

Hotel SORRAIN

LEONARD HICKS, MANAGING DIRECTOR

WHERE VAN BUREN
CROSSES WABASH

CHICAGO

Sept 1 - 1935
7:50 A.M.

My Dearest Muds.

Will you see I am up & had breakfast and stopped in here to write you a few lines on my way to Hawthorne. Did not get in from Lincoln last night until 9:30. These are sure long days but was busy all day yesterday even did not stop for lunch. Had so much to do and it had to be done. Worked Friday night at the hotel making out badges - until 12 o'clock - then I was up & gone yesterday A.M. at 20 minutes of six. So that's the way it's been ever since I came here - that is since I have been working. Well we went to the game - Thursday and it was good. What we saw of it, for it started to rain - just as the first half was over - so we left and got pretty wet at that. There were nearly 80,000 people there after the game - the boys here at the Sorrain told me - It was like a New Year's Eve on the streets

250 ROOMS WITH BATH

GARAGE IN CONNECTION

$ 2.00 PER DAY $ 2.00