Wm. Blackwood Esq

Enfield 29 June

Dear Sir,
Pray accept a copy of a little volume, & excuse the irregularity of my printing the Drama without your leave. We found we had not enough without it, & I think the time is past it can be of any further service to your Magazine. Mr. Professor Wilson, you told me, liked my wife's Trial, he may not dislike it volumized. Pray, forward one copy to him, & expect a Mrs. Packet from me soon. I have clear'd my shelves of my idle fancies -

In haste
& again apologizing,
Yours Truly
