

Mrs. Henry Reeve

30/

Mon cher Monsieur la lettre de Senex dans le Times m'a fait un profond plaisir. Je n'avois pas lu le Morning Post. Il faut avoir naturellement le cœur et l'esprit bien peu élevés pour conserver, quand on est monté si haut, de si petites et si basses rancunes. Vous n'avez pas dit, ni pu dire toute la vérité, mais vous avez remis l'Angleterre dans la voie de la vérité. Tous les amis de Madame de Lieven vous en

15/

Wednesday 81

I beg Mr Cassin to let me know where to send the objects that I have ready to be sold at the profit of the Greeks, as agreed, because I don't know whether it is at Mr Ternaux's place or somewhere else.

I would be grateful if he ^{would} answer to me rapidly.

Thousand of Compliments

Guzot

30/ Dear Sir, the letter from Jenix in the Times gave me great pleasure. I had not read the Morning-Post. One must not have naturally its heart and ^{its} spirit very high to keep, when one has been so up, so little and mean.

You did not tell, and could not tell the whole truth, but you followed England in the truth path. All the friends of M^{rs} de Lieven are ^{indefinitely} grateful to you and to the Duchess of Sutherland to have you go into it.

Thy