

Lord Pemborough presents his Compl^s to the Master of the Charterhouse & returns him many thanks for his excellent Sermon which he regrets that it was out of his power to be present to hear

The whole of it meets with his entire approbation — particularly what respects the selection of objects for the School — — foundation, & the just & liberal tribute to the memory of poor Dr Raine

St James's Square Jan^y 29/12. 1812.
