

[about her book 30e]

Gentlemen

Yr. Communication of the ninth of January reached me ~~today~~ this morning. I returned the title page without a motto because the one at first selected is not so applicable since the Additional part was written & I cannot put my hand upon another, & besides all things considered I think I like it just as well without any indication of the nature of the contents

I feel extremely obliged by Yr. politeness in placing a few copies at my disposal, if you will not think that I am encroaching on yr. Complaisance I sh<sup>d</sup>. like a copy to be forwarded to Mrs. Carlyle - to Mrs. Paullet (care of Messrs James Paullet & Co, 9 Dale Street Liverpool) and to Mrs. Shelley I do not know her address so perhaps you will at the same time forward the enclosed note to her - There is another party to whom I wish to present a copy & I have consulted Mrs. Carlyle about it; her answer I have not received, but if she applies to you will you let her have it & she will send it - if after all this you still have a copy to spare I sh<sup>d</sup>. like to have it myself for the credit of the family tho' I am too glad to come to the end of any temptation to do it again - If I might make the suggestion I think it w<sup>d</sup>. be advisable to advertise the work in the "Manchester Guardian" it has a very extensive circulation & in this part of the world w<sup>d</sup>. make the thing better known than all the magazines put together - there are one or two other very respectable Manchester newspapers if you thought it worth while to advertise it in them as well - but the Guardian is by far the most influential local organ we have here.

I sincerely hope the work will succeed but however it may turn out allow me to express my sense of the courtesy & consideration you have shown me thus the whole affair & in case I ~~for~~ ever finish another I hope you may be induced to take it also under yr. Care.

I am gentlemen

Yrs faithfully & obliged

P.S. I will forward the note for Mrs Shelley as I have been interrupted & am barely able to scive this post.
