

"Human beings are involved in international and intra-national group conflicts not only as human beings, as men and women, as individuals having specific childhood experiences, as fathers, as mayors..."

Mead

