What Goes On There...

By Helen Carroll Tommy Dorsey is expected to play at the 1944 Junior Prom at the University of Cincinnati. Since Dorsey is appearing the week of March 3 at the Albee Theater, he has agreed to play also for the prom. Some schools have all the luck.

A riotous weekend seems in the offing for UK's riotously inclined. Both big cities will be swarming with students as T. Dorsey plays in Cincinnati and the Wildcats play in Louisville. At least four-thirds of the student population will leave this campus Friday afternoon

The Fighters Want To Vote

After months of wrangling over the soldier-vote problem, the two houses of Congress have finally reached a compromise which would enfranchise our service men and women.

Letters from other men and women in uniform pointed out that servicemen are under the same obligation to exercise the franchise as civilians.

Coed Corner...

By Mary Jane Gallaher

This column's fame is growing by leaps and bounds—the letter from some more of my readers in Jewell hall was very much appreciated, because as you know constructive criticism is always helpful. Don't you think so, girls? And constructive criticism should always be taken with good grace and in the spirit in which it was meant. True? True?

But you made a slip-up on several points in your letter, girls, which cause it to be almost too humorous to be taken seriously. The authors of the letters to which you refer in your epistle wish that you were informed that they not only wash their own windows, but scrub the walls and floors as well. Would you like to soil your dainty white hands by doing likewise? Just washing windows in your room (the first two pages only, I take it) makes it sound rather dirty all you rather weak in comparison.

Entreprising Girls

This column thinks it is wonderful that there are such enterprising girls in Jewell hall who wash their own windows. In fact, we'd like to reward the first two window-washers to arrive at The Kernel office before 2 o'clock with two lollipops each with these in hand you may parade past the Army with a permanent commission to wash windows on the elevator in Jewell hall of the First National Bank building. Also please bring with you a short paper on why the University doesn't have your windows cleaned as it is supposed to, and the answer to the question, "Are you planning to do what you earn as janitor in Jewell hall from your income tax return?"

"Tobacco Reader" and "Buddies" with me to accept your kind invitation for four through the dorms, girls, and they would like to know what they are to wear and what time they shall come? They request that you know the rules of the institution in which you will not and blame them when, after this little excursion a letter from the dean arrives in your mailbox and ask that you remove yourselves and your window washing equipment from the University.

Teeth Inspection

This is the time of year, although I hate to be the one to remind you all of it, to make a teeth appointment and go to have your teeth inspected. Your shining, we hope, molars should have a check-up at least every six months, and oftener if they tend towards softness, to catch tooth decay before it becomes serious. Since you will never get another set, or at least one that doesn't have to be put in a glass of water at night, you can't take too much trouble to

Frances Bell Elected KKG President For Coming Year

Frances Bell, Winchester and Nashville, Tenn., was installed as the new president for the coming year of Beta Chi chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority Wednesday night at the installation ceremony which were held at 7:15 in the chapter house.

Other officers elected were Ruth Dimock, Lexington, standards chairman; Brewer Phelps, Cloverport, treasurer; Georjanna Moss, Winchester, recording secretary; Ann Carter Felix, Louisville, corresponding secretary; Elizabeth Dosker, Louisville, registrar; Margery Freeman, Lexington, scholarship chairman; Mary Ann Starnard, Huntington, W. Va., efficiency chairman.

Lipstick Color

Your lipstick may affect the color of your teeth. An orange lip shade causes a yellowish light and makes teeth appear yellow, while a dark blue-red lipstick makes them appear whiter. Bright-red lips show off good-looking teeth. Rosy-red is the best choice for teeth that are not so pretty as they might be. Stained teeth may sometimes be improved by the use of a light paste or powder on a piece of clean gauze. Rub with this. Never use anything harsher or you may injure the enamel. Also brushing once in a while with peroxide will help both the gums and the whiteness of the teeth.

Kappas To Entertain Faculty At Open House

Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority will entertain from 7 to 9 p. m. Friday at the chapter house in honor of members of the University faculty.

In receiving line will be Mrs. Walker P. Reed, housemother; Frances Bell, president; Ruth Dimock, chairman; and the standard committee and in charge of arrangements for the open house; and Margery Freeman, chairman of the scholarship committee.

Our Own ASTP

U. S. Army shoe lace instructions proceed through our own ASTP unit and those throughout the country involve fourteen quite intricate movements and instructions.

