

20 July, 1878.

Dear Reed,

I found myself rather feverish last night (a cold, rather more) & think it will be wiser to keep the house today. I have actually had to shut my window! Send me the mail
like a good boy & come to dinner
tomorrow - if you escape the daggers
of the avengers.

Yours always

A. Lowell.

Madrid.