LS/2000 USERS GROUP SPRING MEETING

The Spring meeting of the LS/2000 Users Group will be held April 17-20 at OCLC and at the Stouffer Dublin Hotel in Dublin, OH. The meeting will include reports from the Local Systems Department, an update on Release E, information on the next major system release and other issues of interest to LS/2000 users.

On Sunday, April 17, conference participants will have the opportunity to tour libraries in the Columbus area using LS/2000: Ohio Wesleyan University Library, Grove City Public Library, Columbus State Community College Educational Resources Center, and the OCLC Library.

Further information is available in the GB office.

LSO NEWS

LSO would like to remind its members that there is still time to bring in books to be sold on the LSO tables at the annual book sale in April. Many members have already done so. Books may be brought to the Bindery Unit where they will be stored until the day of the sale.

So far this year LSO has 43 members, an increase over last year. It is still possible to join by paying your $5 annual dues to Kathy Martin in the Reference Department.

FIRE ALARM TEST

Fire alarms will be tested on Tuesday, April 5, in King North and South. This is the regular monthly test.

APPALACHIAN CENTER 10TH ANNUAL CELEBRATION

The University of Kentucky's Appalachian Center is holding a tenth anniversary celebration on Friday, April 15. Celebration activities at the UK Student Center include lectures, displays by regional community groups, a luncheon program, Appalshop films including "Long Journey Home" and "Harriet Simpson Arnow, 1908-1986," and a panel discussion. There will also be an evening concert featuring Marion Sumner and Lee Sexton at ArtsPlace, 161 N. Mill Street. All events are free and open to the public, with the exception of the luncheon ($5.50) and the concert/reception ($5.00).

Tickets for the luncheon and for the concert/reception may be purchased through the Appalachian Center, 641 S. Limestone. Concert tickets may also be purchased at the door. For more information, call the Appalachian Center at 7-4851.

BOOK SALE VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Volunteer help is needed for the annual Library Book Sale April 21-22 at Buell Armory. Help is needed in setting up on Thursday morning, cleaning up on Friday afternoon as well as for cashiers, book baggers and table stockers to work two-hour shifts during the sale. If you can volunteer to help with the sale, please call Paula Pope at 7-9401.

We also need your grocery bags for bagging materials purchased at the sale. If you would like to donate bags, bring them to the Director's Office, Paula Pope's office or to Collection Development.

PERSONALLY OWNED JOURNALS ROUTING SERVICE

Copies of the following titles will not be renewed for the Routing Service when their current subscriptions expire. (Most will expired with the December, 1988, issues.)

We are wondering if there are people on the library staff who might be willing to loan their personal copies of these, or other professional journals, to be used as routing copies so that we can continue the routing service, even on a limited basis.

Routing slips would be set up so that the issues would be returned to their owners after completing the routing cycle.

If you would be willing to loan your issues of the these titles, or other library-related journals, please fill out the form below and return it to Mary McLaren in Acquistions. We will get back in touch with you as to whether or not we'll need your copies and if we do, the date we will need to start getting them.

I would be willing to lend my personal issues of the following titles for the Library Journals Routing Project.

- American Libraries
- Chronicle of Higher Education
- College and Research Libraries
- Journal of Academic Librarianship
- Kentucky Libraries
- Library Journal
- Library Quarterly
- Library Resources and Technical Services
- Online
- Publisher's Weekly
- RQ
- Serials Librarian
- Serials Review
- Southeastern Librarian
- Special Libraries
- Unabashed Librarian
- Wilson Library Bulletin
