My Dear Friend,

This will be delivered to you by Mr B. J. Westcott, a former pupil of mine and now of Trinity College, Cambridge.
I have so with your kind wish to convey your own decision to do with that I make no scruple in asking you to let him see the British Museum Society of Antiquaries.
You will find him well deserving any kindness you may show him.

I will remember the vote for the Waylan. With sincere esteem I am

Your affectionate friend

James P. Lee
