Beier, Guard Bob Koval, Center Dennis Shaw

Sophs to Watch—Tom Zientek, QB; Larry Dressell and Ted Collins, Tackles; Dave Vitalli, G; Bob Burghardt, HB

Outlook—Despite the major loss of one of the nation's leading passers, Jerry Gross, Detroit Coach John Idzik enters his second year at the Titan helm hopeful of an improved season. Optimism is based on the surprising showing of some sophomores in spring workout and the prospect of a solution to the depth problem of 1962. The most likely replacement for Gross seems to be promising soph Tom Zientek, whom Idzik classes as a fine passer and excellent runner. Detroit plans to play a different type of ball in '63 with defense and the running attack stressed more. Much of the Titan offense is due to be built around 195 pound junior fullback Fred Beier, number two ground gainer (4.2) behind graduated Vic Barrini.

MEET THE "KITTENS"

BARTLEY

BRITTON

RODGER BARTLEY—This 5-11, 206 pounder from Springfield, Ohio, earned five varsity letters in football while playing for Springfield South High . . . His versatility is testified to by the fact that he played fullback, center, guard, tackle, and defensive end—mastering all positions . . . In 1960, he led his team to the Greater Ohio League Championship, and at the close of his senior year of play he was named first team All-State.

MIKE BEIRNE—Beirne began his football career at 11 years of age by playing on the famous McKeesport (Pa.) "Little Tigers", who posted a five-year undefeated record . . . Boasts good size for a lineman at 6-1 and 195 . . . "He has the speed, ability, and toughness that we're looking for," remarked Head Coach Charlie Bradshaw . . . Performing as a guard on offense and a line backer on defense, Beirne guided McKeesport High to a 9-1 record his senior year.

DON BRIGGS—At 5-11 and 220 pounds, Briggs has the credentials to be a top-flight lineman for the Big Blue in the coming seasons . . . He is the first product from Washington, D. C., to play football at UK . . . Alternating between guard and tackle for the St. John's Cadets he guided his team to the Catholic League Championship in 1962 with a 7-1-1 record.

DON BRITTON—Averaging 5.4 yards per carry while performing for Marple-Newton High School in Broomall, Pa., Britton sparked his team to a 7-1-1 record . . . His exceptionally good speed and aggressiveness earned him honors as the league's top linebacker . . . Coach Charlie Bradshaw comments "He's truly an SEC-type linebacker . . . Britton starred in baseball as well, batting at a .389 clip and winning most valuable player honor in the American Legion League in 1962.

JOHNNY CAIN—A native of Cumberland, Johnny follows in the footsteps of his brother Ronnie who was a fine end at UK . . . Behind his excellent running and passing, Cumberland High School surged to the Cumberland Valley Conference championship . . . As a member of the All-Cumberland Valley Conference team three years in a row, he was selected second team All-State his senior year when he scored 13 touchdowns and passed for four more.

JOSEPH CARROLL—Joe, who has a twin brother Mike also on his way to UK, checks in at 5-10 and 190 pounds . . . One of thirteen boys to sign from the Keystone State, he hails from Sharon Hill, Pa. . . . Carroll filled the fullback slot while playing for Msgr. Bonner High School (while his twin brother operated at halfback) . . . He averaged 4.1 yards per carry his senior year, and hung up a time of 10.3 seconds in the 100-yard dash.

MIKE CASSITY—One of two football standouts on the freshman squad from Xenia, Ohio, Cassity stands 6-2 and weighs 190 . . . His aggressiveness and determination were instrumental in guiding his team to the Miami Valley League Championship his senior year with an 8-2 slate . . . It is the opinion of the Wildcat coaching staff that Cassity's excellent lateral quickness will make him a good defensive flankman as well as a top-notch pass receiver.

GARY COLDREN—This highly-sought-after Keystone star comes to UK from Uniontown, Pa., where he played his high school football . . . Operating as an offensive tackle and a defensive end, he helped guide his school to a 10-0 record and the Western Pa. Championship in 1962 . . . An All-Conference selection in football, Coldren also starred in track—running the 100-yard dash in 10.2 seconds and the 440-yard dash in 50.8.

All-America Game—Showcase of the Stars

With the first three games now sports history, the East-West All-America Game has established itself as one of the nation's great gridiron classics.

