

177 d/c

[Nov. 1851]

Mr. W. . .

Putney

My dear Cunningham,

I have ventured (T. O.) an emendation if it be one: you will judge

I hope we shall meet on Monday. . . Many happy years to you and all of you.

Truly yours

Charles Jencks

Richard Savage

The Poet

whose frailties and Sorrows have been made memorable in his ~~Writings~~ Life

As written by

Samuel Johnson —

—