Albion Hotel : Bristol :
Kent. 13th October 1857

My dear Mr Deane

You were so kind, some weeks ago, as to write some friendly words to me offering facilities for a Cart Coach at the Great Exhibition, even upon a closed day, to any friend yours who might desire such a privilege. I am

Yours Deane Esq

Just now, therefore, that you will confer this favor on Mr Macready, who sends this note to you, and who, being in Manchester, is very anxious to obtain admission to the Exhibition on Sunday next the 18th. - I have already told him that he had but to apply to you himself, and that any intercession was needless in such a case; but as he still wished that Edward wrote this note, I gladly seize the opportunity of thanking you very much for your former letter.

Believe me, ever,

Yours truly yours

John Foster