The nationally televised game, played in Buffalo, N. Y. each June, was founded by the American Football Coaches Association. The object is to bring together the 60 best college players in the country, who have been graduated that year, to participate in one great football game.

By selecting a date in June, after graduation and before the start of pro football training, there is no interference with other bowl games or college studies.

The All-America Game is truly the Showcase of the Stars. There is no other game, in any city at any time of the year, that can boast so many football greats from college graduation classes.

From this "baby of bowl games," sponsored by the American Football Coaches Association and The Buffalo Evening News, have come the young men who have written pro football headlines.

Out of the first game in 1961, won by the West 30-20, came Marv Luster, UCLA end who was voted the most valuable player overshadowing such stars as Navy's Joe Bellino, winner of the Maxwell and Heisman Trophies and generally chosen as Player of the Year; Earl Faison, now with the San Diego Chargers; Danny LaRose, Missouri end who made it at tackle with the Detroit Lions; Pitt's Mike Ditka, who became the NFL's pro rookie of the year.

Luster, who signed with the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Big Four and became an All-League selection his first pro year, caught six passes for 120 yards, scoring one touchdown. Washington's Bob Schloredt passed for one for the West.

Wake Forest's Norm Snead started at quarterback for the East but Georgia's Fran Tarkenton threw three touchdown passes when he took over. Tarkenton, of course, went on to become regular quarterback for the Minnesota Vikings in his rookie pro year, while Snead did the same for the Washington Redskins.

Jim Owens of Washington and Murray Warmath of Minnesota, whose teams played in the Rose Bowl game that year, handled the West in the inaugural.

W.W. "Woody" Hayes
Ohio State
President, AFCA

Rip Engle of Penn State and Bill Murray of Duke ran the East.

The next year, Woody Hayes, Ohio State's stern taskmaster, headed the East coaching staff, which included Murray again and Ben Schwartzwalder of Syracuse.

Warmath was in command of the West, with Jack Mollenkopf of Purdue and John Ralston of Utah State as his aides.

Hayes' OSU star, Bob Ferguson, who went on to the Pittsburgh Steelers, was the Most Valuable Player in the East's 13-8 victory. He was the heavy-duty ball-carrier in Hayes' crunching ground game and climaxed his night by sprinting 38 yards off tackle for the winning touchdown.

Roman Gabriel of North Carolina State, now with the Los Angeles Rams, directed another 44-yard scoring drive, going over himself, but one of his passes was intercepted and run back 70 yards by Minnesota's Tom Hall for the West touchdown.

From that game came Gabriel, quarterback for the Los Angeles Rams; Sandy Stephens, Minnesota quarterback, who joined Luster at Montreal and earned an All-Star berth; Nick Buoniconti, Notre Dame lineman who was the AFL's best rookie linebacker with the Boston Patriots.

This year, the Coach-of-the-Year, John McKay, who guided Southern California to the national championship and victory in the Rose Bowl, was in charge of the West, with Frank Broyles of Arkansas and Bob Devaney of Nebraska as assistants.

Milt Bruhn, coach of Wisconsin's Big Ten champions, headed the East coaching staff, which also included Murray and Charlie McClendon of Louisiana State.

Bill Nelsen, quarterback of Southern California's 1962 champions played all but 35 seconds in directing the West to a 22-21 upset victory. He fired two touchdown passes and a two-point conversion, which actually decided the game.

Washington State's Hugh Campbell, caught eight of Nelsen's passes, two of them for touchdowns and was voted the MVP honor.

Notre Dame's Daryle Lamonica, who completed 6 of 9 passes for 109 yards, combined with speedy Willie Richardson of Jackson State for the game's picture play, a 24-yard touchdown pass.

These were the stars of the 1962 college season. Like the numerous All-Americas of the two previous years, The American Football Coaches All-America Game may be their springboard to professional fame and fortune.

— Boosting the Wildcats to Success —

That old axiom which suggests an army travels on its stomach never had a more appropriate twist than it gets in the modern day world of sports.

Equally popular as a truism is the statement that declares successful athletic teams are "boosted" to the top—a reference to the all-important help within the strict bounds of official rules given by various interested organizations such as the ones represented by the photographs.

