My dear Mr. Louis

Well at least I have your letters My God what sorrow, I hope and pray nothing happens to you or Mary or the poor Bee. Be careful

Chas brings the letter to me at the track at 7 o'm

I am in hopes you get the money or so all right for God knows you need them now I hoping for the best as your letter left Louisville 13th and I have had no word since so Louis may be improving Poor Mary, she must have died in a short time. She was so frail, did not look like she could stand much.

Dont father keep ^{up} the best you can under the Circumstances. will write you more about my plans to in my next letter. Weather turned warmer today. track deep in mud