The first step is to raise the shoe from the floor with the thumb and forefinger, place the lower part of the heel between the inside of the knees and clasp the inner firmly together. This position is known as the Position of the Soldier Prepared to Assemble the Shoe Lace. One must be quite careful that the laces are not clasped too tightly for drastic results are sure to incur.

The next order is to remove the thumb and forefinger from the shoe. All beginners must guard against misinterpretation of this phrase for we refuse to accept any responsibility for lost appendages.

SEA FOOD dishes are a specialty of ours now that the Lent season has begun. We serve fish, shrimp, clams, crab meat, oysters and lobsters.

Closest proximity to the toe of the shoe, in such a manner that it will completely penetrate the same.

This operation is continued until the third from last eyelet (pardon the civilian slang) is reached. Then one must insert the right foot into the right shoe (no relation to shoe, baby or our Wilbur) after releasing the shoe from its clamped position between the knees. This release is highly essential unless one is a believer of entangling allians.

Toes Unclear

After the right foot has been fully inserted into the right shoe so that the bottom or sole of the right foot is in contact with the bottom of the shoe, with toes uncurled, extended and joined (this is a lesson for all of you who insist on wearing your shoes with toes unjoined), the above operations are continued until all of the reinforced circular locking eyelets of the shoe have been penetrated, and locking the shoe to remain within the shoe during the said operation. 'Cats 'Get Hot' In Second Half To Beat Ohio U, 51-35

Tingle Turns In Smooth Game For Blue Team

Highlighted by the smooth play of Jack Tingle, dubbed by The Lexington Herald as the "Bedford Bomber," Kentucky's Wildcats got hot in the second half last Saturday night and racked up their fourteenth win against one loss. Defeating the Ohio university Bobcats 51-35, Rupp's boys ended the regular season and began to look ahead to SEC time.

On top in the opening minutes by as much as 10-2 and 17-12, the Bobcats faltered at the half trailing 21-20, only to rally after intermission and tie it up at 21-21. After that point the Cats' advantage in height and weight began to take effect. The Ohio club was faster and fresher, but tired during the last few minutes, and then the Cats' long shots began to hit.

Earlier in the game the Wildcats shooting offensive failed for the all-game average was a 237 one, aging 19 shooters out of 80 attempts. The Ohio boys' record was nearly identical, a 242 percentage with 11 fielders out of 45 counting for markers. The Cats' outscored the Ohioans by 30-15 in the second frame, but the Bobcats were better at the foul line, missing only four of 17 attempts while the Wildcats missed eight out of 21.

As Kentucky led 26-23 in the first few minutes of the last half, Bob Brannan, with seven points on the court, fouled out. Vulich substituted and then Travis DeMosey came in to play a good defensive game and to score four points. High-point Jack Tingle was undisturbed star of the game, though Jack Packinson, who scored 12 points on long shots, played an excellent game as well.

The Bobcats lost Maldozen and Brandle in the second minute, which handicapped them seriously. Bobcat scoring was distributed, with Mackey at nine, Mark Wylie at seven, and Maldozen and Mores-

Rampaging Wildcats

look at one record is pretty overwhelming. The Cats have averaged game to game 52 points per game to a fraction more than 35 for the opposition. They scored over 60 points in four of their 15 encounters, and their closest shave, except for the two-point loss to Illinois, was a 58-54 thriller over Notre Dame in Louisville, January 8.

If Georgia Tech and Kentucky clash in the finals, spectators in the Jefferson County Armory will see civilians against Naval trainees. Rupp's freshmen and sophomores are a hardworking, enthusiastic lot, and thus far that enthusiasm has pulled through in 15 games, aided by height, shooting accuracy, and the Rupp-coached technique.

Prediction Made

As The Kernel goes to press, the Thursday night life has been played, but it seems safe to predict that Kentucky will emerge victorious over Georgia, and Georgia Tech over Vanderbilt. In the first semifinal tonight Georgia Tech will meet Tulane, and Kentucky will meet LSU, the other team with a bye. Finals will be played at 8 Saturday.

Kentucky has won the crown 6 times in 12 years: 1933, 35, 37, '39, '40 and '41. Tennessee won in 1941 and 1943 but has abandoned basketball this year, thus depriving Kentucky of an opportunity for revenge.

From The Bleachers

By BETTY TEVIS

Diverting interlude in the game Saturday night was the parading of those gallant gals, the K-Dets, who spend an hour every Tuesday and Thursday drilling. And good they were too as they marched through the "Wildcat" in a precision that would have made drillser John Dallavo proud. Wearing white shirts, navy skirts and blue overcas caps, they paraded with smooth assurance. Neat in their officers uniforms were Marge Palmore, Camilla Weathers, Betty McClanahan, Marian Yates, and Esther Nevitt.

