The Senate approved a motion to make the above change include also a similar reduction in the required Hygiene in other colleges.

On motion, the Senate withdrew its authorization of Junior Honor Society, "Mystic 13", as provided under Section II of the Special Rules, for repeated violations of the University Rules in its initiations.

The following report of the Honor Board of the University R. O. T. C. was presented and approved as read:

HONOR BOARD (COMMITTEE)
UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY R. O. T. C.

- PURPOSE: To conduct investigations and submit conclusions and recommendations regarding violations of the honor system in the Advanced Course, ROTC, University of Kentucky.
- COMPOSITION: From three (3) to five (5) students; in addition, one student as investigator and one student as advisor and assistant to the student whose conduct is in question, but who do not take any part in the conclusions and recommendations of the board. All to be members of the Advanced Course ROTC.
- APPOINTMENT: The advisor and assistant, if desired, to be selected by the student under investigation. Members of the board and the investigator will be appointed by the P.M.S. & T. from among those recommended by the Cadet Colonel, ROTC Regiment.

PROCEDURE:

The Cadet Colonel of the ROTC Regiment will make such investigations as he desires in cases of honor system violations coming to his attention. If he considers an Honor Board advisable, he will so recommend to the P.M.S. & T., and submit names of ten (10) Advanced Course students available for detail on the honor board. The members and investigator of an honor board will be sworn as follows:

Members:

"You () do swear that you will truly determine according to the evidence the matter now before you, and that you will duly administer justice without partiality, favor or affection, according to the provisions of the Honor System; and if any doubt should arise, not explained by said provisions, then according to your conscience and the best of your understanding; and you do further swear that you will not divulge the conclusions or recommendations of the board until they have been divulged by proper authority, except to the investigator; neither will you disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of the board upon any action in closed sessions unless required to give evidence thereof as a witness by a court of justice in due course of law, so help you God."

Investigator and witnesses:

As prescribed for the Trial Judge Advocate and witnesses in Courts-Martial.

Except as covered above, the procedure and record of investigation will follow the provisions of the Manual for Courts-Martial where applicable, and with particular reference to Special Courts-Martial.

A commissioned officer of the Military Department will attend all hearings of the board as an advisor, but will not attempt to influence in any way the action of the board in connection with its conclusions and recommendations.

CONCLUSIONS:

As a result of its investigation, the board should reach definite conclusions and make definite recommendations. In general, these will be in the report under separate headings, as:

Conclusions.

a. Facts.

- (1)
- (2)

b. Opinions.

- (1).
- (2).

Recommendations.

- b.

REPORT:

The report, signed by the President and the Investigator of the board, will be submitted to the P.M.S. & T. Where disciplinary action is recommended by the board, the P.M.S. & T. will forward the report, with his comments, direct to the President, University of Kentucky, for final action. The completed report with all actions thereon will be filed in the Military Department.
