

W. D. HOWELLS, 130 WEST 57TH STREET

April 11, 1910.

Dear Mr. North:

Will you try if you can get me the novels (charging them to the North American Review) of Arnold
Bennett? I don't mean those he wrote in partnership with Edue Phillipotts, but only his single-handled fiction. I enclose the Satchwitz list; I have an Old Wives' tale; there may be others in English edition. I don't think he's reprinted here; our public prefers truth.

Yours sincerely

W. S. Newells.
