My dear Sir. I have not much interest with the Press, but what little I have, you may depend upon I will exert in favour of Mr. Galtley; and if I cannot influence others I can do something myself which I trust may prove serviceable to him. I should call upon you as you request but am at this moment fixed to my desk with the regular business of the month, and on Sunday - as soon as I am freed. I must for Manchester where I these proceedings remain during the week. On my return you shall infallibly see me, and we will then talk the matter over. -

I am sorry to say my second daughter has been very unwell for the last fortnight, but she is now a little better.

With best regards, Believe me

My dear Sir

Yours truly obliged

J. Harrison Ainsworth