President H. Lee Donovan looked happy, beaming with child-like joy at the girls as they executed those neat military moves. With a pride like that of a three-year-old showing off a new rattle, he turned to fans at his right and left and grinned, as if to say "Those are MY students." Comptroller Frank Peterson looked distantly amused.

Poor Athletic Director Bernie Shively, while racing down the basketball floor last week at a high school game, tripped and, as the Herald-Leader put it, "spanked the hardwood." Why don't columnists and newspapers squelch life's little embarrassing moments, anyhow?

1,000 is a terrific free throw average—in fact, it's perfection. And UK has, or had such a boy with such a average. That was Craven, now in the "armed forces." He played in one game; he attempted two free throws; he made both.

Average for the team up to, and not including Saturday's game, is .637. Statistical minds please note: The Wildcats have tossed in 149 free throws in 234 attempts. Highest average is Buis, with 9 out of 10 attempts. Big Bob Brannan netted 42 out of 60 for the score of .700. Total points for Brannan, Wildcat big man, 196. Next is Tingle at 104.

Tingle leaps like a gazelle when he jumps and shoves one of those shots through the hoop. It's amazing to watch those long strides carry him down the floor as they did in the Ohio University game. Tingle (it was hardly incidental Saturday night) was high point man with seven markers.

More dope on the National Invitational Tourney opening in Madison Square Garden in late March—DePaul University of Chicago, with 18 wins and three losses, and Muhlenberg of Allentown, Pa., with a 20 and three record have been entered. Already Oklahoma A & M, Kentucky, Utah, and St. Johns' of Brooklyn have signed, and two berths remain to be filled.

Sant—Ex Dan Van Sant, of Mt. Vernon, former agriculture student and ASTP student stationed at the University is now in officers training at Fort Benning, Ga.
Kammerer—Ex Air Wac Cpl. Florine O. Kammerer has been promoted to sergeant at Women's Army Corps at Army Air Forces Tactical Center, Orlando, Fla.

Appropriation Made For Field House

Appropriation of $600,000 for the University field house was made by the Kentucky General Assembly Friday in a reversal of an earlier decision to eliminate the fund from the budget.

Kentucky's all-time state budget bill was approved after the House had tacked on the sum and passed the measure, 77-48.

Only Homer E. Losey, West Democrat, sponsored the amendment and pointed out that the $600,000 was appropriated two years ago but went back into the general fund when it could not be spent.

Rep. E. F. Prichard, Paris Democrat, said that he had been supplied with figures showing that there would be a daily need for facilities of the building.

Musicales Is 'Well-Rounded'

By Casey Goman

Kappa chapter of Phi Beta, fine arts fraternity, presented a finished and professional concert Sunday at Memorial hall. The program, presented by music majors in the group, was well-rounded and exact as to detail.

Joan Akers, organist, opened the program with the Bach Toccata and Fugale in D minor, which she played with brilliance and technical sureness.

Lucille Haney, contralto, displayed richness of tone and beautiful interpretation in her group of three songs, and especially in Love Has Eyes, by Bishop.

Mildred Buchanan, pianist, played Beethoven's Allegro molto e con brio, from the Sonata, Opus 10, No. 1, in a very competent manner, with a solid tone. The effect was dramatic.

Anita Hoos, soprano, exhibited a beautiful stage manner. She sang with nice feeling, and her Schumann was particularly good.

Helen Lipscomb, pianist, received an ovation for her rendition of Debussy's Jardins sous la pluie, which requires an exacting technique and spectacular treatment.

Mabel Gumm, violinist, played the familiar Liebestreu by Kreisler with sureness.

Ruth Pace, pianist, gave her Schumann number a lovely interpretation. The Scherzo, Griffes, was a clever piece beautifully done, with great clarity of tone.

Betsy Simpson, soprano, displayed richness of tone and gave her selection a dramatic interpretation.

Ruth Pace, Mildred Buchanan, and Beth Caddy did a fine job with the accompaniments. Each played excellently.

Rannels To Speak To Phi Beta Group

Professor Edward W. Rannels will speak to the members of Phi Beta at 4:30 p.m. March 6, in the music room of the Union building on the subject, Demands of the Arts and Graces. Rannels is a patron of Phi Beta.

All pledges, actives and petrone of Phi Beta have been invited to attend, it was announced.
