My dear Friend

I send thee the best I can do for thy Pocket Books - instead of grumbling that it is no better pray do thy utmost to be thankful that it is no worse - Missford called on me a day or two ago; he protested at first that he could not & would not undertake for Pocket Books, but I felt too solicitous for his Countenance in the Pages to allow me to be silent on such a topic, and so I remonstrated, & persuaded, and exhorted ad infinitum I hope successfully - If I can see Proofs of the trifles now sent, whenever they are printed, I should like it - I forgot to put my name in copying them, but if desirable to thee, use it -

Thine in Trust
