My dear Sir

Subject to professional engagements I shall only be too glad to be present at your interesting meeting on the 7th of December.

It would not perhaps be asking too great a favour to request at your convenience that you would forward to me here an outline of

The business of the evening and the topic to which I am required to address my attention

Thanking you for the very kind expression contained in your letter,

I remain,

Dear Sir,

Your very truly
H. Tinsal Atkinson
