EMBREE GIVES BOOKS TO U. K.

Recent Convocation Speaker Presents Four of His Volumes to Library

Edwin R. Embree, representative and president of the Julius Rosenwald fund, recently contributed four of his works to the University Library as a gift from the Rosenwald fund. Mr. Embree addressed the student body and the faculty of the University at the October convocation and won the admiration and respect of all that heard him.

One edition is titled "Brown America," the story of the Negro by Mr. Embree and published by the Viking Press, New York. This comment was made by the author DuBois Heyward; "I think that Mr. Embree has done an extraordinary piece of work—the book is free from prejudice, so informative and so interestingly written that it is sure to make for a better understanding between the races of America."

Two others included in the gift are: "Island India Goes to School," co-authored of which are Mr. Embree, Margaree Stinson and W. Bryant Mumford, and was published by the University of Chicago Press; and "The College of the Future," written by Charles S. Johnson, Mr. Embree and W. W. Mumford, published by the University of North Carolina Press.

The fourth work is "Prospecting for Heaven," published by the Viking Press.

The fund is the condition of American negroes among other things. Mr. Rosenwald died January 6, 1932.

Miss Agnes Davis Featured Artist First of Series Next Sunday

Programs for the Sunday Afternoon musicals, which are given at 4 p. m. each Sunday afternoon during the months of November, December, January, February and March in the Memorial auditorium of the University, have been announced by Professor R. McIntyre, chairman of the committee in charge of these recitals.

The concerts are open to the public without charge and will last for one hour each.

Professor McIntyre recently returned from New York city where he was fortunate in securing a number of outstanding young American artists for these musicals. The University Symphony orchestra, under the direction of Professor Carl Lampert, the University Music orchestra, under the direction of John Lewis, Jr., the Men's Glee club and the Women's Glee club will each contribute programs to the members at 4 p. m. in room 111 McVey hall, next Tuesday. All members are urged to attend. Three absences make it necessary to drop names for the roll. In the event that members can not attend, a note will be accepted as an excuse. Plans for Amateur night will be completed.

Try outs are being conducted in Memorial hall, Mary Lyons, one of the most prominent actresses ever born in Lexington will hear the plays, and decide on the couples to compete on Amateur night.

The date for Amateur night will be changed, due to other events taking many interested people out of town. The date has been moved back a week, and is now slated as November 15, in Memorial hall at 8 o'clock.

The committee in charge of try-outs are well pleased with the number of persons who have desired to participate in the contests. There are even more than there were last year. It is planned to have a series of "Nights," not the Amateur night, but occasions on which plays will be given, free of charge, for the amusement of the members of the organization, and their friends. This plan will enable students to express themselves, and will again give to Strollers the undisputed title "student actor's center" of the University of Kentucky. Anyone with the desire to act will be heard, seen, and if at all possible, will earn a chance.

November 3—Agnes Davis, soprano, with John Shelby Richardson at the piano.

November 10—In a tonal string trio, Vladimir Hackett, piano, Leopold Stokowski, cello, and Ernest Hoffmann, piano.

November 17—Isa Brull, violinist, with Edward Harris at the piano.

THE KENTUCKY KERNEL

OFFICIAL NEWSPAPER OF THE STUDENTS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

MEMBER—Lexington Board of Commerce National College Press Association Kentucky Intercollegiate Press Association International News Service

HERE SHALL THE KERNEL ALL STUDENT RIGHTS MAINTAIN

LET'S SUPPORT THE TEAM

The Wildcats are at the crucial point in their schedule. Having dropped two of the five encounters, one to a particularly outstanding foe and the other to a surprisingly strong opponent, they are at the crossroads.

Since their defeat at the hands of a team that most sports writers doped Kentucky to beat, there has been a tendency on the part of many of the student body to more or less "lay down" on the team.

Now, when it most needs our support, is the time for all students to rally behind their representatives on the gridiron.

Those of us who cannot follow the team to Alabama should at least be at the station to see our charges off.

AUTOISTS AND THE GOLDEN RULE

THE KERNEL wishes to support other organs of public leadership in their campaign against mass murder on the highways.

Statistics show that the automobile has taken more lives than all wars in the nation's history.

Skid proof tires, shatter proof glass, safer road beds, elimination of grade crossings and bad curves are all helpful.

There is no such hell on earth as attending the funeral of a girl friend or loved one whose life was snuffed out as a result of your thoughtlessness or to pick up the body of a little child, whose image will remain always a vivid nightmare.

If the driver would think of the innocent before he puts the gas pedal even with the floor or mixes a death cocktail of "booze and gas," we could almost safely substitute the Golden Rule for traffic ordinances.

WHY EDITORS ARE SUSPICIOUS

If the newspaper reporter isn't too enthusiastic when you say you have some news, there's a reason. He wants to know whether it actually is news or something else.

Many organizations, both national and local, ask newspapers if some news would be acceptable. The editor or reporter is always glad to get news and answers in the affirmative.

But it isn't long until good old propaganda rears its head. The "news" turns out to be an exposition of the theories of the organization, a mild form of advertising to promote aims and objects, cleverly worded reasons why there should be more members.

Newspapers are usually generous in giving free publicity to worthwhile undertakings. But demands always far exceed what is reasonable.

Anyone worth his salt around a newspaper office knows the readers soon tire of this stuff. A few who are particularly interested in a certain organization or undertaking may read it, but 99 per cent of the subscribers hardly give it a glance.

