

The New York Times

Sept. 12, 1925

Mr. Ernest Innes North,

I shall be proud to make the inscription. Meanwhile I need you
a fairer copy of the lines which John Quill sent you a while ago. He left it with me, his best friend.

Sincerely yours

24
Mr. Ernest Innes
North

John Quill