University of Kentucky athletic officials—Director of Athletics Bernie Shively and members of the coaching staffs—as well as the young men who are either team members or prospective Wildcats sincerely appreciate the public-spirited assistance given in particular by the Lexington Quarterback Club, UK Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, K-Men's Association and the Lexington Salesmen's Club.

The makeup of these groups includes businessmen and private citizens of the University community who voluntarily donate of their valuable time and effort on a year-around basis to promote and handle other non-coaching assignments ranging from the actual selling of tickets to making the high-type athletes feel that they have a home away from home while playing for the Wildcats.

K MEN'S ASSOCIATION—Newest of the organizations giving active support to the Wildcat cause is this club composed of former Kentucky athletes in all sports who were awarded at least one varsity "K" letter during their careers at the University. Directing the activities of the combined K Men's Association are Frank Seale (center), president and former football letterman; Dick Rushing (left), secretary and also an ex-footballer; and Carl (Hoot) Combs, treasurer who participated in both football and basketball as a Wildcat.

SALESMEN'S CLUB—One of the long-time supporters of the University of Kentucky athletic program is the Lexington Salesmen's Club, represented by the group picture. Current officers of the organization, which assists annually in the sale of season football tickets, are W. Barry Foster, president; Ed Williams, first vice-president; Thurmon Measel, second vice-president; Delmar Penny, secretary; D. S. Hollman, treasurer; and Charley Thompson, sergeant-at-arms.

1952—KENTUCKY 13, MISSISSIPPI 13

Entering the game a heavy underdog to the talent-rich Mississippi Rebels, Kentucky's out-manned Wildcats thrilled their home folks with superbly executed offensive maneuvers and defensive play that almost pulled off a startling upset before settling for a 13-all tie.

UK turned back an Ole Miss drive at the one-foot line in the opening period only to see the visitors come right back on an 89-yard drive in the next segment to score and chalk up a second touchdown late in the third quarter.

Discouragingly behind 13-0, Kentucky didn't give up. In the final stanza, the UK line jarred loose the ball from the OM quarterback and Ray Correll covered the key fumble. On the next play, Larry (1B) Jones sneaked over from the one. The PAT try failed.

Minutes later, Jones spotted All-America end Steve Meilinger behind the defense and hit him with a perfect aerial. Big Steve outraced defending backs to the end zone. Having struck twice in less than six minutes, the 'Cats trailed by only one point. This time, despite a bad center snap, the kick split the uprights.

With the count knotted at 13-13, the fight had just begun. Ole Miss came storming back. The Kentucky line held. A Rebel field goal try failed. Then, with only 13 seconds left, OM tried a desperation pass that UK's Joe Platt intercepted on his 23 and raced goalward—only to be knocked out of bounds around the OM 20 as the horn sounded in one of the most thrilling series games on record.

1950—KENTUCKY 27, MISSISSIPPI 0

Hard as it might be to believe when comparing the modern-day counterparts, Kentucky's Wildcats—enroute to their first SEC title and Sugar Bowl conquest—registered a decisive victory over Mississippi for the second straight year as they tallied a 27-0 decision in Lexington.

The charges of Coach Paul (Bear) Bryant took only four and one-half minutes to score after taking the opening kick-off. Fullback Bill Leskovar signalled events to come by plunging over from the one climaxing a sustained drive.

A short time later, Kentucky surged to a second touchdown as All-America quarterback candidate Babe Parilli sneaked over from the one yard stripe to climax an 80-yard march. Parilli's passing to end Al Bruno had set up the TD.

In the second quarter, guard Bill Wannamaker recovered a Rebel fumble and the Kentuckians turned it into a third tally with the aid of a pass from Parilli to Dom Fucci and a three-yard run by Cliff Lawson. UK led, 20-0, at the half.

For insurance, the Wildcats tacked on a fourth and final touchdown early in the second half. Parilli, who participated in just two plays after intermission, connected with end Ben Zaranka for the marker.

Kentucky reserves battled Ole Miss on fairly even terms the rest of the way and protected the lead perfectly.

1946—KENTUCKY 20, MISSISSIPPI 6

Despite a bad case of "fumblitis" that harrassed their cause much of the afternoon, Kentucky's Wildcats pleased their Lexington partisans with a hard-earned, 20 to 6, victory over visiting Mississippi and took a 2-1 lead in the new rivalry.

