

A. M. College of Ky.,

Lexington, Feb. 2, 1894.

Class-marching The Faculty met at 8:30 a.m., at the call of the President. The matter of class-marching was informally discussed, as to ways and means of putting it into effect. Col. Clay requested from each teacher a roll of his class.

Report of By-laws & Reg. for Fac. Prof. White, Chairman of Com. on By-laws and Regulations for the Faculty, made his report. (No. 6, file B.) The report was received, but final consideration was postponed until a hearing could be given to a Com. from the College Literary Societies, requesting leave for the Societies to enter against the Oratorical Contests of the Ky. Colleges. After receiving the petition, the Faculty adopted, by a small vote, with no dissent, the report of Prof. White's Committee.

Request to enter Oratorical Contest

A motion to grant the request of the ^{Literary} Societies was made and discussed, but final action was postponed to Tuesday, Feb. 6, 1894.

A motion was carried to direct the Sec'y. to collect and preserve the various resolutions offered in Faculty meetings. Adjourned, to meet Feb. 6, 1894.

Approved, Feb. 6, 1894.

James K. Patton

R. M. Roark, Sec'y.

State College of Kentucky,
Lexington, Feb. 2, 1894.

The Faculty met at 8:30 a.m., at the call of the President. The matter of class marching was Class marching informally discussed, as to ways and means of putting it into effect. Col. Clay requested of each teacher a roll of his class.

Prof. J. B. White, Chairman of Committee on Report of By-Laws and Regulations of the Faculty, made Com. on By- his report - laws of Fac- (see p. 55) The report was received, ulty. but final consideration was postponed until a hearing could be given to a Committee from the College Literary Societies, Application requesting leave for the Societies again to of Lit. Soc. enter the Oratorical Association of Ky. Col- to enter Or- leges. After receiving this petition, the Fac- atorical Con- ulty adopted, by a small vote, with no dis- test movd. sent, the report of Prof. White's Committee on Faculty By-laws, &c.

A motion to grant the request of the Literary Societies to be allowed to take part in the Intercollegiate Oratorical Contests, was discussed, but final action was postponed to Tuesday, Feb. 6, 1894.

A motion was carried to direct the Secretary of the Faculty to collect and preserve the various resolutions offered in Faculty meetings.

Adjourned, to meet Feb. 6, 1894.

Approved Feb. 6/94.

Jos. K. Patterson
President,
—

R. M. Roark, Sec'y.