New York University has received more than 10,000 books in the past few months through the activities of the Society for the Libraries.

agenda material. Consequently, editors and reporters are probably over-suspicious and like to find out if what is offered comes within shooting distance of the correct definition of news before they grab it.—Courier, Stafford, Kans.

BUSINESS IS BUSINESS

The greatest cause of business failure before the depression set in was incompetence, according to the official report of Bradstreet.

Then, if real business management was required to run a business and keep it going in good times, what must success call for now—days?

Bradstreet reported that in 1927 there were 20,267 business failures involving liabilities of $653,130,925. In seven years, 1921 to 1927, failures in this country totaled 140,450.

Operating a business in 1934 is different from operating it even in 1927 when the nation had more than 20,000 business failures.

Of course we all know that Bettie Bosworth has in her possession the pin of that red headed journalist, Sunny Day.

While in Montgomery, Alabama, Bob Davis sent both Nancy Dyer and Mary Letts all per card.

It has happened! Yep, Sunday night the great Caywood (Honey-Pantz to his friends) hooked his KA pin on none other than Manning "Boogah" Maddox.

There are thoughtful students of the subject who say that if war breaks out in Europe the United States cannot possibly stay out of it.

CAN WE STAY OUT?

And then, too, there are the economic aspects of the situation. There is money to be made in war. Trade along certain lines booms and men with money to lend are glad to get it in the hope of a rich return.

And the realities are not difficult to remember. They concern about 50,000 young men killed, 200,000 others more or less seriously wounded, a debt of twenty-two billion dollars of our own and oans of eleven billions to our allies.

When the editor tries to do something about it, he takes a chance on incurring the ill will of a few persons. They are likely to think the newspaper unfriendly just because the paper wants more news and less publicity and prop-

Hoi Polloi

After a rather riotous week-end we are back to dish the so called "Hoi Polloi" again.

This weeks roses go to that popular little Kappa piwette, Miss Doc Babbitt, Phil McGee and Bill Edmonds have been pestering you correspondents insisting that Doc is one of the keenest femmes at the University.

FLASH: Jane Hardwick, when asked what she thought of Ken Raynor, that flashy Delta Chi lad, replied, "I really go for him, and I do hope that I'm getting over my Umm! Is Ken giving you a break, Jane?"

Wonder why Bill Smith, the woman slayer (so he thinks), has been hanging around the Ohio house so much lately. Your guess is as good as ours, and we'll say that the reason is so that Bill may see more of that bundle of heterogeneous protoplasmic feminine pulchritude known as Kay Kennedy.

Of course we all know that Bettie Bosworth has in her possession the pin of that red headed journalist, Sunny Day. But we are betraying Bettie to tell you that she also has a Lambda Chi pin and an Alpha Sig pin.

While in Montgomery, Alabama, Bob Davis sent both Nancy Dyer and Mary Letts all per card. Now the girls are fighting with each other to see if they cannot decide just who is first in the line for the Kentucky lad who dashes by ten yard stripes as a train passes railroad ties.

It has happened! Yep, Sunday night the great Caywood (Honey-Pantz to his friends) hooked his KA pin on none other than Manning "Boogah" Maddox.

Joe Quinn says that he would rather spend his two bits for the Wednesday night dances on two and one half beers than for the privilege of stepping on a few pretty little number three or four shoes worn by our beautiful coeds.

Whose pin is Wilma Bush wearing? Virginia Young has a mouth that much resembles that of Claudette Colbert.

Vance has a palpitating heart for Joyce Wright. One of Bill Rodman's very good friends tells us that Bill thinks that he is the woman killer of the campus.

October 18, 1937 Stanley Smith, student in the College of Law, was the first of the student body to give his life in the World War.

October 26, 1937 "Hail, hail, the Cats are Neigh" and "Alma Mater", two new campus songs, were heard in chapel.

Kentucky's varsity footballers had their first real scrimmage since the Auburn game last Saturday when they met the frosh squad in what passed for a regulation game but what was really only a good work-out for both teams.

The varsity finished with 20 points, while the freshmen failed to tally or even threaten to count. In regards to the score, the game might just as well have terminated at the end of the first half for not a single point was made in the concluding session of the contest which went 40 minutes.

Bert Johnson, Stan Nevers and Sam Potter of the varsity and Earl Sands, frosh luminary, failed to see any action. In fact, Johnson and Sands were not even present for the affair.

The game itself was a slugfest... played contest, with the varsity showing just enough scoring power to keep out of danger. Bob Davis scored first when he dashed through left tackle and over the goal line from the 20-yard mark. Elmore "Red" Simpson scored the second marker when he went over tackle from the five-yard line at the start of the second quarter.

Probably the neatest play of the game was Able Ayer's pass to "Duke Ellington" for the last touchdown. Able released a long, leading heave which Ellington snared over the goal line on the run.

At no time during the contest did the frosh backs seriously threaten the regulars' goal line. The varsity linemen broke through time and again to throw the yearling backs before they could get started.

After all the game wasn't intended to prove anything particularly, and it didn't, but was just a little more formal method of conducting a scrimmage session.

Alabama's Crimson Tide didn't miss many opportunities last Saturday when they over-powered the Georgia Bulldogs in the latter's own stadium at Athens.

The Tide played smart, heads-up ball all the way through and capitalized on its opponents' misplays. The teams fought evenly until the final period. Then the Alabamians