Three times, the Wildcats had drives halted inside the Ole Miss 20-yard line because of fumbles. Once they were as deep as the 12-yard line with a first down situation when the Rebels pounced on the loose ball to end the threat.

Miscues notwithstanding, Kentucky got yeoman performances out of many players and carried the fight to Ole Miss throughout the contest. Neither contingent could break loose convincingly until midway of the second period when UK halfback Ben Heinzinger snatched off a Rebel pass and returned it to the Mississippi 31. Ermal Allen and Don (Dopey) Phelps punched it up to the 20 and then quarterback Phil Cutchin hit Wallace (Wah Wah) Jones in the end zone for the first score.

UK intercepted an OM pass shortly after the next kick-off and inched the ball to the 13 before resorting to the air for the TD that came on a second chance after two of the visitors were ejected for roughness.

Ole Miss came back strong to score via the air and Kentucky added another marker late in the game after a sensational, 92-yard kickoff return gave possession at the six.

Research on Upswing at UK as Facilities Increase

Research—both on graduate and professional levels—is now well entrenched at the University. Projects having a dollar volume of over $6.2 million are underway.

This year's research program is the largest in the history of UK and it is expected to expand in 1964. Federal grants and contracts, industrial funds and University allocations are supporting projects in the life and physical sciences, medicine, dentistry, pharmacy, engineering, agriculture and the social sciences.

The major additions to the research program this year were the opening of the new Chemistry-Physics Building and the purchase of a 5.5 million volt nuclear accelerator.

The Agricultural Science Center under construction will become another important research facility at the University.

ADOLPH RUPP

KENTUCKY BASKETBALL 1963-64

COTTON NASH
LARRY CONLEY

Cagey Adolph Rupp didn't acquire his reputation as the nation's most successful basketball coach by "singing the blues," but the usually optimistic Baron of the Blue Grass is frankly fearful that his 34th edition of Kentucky Wildcats could go to the post with "possibly the poorest outlook for a winning season since I have been coaching."

Such uncharacteristic pessimism is truly bad news for the team that is acknowledged as the winningest collegiate cage outfit in history, but it also could be a good sign.

Just a year ago, the veteran Kentucky mentor freely predicted a banner season to compare favorably with the great years of the past. But the "roof caved in" as a variety of troubles dogged the Wildcats all season long, resulting in the poorest record of the Rupp era—a 16-9 count.

While loyal Kentuckians are hopeful that seven returning lettermen—headed by two-time All-American Cotton Nash and 1963 Most Valuable Player Ted Deeken—can lead the way to a better campaign than Rupp anticipates, the questions revolving around a short-handed roster are many, varied and serious.

Perhaps the biggest key to the type of season Kentucky has is Nash. Although he notched points at a 20.6 clip last season and repeated on some All-America selections, he disappointingly fell off the sensational pace started during a terrific sophomore break-in year when he led the SEC in scoring. Deeken, whose supreme "fireman" efforts in the closing stages of last season saved many a game and won him MVP honors, represents another major question: "Can he turn in a consistently good contribution as a season-long starter?"

Charles (Chili) Ishmael, 6-4½ guard standout, looms ready to make a big contribution as a long-range threat if he can pick up where he left off (due to scholastic troubles) late last season.

Still other questions revolve around the potential of a trio of highly-regarded sophomores—6-3 forward Larry Conley, 6-5 guard Tommy Kron, and 6-2 forward Mickey Gibson. It is unknown if these soph hot shots can take up the scoring slack and perform with the poise of veterans without the benefit of experience.

It's obvious that Coach Rupp bases his fear on the possibility that all of these questions will not be answered satisfactorily.

The schedule offers no solace, either, with a danger-plagued road littered with seven tough non-conference tests, play in two tournaments and league competition stacking in as possibly the strongest in history.

All problems considered, the prospects for success coming easy in 1963-64 to Kentucky's amazing basketweavers are not rosy—at least not outwardly. But there is a sneaky suspicion afoot, well-founded by past experience, that "Uncle Adolph" will have his Blue Grass bouncers jumping before the campaign is too far along.
