W. D. HOWELLS, 130 WEST 57TH STREET

January 19, 1910.
Dear Mr. Towne:

I shall be glad to see you Sunday afternoon.
Come early - at four, and
we can have some tea
and talk by ourselves.

I liked your poem
even more than I expected
and I have written about it for an Easy Chair
which will come creaking
along towards April.

Yours sincerely
W. D. Howells.
