Dear Lady Blesington

Your very kind and flattering note gave me great pleasure - Believe me that I long have wished to put an end to any estrangement that existed and the happy and merry hours I passed at the Villa Galles ^{at Blesington} agreeably engraven on my memory for we ever to feel any thing but gratitude and affection for

The
Countess of Blesington
Grove House
Kensington

it in water - I have after heard and known how kindly you and Alfred have spoken of me and have often wished for an opportunity of breaking thro' the semblance of an enmity which I believe never really existed much as either side

Pray pray thank for your kind permission to come to Geneva which I hope soon morning or evening soon to avoid myself of

The enclosed letter I am very much obliged to you indeed for letting me see - I know no one more happily and prosperously I am more sincerely glad to hear of an who deserves better to be happy and prosperous - kind hearted - generous - serene and disinterested - full of the best qualities of her delightful country without any of the faults that grow in that soil - Pray when you next write remember to convey to her my sincere congratulations upon her marriage and new position. I hope the next time I go to Paris to be an occasion of expressing them in person.

Ever very faithfully,
yours

Holland
