

books. I see so many are the price - What I can have my work must be forward you nothing.

Please remember me to all your household - Recd by Dr. Beards. Thank you so much for the open for these poor people.
They need every thing.
"The Good News" is safe - & will be forwarded Shirley - Sunday - 13. 13. 1874

Dear Lada,

You asked me this afternoon to give you some statistics with regard to the poor children around the station.
It is certainly very kind & thoughtful in your friends to consider the comfort of these so far away from them, & I wish I could give you full information about them, but my domestic duties have kept me too busy of late to visit amongst these people so I could like. Sister Florence & Sister Mary Francis have been about amongst them a good deal tho'; and so has faithful Mr.
Benton, & from them you might

My dear Miss Beards:

I am so pleased with books - so far behind in every way - What I can Miss Ann (daughter of Mrs. Green) to write something when I could send you - I forward her note, and will this month appear on the get further information. I do not think that anything but all for boys, or girls up to 18 years or sometimes just of age could possibly come under them. There are the Castlebrays, Southlands Hamply, Clarks, Norwoods, & many others here & there around the river, and many others in the valley whose needs are great & whose comfort could be much materially added to, by a contribution such as you speak of & I hope these good people will find themselves able to send them some comfortable gifts. Wishing that I could give you the names & ages of all who are most needy.

I am, with love

Sincerely yours
Lily Green