

Nov 18
1920

41, SLOANE STREET,
S.W.1.

My dear North, many thanks for the new Martin but please don't send any more books unless there is something very very special as we are all broke here. I am asking Papet to pay for me.

I have not yet recovered from my American experience to be able to do any composed writing. You say I'm too disturbed to feel home-side for it. I'm often

Yours sincerely
J.S.L.