Dear Simon

I have been inspired by my admirable Mrs. Rieple, with a 'Catechism of Cleanliness' for all schools & cottages in England. Will you look at it for me, I suggest & correct.
I want it to sell by undevoted.
~~It is at the Strand Hand~~
at one penny.

Can you meanwhile send me the statistics - (I had them & have lost them) of how many men were killed in the last

French war, How many are killed annually in England
by preventable disease.

Also, the famous comparison between the no. killed at the battle of Waterloo, & those killed in any one of the 3 Cholera's.

Also, the average of Children killed annually
in England by preventable Zymotics.

Oh do this for a cause.
but earnest means, & he will

Ever Dear, Sir,

Wm. Smith Hall
